THE ASTROS REMEMBER...

The Houston Astros would like to acknowledge the following individuals who have passed away recently. All left their mark on both the Houston Astros franchise and the game of baseball, and will be sorely missed:

- Joe Niekro, former Astros pitcher and 22-year veteran.
- Vern Ruhle, former Astros pitcher and pitching coach.
- Buddy Hancken, former Astros bench coach and longtime front-office employee.
- Dick Wagner, general manager of the club from 1985-87, including the NL West championship club of 1986.
- Joe Booker, Houston Forward Times sports editor who covered the team for many seasons.

JOE NIEKRO

The Houston Astros family was hit by tragedy this offseason, first losing Joe Niekro to a brain aneurysm in October, followed by the death of Vern Ruhle, who passed away from complications from cancer in January.

Niekro, who along with his brother, Phil, became one of the most successful knuckleballers in history, won a club-record 144 games for the Astros as part of a 22-year career that included stops with the Cubs, Padres, Tigers, Braves, Astros, Yankees and Twins.

The Cubs made Niekro a third-round draft pick in 1966, when he was 21 years old. When he signed with the Cubs, he threw a fastball, curve and a slider. He didn't rely as heavily on the knuckleball as his brother, because Joe had the ability to throw harder. It wasn't until his Major League career got off to a slow start that Joe began using the pitch he learned during his childhood.

Joe had yet to reach his peak when Houston purchased his contract for $35,000 from Atlanta in 1975. The Astros were non-contenders from 1975-77, giving Niekro ample time to hone his craft. He'd spend parts of 11 seasons in Houston, where he became the club's winningest pitcher and first back-to-back 20-game winner in 1979-80.

"Times were different in baseball back then. Joe was 30, 31 when he got to Houston," said Astros president Tal Smith, who was Houston's general manager from 1975-80. "It took him a couple of years until he established himself. In those days, prior to the advent of free agency, you had more time, more patience to provide opportunities.

"That gave Niekro time to perfect the knuckleball, then he produced back-to-back 20-win seasons and all of the memorable things that happened," he added. "He was such a special guy. I never heard anybody who said anything disparaging about him. He always had a smile, a quip. He kept everybody loose in the clubhouse. And he was the consummate winner."

The 1979-80 seasons were the pinnacle of Niekro's career. In '79, he led the National League with 21 victories and five shutouts, finishing second to Bruce Sutter in the Cy Young voting. He was sixth in voting for the NL Most Valuable Player Award and was selected to his only All-Star team. The Sporting News recognized Niekro as the Pitcher of the Year that season.

A year later, Niekro went 20-12 and was fourth in the balloting for the NL Cy Young. Also in 1980, Niekro threw a complete-game six-hitter against the Dodgers in the 163rd game of Houston's season. The victory clinched the NL West title — the first in team history. Niekro then led Houston to its first-ever playoff win by pitching 10 shut-out innings in an 11-inning win over the Phillies in Game 3 of the NL Championship Series.

"He pitched a terrific game 163," recalled Smith, who was stunned by Niekro's death. "It was a real shock. I saw him in the spring, and he looked great. He looked like he was in good health."

"It's really a shock when something like that happens," said Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan, who was a teammate of Niekro from 1980-85. "As a teammate, you spend a lot of time with each other and have close relationships. Anytime you lose teammates like we did with Vern and Joe, it's really hard because both were a very big part of our ballclubs."

Twenty-two years after throwing his final pitch for Houston, Niekro still ranks in the top 10 of nearly every pitching category in franchise history, including appearances (397), starts (301), complete games (82), innings (2,270), wins and shutouts (21).

Niekro's postseason success wasn't limited to his time in Houston. He was a member of the 1972 Tigers, who won the American League East, and the '87 Twins, who won the World Series.

During that '87 season, Joe's son Lance — 8 years old at the time — was a batboy for Minnesota. He was on the field during the postgame celebration, and he rode with his dad in a convertible during the parade held in Minneapolis.

Now, Lance Niekro is a first baseman in the San Francisco Giants' system. He introduced his father when Joe was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in November of 2005, calling his dad, "his hero."

Considering the impact Niekro had on many people, young and old, Lance probably wasn't alone with his sentiment.

VERN RUHLE

Vern Ruhle's playing career in Houston lasted seven years, and he spent every day making sure he made his mark.

And he did, leaving a legacy of hard work and dedication that proved that a pitcher does not have to be the most talented one on the field to make the most lasting impression.

"Vern was a guy that wasn't necessarily blessed with a lot of talent," Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan said. "I think Vern became a great student of the game, and that's why he was a successful pitcher."

Memories of Ruhle as a teammate, colleague, coach and friend rushed to the forefront soon after his death on Jan. 20. The 55-year-old passed away at the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston of complications from a donor stem cell transplant for the treatment of multiple myeloma. His death arrived only 10 months after he was diagnosed, during a routine Spring Training physical in 2006.

Ruhle was a member of the Cincinnati Reds coaching staff at the time of his passing, but the Houston baseball community was deeply affected by the news, considering Ruhle had established strong ties both as an Astros pitcher and coach.

"What we all loved and appreciated about Vern was he was a winner," said Astros manager Phil Garner, who played with Ruhle from 1981-84. "He figured out a way to do it, he worked a little harder than most people, and he was successful. I applaud him for that."

"That's what makes you sick when you see people with great physical ability and just don't apply themselves like these guys that really have to work at it. Vern was a guy that had to work at it, and he did, and he succeeded."

Ruhle won 39 games for the Astros from 1978-84. He pitched less than 70 innings in each of his first two years with Houston, but he stepped up in 1980, when J.R. Richard suffered from a debilitating and career-ending stroke.

Ruhle proved to be a solid starter that year, recording a 12-4 record and a 2.37 ERA while starting one game in the National League Championship Series, which the Astros lost to the Phillies in five games.

The right-handed pitcher finished his career with the Angels in 1986, but he resurfaced in Houston in 1997. When Larry Dierker was hired to be the Astros' manager, Ruhle was named the club's pitching coach, a post he kept until halfway through the 2000 season.

Fairly or unfairly, a pitching staff that was in shambles fell on Ruhle's shoulders in 2000, and he was let go after the All-Star Break. But his contributions weren't forgotten.

General Manager Tim Lincecum was the assistant GM during Ruhle's coaching tenure with Houston. During that time, Ruhle came up with the pitching manual that the club uses to this day.

"Vern means everything to this organization," Purpura said. "He was somebody who really impacted this organization in a tremendous way."

Purpura visited Ruhle a few times in the last year and noted it wasn't long ago that he was looking into the visitors' dugout at Minute Maid Park and waving to Ruhle during batting practice. That was toward the end of last season, when Ruhle was given a brief reprieve from M.D. Anderson to join his Reds team for their series with the Astros.

"He was doing great, looking healthy and feeling good," Purpura said. "That's how I'll remember Vern. He went through some tough times in less than a year. He was a great teacher, a great mentor."

"We'd always go out at least once in Spring Training, have dinner and talk about pitching. I learned a lot from him in those meetings. We would debate things back and forth. He was such an upbeat and positive person, and he was that way until the end."

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Houston Astros consider being a part of the community just as important as throwing strikes and hitting home runs. Throughout the year, Astros players, broadcasters, alumni, and staff partner with a myriad of non-profit and civic groups around our region to help make the community a better place to live.

OVERVIEW

The Houston Astros Community Development Department is the community outreach portion of the Houston Astros organization. The department handles a wide array of community functions including coordinating all Astros youth programs, fulfilling donation requests, arranging player and staff visits, hosting community groups at Minute Maid Park, scheduling appearances by the team mascot, and organizing special awareness days at the ballpark.

ASTROS YOUTH PROGRAMS

COCA-COLA ASTROS BUDDIES CLUB

Astros fans 12 and under can join the Coca-Cola Astros Buddies Club and receive cool souvenirs and four tickets to pre-selected Astros home games. The membership fee is only $10. For more information, fans can call (713) 259-8978 or log on to www.astros.com.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS

The Houston Astros, in conjunction with the Houston Chronicle, sponsor two school-related programs: the Perfect Attendance Program and the Honor Roll Program. During the first marking period of the year, students who enroll in the Perfect Attendance Program and maintain perfect attendance during the entire marking period receive tickets to pre-selected Astros home games. Similarly, students who enroll in the Honor Roll Program and make the honor roll during the first marking period also receive tickets to pre-selected Astros games. Students need to enroll through their school. For more information, schools can call (713) 259-8978 or log on to www.astros.com.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

During the summer months, the Astros and the Houston Chronicle team up with libraries in Houston and other surrounding areas to reward children through the Summer Reading Program. Astros game tickets are awarded to children who read 20 books during the months of June – August.

EVENTS

During 2006 alone, the Houston Astros Community Development Department organized hundreds of community events both at Minute Maid Park and throughout Houston. The following are a few of those events:

- 14th Annual Sunshine Kids Party
- Astros Hometown Heroes
- Astros Spring Training Week of Caring
- Astros Winter Caravan
- Astros Wives Charity Softball Game
- Autism Awareness Day
- Baseball Clinics at Boys & Girls Clubs

- One for the Community
- Prostate Cancer Awareness Day
- Stroke Awareness Day
- Sunshine Kids Holiday Party
- Sunshine Kids Visits to Minute Maid Park
- Walter Reed and Bethesda Naval Hospital Visits

"We have two missions: to be a champion, and to make a positive difference in the community."

—Drayton McLane, Jr.

JUNCTION JACK

The Community Development Department schedules all appearances by the Astros mascot, Junction Jack. He is available to make appearances at community, school, church or corporate functions. To book him for an event, fans can call (713) 259-8980.

DEPARTMENT GUIDELINES

Donation Guidelines

The Houston Astros want to make a positive difference in our community. We welcome charitable donation requests from the state of Texas and surrounding states. All requests must be made on the non-profit organization's official letterhead and include the date and other pertinent information regarding the event. Donation request letters should be sent to: Houston Astros Community Development Department, P.O. Box 288, Houston, Texas 77001-0288, or faxed to: (713) 259-8981. Letters should be received six weeks prior to the event date.

HALLIBURTON PLAZA

Halliburton Plaza, a fan-friendly outdoor park that highlights the histories of the Houston Astros and Houston's third-largest employer, Halliburton, opened in 2003. The plaza is located on the Crawford Street-side of Minute Maid Park between the Left Field and Center Field entrances.

Designed by The Office of Jim Burnett, Halliburton Plaza showcases the history of the Houston Astros franchise from its beginning as the Colt .45s in 1962. The park features an Astros history wall recording monumental occurrences in franchise history; championships pennants; an ode to the site as Houston's original railroad station; and a Halliburton history wall. Perhaps the most distinguishing characteristics of Halliburton Plaza, however, are the larger-than-life statues of current Astros stars Jeff Bagwell and Craig Biggio positioned on one-half of a regulation-sized baseball diamond.

Halliburton, through its subsidiary KBR, managed construction of Minute Maid Park for the Houston Astros, pioneering advanced retractable roof technology. Minute Maid Park was the third sports stadium Halliburton helped build for Houston – a triple play that included constructing Rice Stadium and portions of the Houston Astrodome.

ASTROS WINTER CARAVAN

The Astros Winter Caravan features visits to schools, community centers, hospitals, and local businesses across Texas, Louisiana and Mexico. The 2007 Caravan included stops at six different elementary, middle and high schools. The players spend their time promoting education and participation in youth sports at community centers in the Houston area. Free autograph sessions are held for Astros fans at restaurants and stores at each of the Caravan sites.

In 2007, NASA's Johnson Space Center was a special stop on the Caravan, as the players were able to take a simulated trip to outer space. While at NASA, Astros players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to meet the nation's finest astronauts. Other community visits that highlighted this year's Caravan include Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio and the Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame in Monterrey, Mexico. In a continued commitment to Drayton McLane's philosophy, the players and personnel made a positive difference in the community, as they took the time to show their appreciation to fans, schools and corporations. All totaled, 27 Astros players, coaches, and front office personnel made 41 stops in 18 cities over 11 days.

- |                    |                     |

OUR MISSION

Through the strength of the National Pastime, we will enhance the quality of life in our community through educational, health and spiritual endeavors.

We support the efforts of non-profit organizations or programs related to:

Literacy

Reviving Baseball in the Inner City

Education and Scholarships
Faith-Based Organizations

HISTORY

The Astros in Action Foundation was formally introduced to the public on September 16, 2000, at the Jim Rome World Tour Stop #22 held at Minute Maid Park. During the event, fans were encouraged to participate in a silent auction that included local and national sports celebrity memorabilia. Fans also made donations to the Astros in Action Foundation as they entered the ballpark. In a matter of two hours, nearly $10,000 was raised to help "field the dreams of Houston."

EVENTS

The Astros in Action Foundation sponsors a number of community events during the course of the year. In 2006 alone, the foundation held the following events:

- 4th Annual Astros Race for the Pennant
- Arnie in the Atrium for the Sunshine Kids
- Astros Alumni Celebrity Golf Classic
- Astros FanFest
- Astros in Action Foundation Leadoff Luncheon
- Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center Blood Drives
- Gynecological Cancer Awareness Night
- Holiday Party for S.E.A.R.C.H.'s House of Tiny Treasures and Casa de Esperanza
- Houston RBI Year-End Recognition Event
- Father's Day "Play Catch on the Field"

DONATIONS

The goal of the Astros in Action Foundation is to promote, encourage and support youth educational and physical activities in and around our community. Those interested in making a tax-deductible contribution to the Astros in Action Foundation can send a check or money order to:

GRAND SLAM FOR YOUTH BASEBALL

OUR MISSION

Grand Slam for Youth Baseball makes it easier for boys and girls to play, learn about and experience baseball, thus seeking to foster self-confidence, involvement, teamwork, and fun among area children.

OVERVIEW

The Houston Astros and the makers of Minute Maid partner together in a four-part program designed to bring the benefits of the national pastime to the young people of Greater Houston. Named Grand Slam for Youth Baseball, the program was created to make it easier for boys and girls to play, learn about and experience baseball, thus seeking to foster self-confidence, involvement, teamwork, and fun among youth in Houston and the surrounding areas.

In addition to behind-the-scenes support and coordination, Minute Maid commits over $100,000 annually to Grand Slam for Youth Baseball. The Houston Astros and the Astros in Action Foundation complement the youth baseball program by committing fund-raising assistance, game tickets, player appearances, and use of Minute Maid Park.

HISTORY

On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and Minute Maid announced that they had "expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership." The agreement called for the ballpark to be rechristened Minute Maid Park; the continuation of the Minute Maid Squeeze Play; extended pouring rights, advertising, and marketing; and a commitment "to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area."

This commitment to youth by both companies created Grand Slam for Youth Baseball. The program was officially announced on August 20, 2002, on the occasion of the unveiling of the large Minute Maid Park sign in center field.

FOUR-PART PROGRAM

Grand Slam for Youth Baseball comprises the following four components:

Sponsorship of the City of Houston Parks & Recreation Department's Youth Baseball Program

The 2007 season marks the fifth year Grand Slam for Youth Baseball has sponsored the City of Houston Parks and Recreation Department's free youth baseball, softball, and t-ball program for kids ages 4-18. GSFYB provides all t-shirts, caps, equipment, and instruction for the program. More than 2,200 Houston-area boys and girls benefit from the sponsorship each year.

Refurbishment of one youth ball field a year

The Astros and Minute Maid, through Grand Slam for Youth Baseball, have pledged to refurbish one youth ball field each year by providing landscaping, renovating facilities or helping with other needs. Employees of both organizations assist in the refurbishment efforts.

The first youth ball field to be refurbished through Grand Slam for Youth Baseball was Settegast Park Ball Field in 2003 located in Houston's East End only blocks from Minute Maid Park. In the 2006 season, St. Monica Youth Baseball Fields (one t-ball and one machine-pitch field) were refurbished with permanent fencing, an electronic scoreboard, new bleachers with safety railings, dugout covers, an improved playing field, and a new flagpole. The St. Monica Youth Baseball Fields is the first GSFYB field refurbishment project that focused on smaller fields for beginner baseball players ages 3-12.

Create a baseball-related educational program

The Grand Slam for Youth Baseball Scholarship program was launched in 2005 to assist Houston-area high school senior boys and girls with college expenses. Through the program, Minute Maid and the Astros will fund and support up to four $2,500 college scholarships per year. In the second year of the scholarship gifts, the college scholarships were awarded to four students in Houston's Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program. The recipients of these scholarships were Bryan Smart (Booker T. Washington High School/Howard University), Samantha Martinez (Sharpstown High School/University of Houston), Oscar Ayala (J.Frank Dobie High School/University of Texas), and James Eaves (North Shore Senior High School/Sam Houston State University). In addition to the four $2,500 scholarships, GSFYB also awarded eight students with $500 college scholarships.

Offer unique fund-raising opportunities for youth baseball/softball teams and leagues

Through GSFYB, the Astros and Minute Maid offer unique fund-raising opportunities to help qualified 501(c)3 youth baseball and softball teams and leagues raise money for baseball/softball-related expenses. An example is the Grand Slam for Youth Baseball-branded concession stand at Minute Maid Park established in conjunction with ARAMARK. The stand is staffed by youth baseball and softball volunteers (ages 16 and over) during Astros games, with portions of the proceeds going to the teams and leagues. This portion of the GSFYB program has generated over $100,000 in proceeds for Houston area leagues and teams.

DRAYTON McLANE

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As Drayton McLane begins his 15th season as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Houston Astros Baseball Club, his philosophy remains consistent—bring a World Series championship to Houston, and make a positive difference in the community. Since he purchased the team in 1993, the Astros rank fourth in the Majors and second in the National League in winning percentage (.541) over 14 seasons from 1993-2006. The team has won 1,191 games while losing only 1,012 during Drayton's 14-year tenure of ownership.

The Houston Astros have enjoyed remarkable success on the field in recent years, reaching the postseason in six of the last 10 seasons with a Wild Card berth in 2004 and 2005, and National League Central Division titles in 1997, 1998, 1999, and 2001. Over the last 10 seasons, only the Yankees, Braves, and Cardinals have made the playoffs more than Drayton's Astros. Another highlight in Drayton's tenure occurred in 2001, as the Astros were named Organization of the Year by four outlets: TOPPS, SportsTicker, Baseball America and Baseball Weekly.

During the recent off-season, Drayton and the Astros signed outfielder Carlos Lee to the largest contract in franchise history, a six-year, $100-million free-agent deal that is the largest in the history of the Houston franchise. Additionally, over the last two seasons, the club signed Roy Oswalt to a five-year, $73-million contract in August of 2006 and Lance Berkman to a six-year, $85-million deal in Spring Training of 2005, meaning these three stars will be in an Astros uniform until at least through the 2010 season.

Drayton's commitment to winning was never more evident than during the 2006 season, when the Astros had the fourth-highest payroll in the Majors and the highest in National League, in addition to the highest payroll in franchise history. The 2006 club was not eliminated from its quest for a third consecutive postseason appearance until the final day of the season. The 2005 season was the most successful season on the field for the Houston franchise in its history. The Astros reached heights not previously attained in franchise history, when the team won its first National League Championship and advanced to the World Series. On October 25, 2005, Minute Maid Park played host to the first World Series game played in the state of Texas.

Despite a 15-30 record through May 24 of the 2005 season, Drayton remained committed to the team's core group of players and believed that they could turn the season around. What followed was remarkable and historic, as the 2005 Astros rallied to become the first team since the 1914 Boston Braves to make the playoffs after being as many as 15 games below .500 at one point during the season. The team won its first National League crown on October 19, 2005, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in the last game ever played at Busch Stadium.

When Minute Maid Park welcomed its first fans in 2000, few realized what a surge of energy it would bring to the downtown area. Drayton's passion for baseball and the Houston Astros franchise is shared by the citizens of Houston, and more than three million fans visited the ballpark yet again in 2006, the third time in the seven-year history of Minute Maid

Park that the Astros have hit the three-million mark in attendance. In 2004, Houston fans set an attendance record and provided a level of excitement and enthusiasm that propelled the team to an 18-game home winning streak during the 2004 season. Adjacent to historic Union Station, the street-level ballpark was designed to blend harmoniously into the diversity of its surroundings. Since construction began in 1998, the development around the ballpark has increased tremendously and has had a positive economic impact on the surrounding area. The 40,976-seat, state-of-the-art ballpark ushered in a new era of baseball in Houston, and the first seven seasons in the new downtown stadium has included some of the most successful in the history of the franchise by any barometer.

In the last three years, the Astros have not only hosted two Division Series, two League Championship Series, and two World Series games, but Minute Maid Park was also the site of the 2004 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. The 75th edition of the Midsummer Classic was a treat for Astros fans and the city, as the world's top baseball talent converged on the city of Houston on July 13, 2004.

During his 14 years in Major League Baseball, Drayton has served on several MLB committees, including the Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Legislative Affairs, Ownership and Realignment committees, and the MLB Advanced Media committee. The success of the Astros has not been limited to the playing field. When he purchased the team, one of Drayton's main goals was to help make a positive difference in the community. This dream is being realized through both the players and the front office staff.

The Astros in Action Foundation was founded in 2000 and has served in thousands of projects, which work to strengthen our community. The Astros organization attends charity events, visits children's hospitals and hosts underprivileged children at the ballpark. Drayton also serves on a number of boards and committees. He is actively involved with the Cooper Institute for Aerobics Research, Greater Houston Partnership, and the United Way. He serves as Chairman of the Board of Scott & White Hospital, immediate past chairman of Baylor University, on the board of directors of The Bush School of Government and Public Service at Texas A&M University, and provides leadership as an officer of the executive committee of the National Boy Scouts of America.

After receiving his undergraduate degree from Baylor University and graduate degree from Michigan State University, Drayton returned to his hometown of Cameron, Texas, and began working in the family business, the McLane Company. What began as a small grocery distribution center grew, under Drayton's leadership, into an international firm with 18 divisions throughout the United States. Drayton worked his way through the ranks, beginning in the warehouse. Before merging the business with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. in 1991, Drayton had served as the company's President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board. He now devotes his time to McLane Group, the family holding company for M-C McLane International, McLane Advanced Technologies, McLane Polska, McLane Portugal, Classic Foods, Leading Edge Brands, Hometown Favorites, Lone Star Plastics, CSP Magazine, and the Houston Astros.

Over the years, Drayton has received many significant awards, most recently the Distinguished Citizen Award and the Silver Buffalo from the Boy Scouts of America in 2004, the Distinguished Leadership Award from Leadership Houston in 2002, and, in 2000, the Father of the Year Award from the Houston Community Partners. In addition, he was presented with the Herbert Hoover Award from Food Distributors International in 1998, and was honored with the Golden Plate Award in 1997 from the American Academy of Achievement. He also received an honorary doctorate from Michigan State University and was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

On January 19, 2005, Scott and White Memorial Hospital honored Drayton and his wife by creating the Elizabeth and Drayton McLane, Jr. Chair in Health and Wellness, a new endowed chair that is a joint appointment between the hospital and the Texas A&M University Health Science Center College of Medicine. The chair will focus on several items, including preventive care, quality of life, and general well-being.

Drayton and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Temple, Texas, and have two sons: Drayton III and Denton. They happily welcomed two new additions to their family in 2004 as Drayton III and his wife, Amy, welcomed Robert Drayton McLane and Denton and his wife, Amy, welcomed Jefferson Blaylock McLane. They are active members of First Baptist Church of Temple, where Drayton teaches Sunday School and currently serves as an active deacon. His previous responsibilities in the church include chairing the deacon board.

TAL SMITH

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

The 2007 season is a milestone in the career of Tal Smith, as this year is his 50th as a Major League Baseball executive. Tal started his baseball career in the farm department of the Cincinnati Reds in 1958, and his long tenure with the Astros has included the birth of two baseball stadiums, The Astrodome and Minute Maid Park. With his long tenure of service to the Houston baseball franchise, Tal is the main link between the Astros past and present as the club continues a new era in Houston.

Tal was a vital aide to owner Drayton McLane and to the interests of the club throughout the many stages of development of the Astros fabulous baseball facility, Minute Maid Park. The ballpark's field dimensions and unique angles were designed with Tal's input and assistance. Center field boasts a 10-degree hill - "Tal's Hill" - a tribute to his creativity and contribution to the Minute Maid Park project. Tal filled a similar role in ballpark development in 1963 when he became assistant to the president of the Houston Sports Association, acting primarily as a liaison for HSA and its' president, Judge Roy Hofheinz, during the construction of the Astrodome, a project which changed the face of stadiums and the city of Houston forever.

When natural grass failed to thrive under the Astrodome roof, Tal was responsible for finding an alternative playing surface. This led to the installation of AstroTurf, the synthetic turf that became widely used in stadiums throughout the country.

Tal returned to the Houston organization on Nov. 22, 1994, when he was named president of the club. Since 1981, he has been owner and operator of Houston-based Tal Smith Enterprises, a firm which has provided consulting services to 26 of the 30 Major League clubs. The most recognized functions have been in the preparation and presentation of salary arbitration cases (where Tal's firm has handled over 900 filings and tried over 150 cases), the financial appraisal of franchises and testimony as an expert witness in sports-related litigation. Tal also served as the sole arbitrator in two disputes involving Major League Baseball where the Commissioner was recused.

Before forming his own company, he worked for 23 years in management and administrative positions with Major League clubs, including president and general manager of the Astros and executive vice president of the New York Yankees. Widely respected by his peers throughout the country, Tal was chosen as one of 25 panelists by Baseball America in 1999 to provide an overview of baseball in the 20th century, highlighting the greatest feats, personalities and records in the game during the past 100 years.

THE 2007 SEASON WILL BE TAL SMITH'S 50TH IN MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL.

Baseball America also recognized Tal for his career of achievements and innovations in December of 2005, when the publication honored him with the Lifetime Achievement Award at the Winter Meetings in Dallas.

Tal was the primary architect of Houston's first playoff club, the 1980 NL West Division champs. That season was followed by a dramatic five-game NLCS against the Phillies in which the last four games went into extra innings, leaving Houston six outs short of its first trip to the World Series. For his efforts, he was recognized by The Sporting News as the Major League Executive of the Year. He also has served in his current capacity for all six of the club's playoff teams over the last 10 seasons, including the first World Series team in franchise history. The 2005 Astros won the first National League title in team history and on October 25, 2005, Minute Maid Park hosted the first World Series game played in the State of Texas.

Tal came to Houston from Cincinnati in November of 1960 when he was named assistant to the new National League franchise's general manager, Gabe Paul. He was named farm director of the Colt .45s in April 1961 and held that post for two years. In April 1963, he became assistant to the president of the Houston Sports Association, acting primarily as liaison for HSA during the construction of the Astrodome. In the late 1960s, he also developed the formats and pioneered the implementation of the computerization of scouting reports and other player data. During the first of Tal's three terms with the Houston franchise, the club signed and developed more players that reached the Major Leagues than any other team.

Following completion of the Astrodome, Tal was named vice president and director of player personnel in December 1965. In 1972, he was named vice president and director of operations for Astrodome-Astros Hall Stadium Corporation. In November 1973, he left Houston to become executive vice president of the New York Yankees, serving in that capacity until his return to Houston as general manager of the Astros in August 1975. He was named president of the club on Sept. 23, 1976.

In 1978, Tal led an expedition of Astros players and staff to Cuba, where they conducted baseball clinics and observed Cuban players.

Tal was born in 1933 in Framingham, Mass. He attended Culver Military Academy (IN) and Duke University where he earned a bachelor of arts degree in business administration in 1955. Before entering Duke, (at 16 years of age) Tal spent the summer as a staff announcer for the ABC radio affiliate in Durham, N.C. While at Duke, he broadcast Blue Devil basketball for stations in the region. During the summer recess in 1953, he worked as an assistant for the editorial staff at The Sporting News (at that time, the national baseball weekly) in St. Louis. Following graduation, he served as an officer in the United States Air Force for two years while continuing his radio work with various sports programs on a part-time basis. Upon completion of his military service, he worked as a news reporter for the Cape Cod (MA) Standard-Times before joining the Cincinnati Reds in December 1957 as an administrative assistant for scouting and minor league operations.

Tal was inducted into the Culver Academies Athletic Hall of Fame on September 28, 1996, and the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 4, 1998. He was presented with the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. He currently serves as Chairman of the Athletic Advisory Committee for the Culver Academies and is a member of the Advisory Board for Baseball America. He is a long-time member, and former officer, of SABR (Society for American Baseball Research) and currently serves as First Vice President of the Association of Professional Ball Players of America, an organization which was founded in 1924 to provide financial assistance for those professional baseball players, coaches, umpires, scouts, and other baseball personnel who are in need.

Tal and his wife, Jonnie, make their home in Houston. They have two children, Valerie and Randy, and two grandsons, Quinn and Shane. Tal's son Randy is a former general manager of the San Diego Padres (1993-95) and Detroit Tigers (1996-2001). Randy became the then-youngest general manager in Major League Baseball history when he was appointed to that position by the Padres in 1993 at age 29. Randy presently serves as the director of professional and international scouting for the Padres.

PAM GARDNER

PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Houston Astros President of Business Operations Pam Gardner currently serves as the longest-tenured female chief executive in Major League Baseball. The 2007 season is her seventh season as President of Business Operations in addition to her 19th overall with the organization. She was named to her current post in August of 2001. She oversees all revenue areas, customer service, building and financial operations, sponsorship and ticket sales, as well as community and marketing outreach programs.

Under Pam's leadership as team president, the club has consistently ranked among the top-drawing clubs in Major League Baseball. The Astros drew a franchise-record season crowd during their National League Wild Card season in 2004, as 3,087,872 fans attended games at Minute Maid Park. In 2006, the club drew 3,000,000 fans for the third time in the seven seasons of baseball in Houston's downtown ballpark. The Astros business group organized the ballpark activities as we hosted playoff games in three of the last six seasons since 2001, including the first World Series game ever played in the State of Texas in 2005. Minute Maid Park also played host to the All-Star Game in 2004.

In ceremonies held in Houston in November of 2006, Pam became the first female executive inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. In April of 2005, Gardner was recognized by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 Most Influential Women in Sports. She was also included in a special exhibit at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, saluting women in baseball.

She joined the team in 1989 as director of communications, developing advertising and marketing campaigns for the Club. In 1994, she was named director of marketing, where her role expanded to include a strong focus on customer satisfaction and the in-game experience.

Pam became Vice President of Marketing in 1996, overseeing advertising, marketing and ticket sales areas for the Astros, with emphasis on growing general revenue areas. As the dream of a new ballpark began to become a reality for the team, her focus was shifted to include a leadership role in the design and development of Minute Maid Park. While working on the construction and marketing of the new facility, she continued overseeing marketing for the team, including the nostalgic 1999 "A Season to Remember" campaign, a salute to the team's 35 years in the Astrodome.

Pam was named senior vice president of sales and marketing in 1999, and added sponsorship sales and marketing operations to her responsibilities. She spearheaded the advertising and marketing efforts for both the team and the new ballpark in its inaugural season, as the Astros began a new era of excitement for baseball fans in Houston and Texas. During that time, she led the development of the new logo and uniform design and implementation for 2000 and beyond. The club also set franchise attendance records in three consecutive seasons (1998-2000) in the Astrodome, in addition to the current franchise standard set in 2004 at Minute Maid Park.

Pam has also worked to make Minute Maid Park a destination for a multitude of events other than baseball games. The stadium has played host to numerous charity events, including major fund-raising galas for the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, the United Way and the annual Astros Wives' Gala. Former President George Bush's 80th birthday party, a dual event with the M.D. Anderson event, was held at the ballpark in 2004. The club also instituted its annual Race for the Pennant in 2003, a 5K race which raises funds annually for the Astros in Action Foundation. Additionally, the annual Houston College Classic, a six-team tournament held in conjunction with the annual FanFest in early February, has developed into one of the premier early-season college baseball tournaments in the country.

The Astros in Action Foundation, which works to enhance the quality of life in our community, has also increased its efforts under Pam's leadership in terms of both the volume of appearances the club makes in the community along with the amount of money donated to charitable projects through the Foundation. Pam currently serves on the board of the Astros in Action Foundation, and is also a member of the board of the Houston Area Women's Center, which provides shelter and support services to survivors of domestic and sexual abuse. Pam is a member of the board and Executive Committee of Central Houston, Inc., a private, non-profit organization supported by business institutions with the purpose of redeveloping and revitalizing downtown. She also serves on the Board of Directors for the Newfield Exploration Company and the Advisory Board for J.P. Morgan Chase.

A native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stout, Pam joined the Astros after working for ten years with an advertising and public relations agency in Chicago, serving her last five years as the vice president of the entertainment division.

Gardner has two children, Meaghan and Coleman Anderson, age 22.

GENERAL MANAGER

Astros General Manager Tim Purpura enters his third season in his current role and his 14th year overall as a member of the organization. He was named the 10th general manager in franchise history on Nov. 1, 2004, after seven seasons overseeing the club's player development areas, while also fulfilling his duties as assistant general manager.

Tim's first team as general manager was the most successful in club history, as the 2005 Astros won the National League Championship and appeared in the World Series for the first time. The Astros have also made the playoffs in six of the last 10 seasons, and all six of those clubs received significant contributions from players developed in the Astros system under his watch as farm director.

Tim made several moves to strengthen the club's championship chances during the 2006-07 off-season, including the signing of All-Star outfielder Carlos Lee in November. One of the premier sluggers in the game today, Lee has hit 30 home runs in each of the last four seasons while also averaging more than 110 RBI per year from 2003-06. Tim and the Astros signed Lee to a six-year contract that will have the All-Star outfielder in an Astros uniform through the 2012 season.

Also this off-season, Tim also traded for Colorado right-hander Jason Jennings, a rotation workhorse who is the winningest pitcher in both Rockies franchise and Coors Field history. The club also signed Houston native and veteran right-hander Woody Williams, who has more wins at Minute Maid Park than any other visiting pitcher in the ballpark's history with nine. Tim also bolstered the 2007 Astros with the signing of 2006 American League All-Star Mark Loretta in January.

Additionally, Tim has also signed two of the franchise's best players to long-term contracts during his tenure. Before the 2005 season, four-time All-Star Lance Berkman signed a five-year extension through the 2010 season. In August 2006, two-time All-Star and two-time 20-game winner Roy Oswalt signed a five-year extension through the 2011 season. Oswalt won the 2006 NL ERA title.

The 2006 Astros made an exciting charge in the final two weeks of the season, winning nine games in a row and 10 of their last 12 to fall just short of the playoffs. Tim added a strong left-handed bat in Tampa Bay slugger Aubrey Huff at the All-Star Break. Huff's 13 home runs were the most by a left-handed hitter in the second half in Houston franchise history. Additionally, Tim recalled Luke Scott from Triple A Round Rock at the All-Star Break, who went on to hit .336, the second-best total for any Major League rookie in the second half of the 2006 season.

Tim's faith in the 2005 team, which featured many young players early in their big league careers, was tested when the club started 15-30 through its first 45 games. Tim's belief in the club prevented him from dismantling it and trading away veteran players, and the reward was a remarkable run that made the 2005 Astros the first team since the 1914 Boston Braves to reach the postseason after being as many as 15 games below .500 at one point during the season. The 2005 Astros would have a greater legacy as well, becoming the first team in franchise history to win the National League and advance to the World Series.

From Oct. 24, 1997 until being named general manager, Tim directed the operation of the club's player development system and six minor league affiliates. He also assisted with all aspects of Major League operations, including player trades and free-agent acquisitions, contract negotiations and coordination of Major League scouting efforts. Beginning with the 2003 season, he added responsibility for supervision of the Astros operations in the Dominican Republic.

After assuming the general manager post, Tim restructured a front office that features many talented individuals, all of whom work as a team in all facets of the organization's operations. The group's mission is to sustain the long-term success and winning tradition of the Major League club, with the ultimate goal of bringing a World Series champion to Houston. This restructuring included the promotion of respected scouting veteran Paul Ricciarini to senior director of player personnel and professional scout Fred Nelson to coordinator of professional scouting. Both Ricciarini and Nelson have played key roles in the club's scouting success for many years. Tim also promoted Director of Minor League Administration David Gottfried to senior director of baseball operations, and Gottfried was promoted against this off-season to Assistant General Manager, Baseball Operations. Tim also added Detroit Tigers Director of Minor League Operations Ricky Bennett as the club's Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Development. Additionally, Tim named former Astros standout Enos Cabell as a special assistant to the general manager, and brought longtime Astros coach and respected baseball man Matt Galante back into the Astros fold as a consultant. Galante handles evaluation of Major and Minor League players during the season and also coordinates on-field Major League Spring Training for the club.

Tim also named Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan as a special assistant to the general manager, and the Texas icon and principal owner of both the Triple A Round Rock and Double A Corpus Christi affiliates for the club assists in the Major and minor league development efforts, with particular emphasis on the club's pitching development programs. Tim has also added franchise icon Jeff Bagwell to the front office staff, and the club's all-time home run leader will be involved in all aspects of the club's baseball operations.

Additionally, the Nolan Ryan Elite Pitching Camp and the Jeff Bagwell Elite Hitting Camp for the club's top prospects are held in conjunction each year at Minute Maid Park. The Astros Elite Camp was originally begun by Purpura and his staff before the 2005 season.

Producing winning Major League players has long been the focus of the club's player development system, as the quality of a system is ultimately judged by the Major League success of the players it produces. Recent homegrown players include four former All-Stars (Lance Berkman, Roy Oswalt, Morgan Ensberg, Brad Lidge) and many other standout players such as Gold Glove candidate Adam Everett (considered by many to be the best defensive shortstop in baseball), Chris Burke, Jason Lane, Chad Qualls, and 2005 NL Rookie of the Year runner-up Willy Taveras, the latter of whom was traded in a deal for Jason Jennings this off-season. A total of 16 players were on the Astros roster at the end of the 2006 season who have never played a game in a Major League uniform other than the Astros. Additionally, it was 2001 first-round draft pick Burke's home run in the bottom of the 18th ended the longest game in postseason history and clinched a Division Series win over the Atlanta Braves in Game 4 of the 2005 NL Division Series.

The 2006 season featured another influx of talented players who began their professional careers while Tim was directing the Houston farm system, including PCL Pitcher of the Year Jason Hirsh, Texas League Pitcher of the Year Matt Albers, talented right-handers Taylor Buchholz, Fernando Nieve, and Chris Sampson, and catcher Hector Gimenez.

During the past 10 years from 1997-2006, the Astros minor league affiliates have won at least one league championship at each of the Triple A, Double A, Class A, and Rookie League levels. In 2001, the quality of the Astros player development operations was honored with the club earning Organization of the Year honors from Baseball America, Baseball Weekly, Topps, and SportsTicker. Double A Corpus Christi won the 2006 Texas League title this season, and five of the six Houston affiliates made the postseason in their respective leagues.

Staff development has also been a staple of the Houston player development system in recent seasons. Houston bullpen coach Mark Bailey and hitting coach Sean Berry began their coaching careers in the Houston minor league system; former Kansas City manager and current Yankees first-base coach Tony Pena, who earned 2003 AL Manager of the Year honors, managed Triple A New Orleans in the Astros system from 1999-2001; and current Milwaukee pitching coach Mike Maddux's first coaching assignment was as the pitching coach for Double A Round Rock. In addition, Astros special assistant and former Diamondbacks interim manager Al Pedrique served as the hitting coach for New Orleans in 1998 and won a championship as the manager of Class A Michigan in 2000. New Washington Nationals manager Manny Acta's first managerial job in professional baseball was in the Houston minor league system.

Tim, 49, has served in several capacities since joining the club in January of 1994, including assistant director of minor league operations and director of player relations. He joined the Astros after spending two seasons as a founding member of the staff of the Arizona Fall League, a successful developmental league operated by Major League Baseball that serves as a finishing school for top prospects. In 2003, Tim was elected to the Board of Directors for the National Association, the governing board of minor league baseball. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Make-a-Wish Foundation of the Texas Gulf Coast.

He worked as an assistant in player development for the California Angels during Spring Training from 1990-92 and headed special projects for the San Diego Padres minor league department in 1991.

A native of Oak Lawn, Ill., Tim received a Bachelor of Science degree from Loyola University of Chicago in 1983 and earned a law degree from the Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego in 1992. Tim was inducted into the Oak Lawn Community High School (Illinois) Hall of Fame this November of 2005.

Tim, his wife, Shari, daughter Brooke, and son Brennan, make their home in Bellaire, Texas.

RICKY BENNETT

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Ricky Bennett begins his third season with the Houston Astros as the assistant general manager and director of player development.

Ricky oversees the operation of the club's player development system and six minor league affiliates, while also fulfilling his duties as assistant general manager. In his first two seasons in Houston from 2005-06, 13 players from the club's minor league teams have made their Major League debuts. Ricky also assists General Manager Tim Purpura with all aspects of Major League operations, including player trades and free-agent acquisitions, contract negotiations and coordination of Major League scouting efforts.

Before joining the Astros, Ricky spent eight years with the Detroit Tigers, including serving as the club's director of minor league operations for three seasons. He first joined the Tigers front office in 1997 as the assistant to baseball operations, and was promoted to assistant director of player development and scouting in 2002. He was originally hired by the club in 1996 as an area scout in the Southeast, covering Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, and the Florida Panhandle.

Ricky was signed by the Chicago White Sox and played five years of professional baseball, including three seasons in the White Sox farm system (1992-94). He graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1992 with a degree in public administration and affairs and played for the OU baseball team, helping lead the Sooners to the 1992 College World Series.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Ricky graduated from Cincinnati's Moeller High School where he was a teammate of Ken Griffey, Jr. He was named all-state in both baseball and football in 1988 when he was runner-up for the Athlete of the Year award in the state of Ohio.

He and his wife, Tracey, reside in Houston, with their two children, daughter Jessica (4/15/99), and son Ricky III (4/15/02).

DAVID GOTTFRIED

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

David Gottfried begins his ninth year in Houston's baseball operations department and his first as assistant general manager, baseball operations, after being named to the post in December of 2006. In his new position, David will continue to assist General Manager Tim Purpura with the administrative and operational oversight of the baseball operations department, including the Major League club along with the farm, scouting, and international development. His duties also include player research, contract negotiations, budgeting, visas, and affiliate relations. David will also develop new strategies for player evaluation and analysis.

David has spent the last eight years with the Astros, most recently serving as the club's senior director of baseball operations, a position he was appointed to in January of 2005. In his role as senior director of baseball operations, he was involved in scouting, player research, contract negotiations, budgeting, visas, and affiliate relations. He joined the Astros in 1998 and spent two seasons as the club's baseball operations assistant. In the fall of 2000, he was named Director of Minor League Administration and was responsible for all administrative tasks related to the operation of the Astros farm system.

He joined the Astros after spending five years with the Oakland Athletics' Class A affiliate in Modesto, Calif., serving as general manager of the club for two seasons, in 1997 and 1998. Before his stint in Modesto, he spent two seasons with the Arizona Fall League, including the league's inaugural season of 1992. He spent the 1992 season with the Grand Canyon Rafters as their director of operations and moved to the AFL league office in 1993 to assist with marketing and operations-related matters.

A native of Longmeadow, Mass., David received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hofstra University in 1992. He and his wife, Tracey, reside in Manvel, Texas with their sons Benjamin and Connor.

PAUL RICCIARINI

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL AND SCOUTING

Paul Ricciarini is in his ninth season with the Houston Astros and begins his third season as the senior director of player personnel and scouting after being named to the post on January 13, 2005. He was named director of scouting in June of 2004 after previously serving as the coordinator of professional scouting.

A native of Pittsfield, Mass., Paul spent eight seasons with the New York Mets. His tenure with the Mets included serving as National Crosschecker, special assignment scout and East Region Scouting Supervisor.

Paul began his scouting career with the Cincinnati Reds in 1975. He also worked with the Toronto Blue Jays and Atlanta Braves before joining the Mets organization. George Bell, Kelly Gruber, Todd Stottlemyre, and Mark Wohlers are among the Major League players Ricciarini has signed or recommended.

Paul and his wife Kathy have three children, Paul Jr., Francis, and Laurie, and seven grandchildren.

ENOS CABELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Enos Cabell is in his third season as a special assistant to General Manager Tim Purpura after being named to the post on November 17, 2004. He had been serving as a consultant since joining the Astros front office on July 29, 2004. Enos assists Purpura and Senior Director of Player Personnel Paul Ricciarini in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other special projects and assignments within the scouting area.

A 15-year veteran of the Major Leagues, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85, including his overall best season in 1977 when he hit .282 (176x625) with 68 RBI, a career-high 36 doubles, and 16 home runs. He was named the team's MVP in 1978 after setting a then-club mark with 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He also led the league with 162 games played and 660 at-bats that season. Enos stole over 30 bases every season from 1976-1979. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos provided analysis on HSE telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He makes his home in Missouri City, Texas, and has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

AL PEDRIQUE

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO
THE GENERAL MANAGER/
LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS

Al Pedrique joined the Astros on November 11, 2004 as a special assistant to General Manager Tim Purpura. In October of 2006, his duties were expanded to include responsibility for all of the club's Latin American operations. Pedrique, a native of Venezuela who is a former Major League player, coach, and manager, will have oversight of the franchise's academies in Venezuela, Colombia and the Dominican Republic. Pedrique will also be involved in all aspects of the club's player development and scouting efforts in Latin America, working closely with Assistant General Manager Ricky Bennett, Senior Director for Baseball Operations David Gottfried, and Senior Director for Scouting and Player Personnel Paul Ricciari. Additionally, Pedrique also will work with Julio Linares, who oversees the Astros Dominican Academy and has been a member of the Astros organization since 1973. Linares currently serves as the special assistant to the general manager for Dominican scouting and development.

Al came to the Astros from the Arizona franchise where he served as interim manager for the Diamondbacks for the second half of the 2004 season after opening the year as the team's third base coach. That season marked his first opportunity to coach at the Major League level after dedicating the previous nine years to work in the minor leagues, serving eight years as a manager. He spent the 2002-03 seasons with the Tucson Sidewinders, Arizona's Triple A affiliate, posting back-to-back winning records each season, the first time that has occurred for the Tucson franchise since 1994-95 when it was affiliated with the Astros organization and Rick Sweet was at the helm. During the 2003 season, Al had 62 different players come through his dugout during the course of the campaign as a result of injuries at the Major League level. He was rewarded for his efforts by assisting the Major League coaching staff during the final month of the 2003 season.

Al owns a lifetime record of 463-433 (.517) as a minor league manager, recording his 400th minor league managerial victory on April 29, 2003, with a win in Salt Lake. He was also a coach for the World Team in the 2003 MLB All-Star Future's Game held at U.S. Cellular Field in Chicago.

His tenure with the Diamondbacks organization began in 2001 when he managed the Double A El Paso Diablos. He was coming off back-to-back playoff seasons with Michigan, the then-Class A affiliate of the Astros, highlighted by a Midwest League title in 2000 after finishing the regular season with an 82-56 mark (.594). Al was named the Player Development Man of the Year by the Astros for his work during the 2000 season.

Al's managerial career started in 1995 with Rookie League Spokane, his first of three minor league seasons at the helm in the Kansas City organization, including a Gulf Coast League Western Division crown in 1997. In 1998, he signed on as the hitting coach for Houston's Triple A New Orleans affiliate, guiding the Zephyrs to the PCL and Triple A World Series championships.

Pedrique served as a minor league manager from 1995-2003, including two seasons with the Astros then-Class A affiliate in Michigan from 1999-2000. The 2000 Michigan club won the Midwest League title. Pedrique's first full-time Major League coaching job was in 2004, when he was the third base coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks before serving as the club's manager for the second half of the season. Pedrique has also served as the manager for Magallanes club in the Venezuelan Winter League, during the 1998-99 and 2005-06 seasons. He will again manage the team this winter.

A native of Venezuela, Al managed Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1998-99, and again this past winter. He also managed the Scottsdale Scorpions to a league-best 29-15 record during the Arizona Fall League's 2002 season before losing the title game to Peoria. The Astros Venezuelan Academy opened in 1989, and many current and former Major League players are alumni of the academy, including players such as Bobby Abreu, Raul Chavez, Freddy Garcia, Carlos Guillen, Richard Hidalgo, Melvin Mora, and Johan Santana. Abreu was the first player invited to attend the academy, while Chavez was the first signing. First baseman Roberto Petagine was the first product of the Astros Venezuelan Academy to reach the Major Leagues.

Al played three seasons at the Major League level from 1987-1989 as an infielder with the New York Mets, Pittsburgh Pirates, and Detroit Tigers. In 174 games, he batted .247 (111x449) with one home run, 18 doubles, and 36 RBI. In 1987, he was selected by Baseball Digest as the shortstop for the All-Rookie Team. He saw his last big league action with 31 games for Detroit in 1989. As a minor leaguer, he led all Texas League shortstops in fielding percentage in both 1983 and 1984 with Jackson. He was also named a 1985 International League All-Star while playing for the Tidewater Tides.

Al makes his home in Tucson, Ariz., and has two daughters, Mariana and Liliana.

JEFF BAGWELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

On December 15, 2006, the day in which the franchise's all-time home run leader announced his retirement at Minute Maid Park, the Houston Astros named franchise icon Jeff Bagwell as a special assistant to the general manager and announced an ongoing personal services contract between Jeff and the club.

Jeff, 38, hit 449 home runs and drove in 1,529 runs in the 15 seasons that he played for the Astros from 1991-2005. He is only player in Houston franchise history to win the Most Valuable Player Award, earning the honors for the National League in 1994 after hitting .368 with 39 home runs and 116 RBI. Jeff was the third player in the history of the award to be a unanimous first-place selection. He is also the only Astro to win the NL Rookie of the Year Award, capturing that distinction in 1991 by hitting .294 with 15 home runs and 82 RBI. He is one of only eight players all-time to win both honors in a career.

A four-time All-Star, Jeff is the career leader for the club in home runs, RBI, and walks, while ranking second in club history with 2,314 hits. He recorded 31 career multi-homer games, and since the end of the 1972 season, only Jeff and Cal Ripken hit 400 or more home runs while playing their entire careers with the same team. Jeff was the Astros' Opening Day first baseman for 15 consecutive seasons, and he is one of only 12 players all-time and the only first baseman with at least 400 home runs and 200 stolen bases. Additionally, Jeff is in a group of only seven first basemen in Major League history to record at least 1,500 runs scored and 1,500 RBI.

Jeff earned NL Silver Slugger Awards three times (1994, 1997, and 1999) and earned a Rawlings Gold Glove Award once (1994). Additionally, he is the only Astro with six consecutive 100-RBI seasons (1996-2001) and he recorded eight consecutive campaigns with 30-plus home runs (1996-2003). Also in 2001, Jeff joined Jimmie Foxx, Lou Gehrig, and Babe Ruth as the only players in MLB history to collect 30 home runs, 100 RBI, and 100 runs scored in six consecutive seasons (1996-2001; Albert Pujols accomplished this later, from 2001-06).

On the Major League career list, Jeff ranks 28th all-time in home runs, 52nd in runs scored, tied for 52nd in doubles, tied for 41st in RBI, 30th in extra-base hits, and 24th in walks.

In his new role with the Astros, Jeff will assist the club's baseball operations staff with its Major and minor league player development programs, the Astros hitting development program, the amateur draft, scouting and minor league team operations and evaluations. He will also spend time with the club in Spring Training, providing instruction to players and staff and evaluating both Major and minor league players.

Additionally, the annual Astros Jeff Bagwell Elite Hitters Camp in late January will be an opportunity for the club's young hitters, including some with Major League experience, to refine and work on their game before Spring Training. The camp will be held at Minute Maid Park each year in conjunction with the Astros Nolan Ryan Elite Pitchers Camp. Bagwell will also travel with the Major League club on selected road trips and will observe the organization's minor league clubs during the regular season. He will also make various promotional appearances during the year, including the annual Astros FanFest and Winter Caravan.

NOLAN RYAN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

In 2004, the Houston Astros welcomed the return of Hall of Fame pitcher Nolan Ryan when he signed a five-year, personal services contract with the organization.

Nolan, 60, pitched for the Astros from 1980-88 and serves the club in a variety of roles. He assists the club's Major League baseball operations staff with its Major and minor league player development programs, the Astros pitching development program, the amateur draft, scouting and minor league team operations and evaluations. He also spends time with the club in Spring Training, providing instruction to players and staff and evaluating talent on the Major and minor league levels. In January of 2005, Nolan teamed up with Astros general manager Tim Lincecum and the club's minor league pitching coordinator, Dewey Robinson, to bring the Houston Astros Nolan Ryan Elite Camp to Houston. The week-long camp at Minute Maid Park, which enters its third season in 2007, is an opportunity for young pitchers in the organization, including some with Major League experience, to refine and work on their game before Spring Training. The schedule consisted of bullpen sessions, baserunning drills, bunting, informational meetings, and one-on-one critiques with Nolan. The camp was so successful that the club has made it an annual event, and in January of 2006, the camp was expanded the roster to include position players.

One of the principal owners of the club's Triple A affiliate, the Round Rock Express, and the Double A affiliate, the Corpus Christi Hooks, Nolan attends regular season and playoff games and assists in the efforts of the Astros sales, promotions and marketing departments.

Nolan finished with a 324-292 career record and a 3.19 ERA (1911ER/5386IP) in 807 career outings. He threw 222 complete games and 61 shutouts, and the eight-time All-Star appeared in the Midsummer Classic with Houston twice, in 1981 and 1985. In 282 starts for the Astros, Nolan was 106-94 with a 3.13 ERA (645ER/1854.2IP), throwing 38 complete games and 13 shutouts while striking out 1,866 hitters.

The all-time strikeout king in Major League Baseball history with 5,714, Nolan has owned or shared 53 Major League records. He ranks tied for 13th all-time with 324 career wins and threw a record seven no-hitters. Only Cy Young made more career starts than Nolan's 773, and the right-hander's 27 Major League seasons rank as the most of any player in baseball history.

During his illustrious 27-year Major League career, Nolan pitched for four teams – the New York Mets, California Angels, Astros, and Texas Rangers. He began his career with the New York Mets from 1968-71, earning a World Series ring in 1969 when the Mets defeated Baltimore in the World Series. He was traded to California following the 1971 season, and spent eight seasons with the Angels from 1972-79. He signed with the Astros as a free agent on Nov. 19, 1979, and spent the next nine years with Houston. After signing with Texas as a free agent on Dec. 7, 1988, he spent the final five seasons of his career with the Rangers.

In 1965, after graduating from Alvin (TX) High School, Nolan signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Mets, and was assigned to the team's rookie league club in Marion, Va. One year later he was pitching in the Major Leagues, debuting with the Mets in 1966.

Along with his many on-field accomplishments, Nolan has the unique distinction of being the only player in Major League history to have his uniform number retired by three different teams – the Angels, Astros and Rangers. His No. 34 uniform was retired by the Astros on Sept. 29, 1996, in the Astrodome. He was the first player in Rangers history to have his uniform retired (Sept. 15, 1996), and on June 16, 1992, the No. 30 he wore with the Angels was retired. On Jan. 5, 1999, the Baseball Writers Association of America awarded Nolan the ultimate recognition when he was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility, by 98.79 percent of the vote, second-highest of all time. Also in 1999, baseball fans across America voted Nolan to the All-Century Team.

At the time he signed his last contract with the Rangers, he agreed to a personal services contract. He spent 10 seasons as Special Assistant to the President, serving the Rangers in a number of baseball, marketing and public relations activities from 1994-2003.

In May of 1998, he joined his son Reid and a group of investors in bringing a professional baseball franchise to Central Texas by purchasing the Jackson (Miss.) Generals, the Astros Double A affiliate, and moved the team to Round Rock. In 2004, he helped purchase the Triple A Edmonton Trappers franchise, which became Triple A Round Rock for the 2005 season, while the Double A club relocated to Corpus Christi, Texas, to compete in the Texas League.

Following his retirement, Nolan was able to further pursue additional business ventures. He is the majority owner and Chairman of the Board of the Express Bank of Texas in Alvin, Danbury and Round Rock, Texas, and owns Nolan Ryan's Waterfront Restaurant and Bass Inn near Three Rivers, Texas. He is an investor in Nolan Ryan's Tender Age Beef, which is available as a concession item at Minute Maid Park and The Dell Diamond in Round Rock. Nolan also owns and operates several cattle ranches in South Texas.

Nolan is a member of Beefmaster Breeders United, a national cattle organization, and in the past has served as President for a two-year term. Other civic involvements include serving on the Boards of Directors of the Nolan Ryan Foundation, the Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund, the Texas Water Foundation, the Natural Resources Foundation of Texas, the Alvin Community College Baseball Scholarship Fund, and Sanders Morris Harris, the largest investment bank in the Southwest. The Nolan Ryan Foundation built the Nolan Ryan Center for Continuing Education at Alvin Community College, which also houses the Nolan Ryan Exhibit. He was appointed by former Governor George W. Bush to a six-year term as a Commissioner with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission in 1995, and served as Vice Chairman of the Commission from June 1, 1995-Aug. 28, 1997.

He has written two autobiographies, "Throwing Heat" in 1998 and "Miracle Man" in 1992. He also wrote "Kings of the Hill" in 1992, and he co-authored "Pitching and Hitting" in 1977 and "The Pitchers' Bible" in 1991.

Lynn Nolan Ryan, Jr. was born on Jan. 31, 1947, in Refugio, Texas. When Nolan was six weeks old, his family moved to Alvin, Texas, where he grew up and still resides today with his wife of 38 years, Ruth, also a native of Alvin. The couple has two sons - Reid and Reese, and one daughter, Wendy, and two daughters-in-law, Nicole and Alison. Nolan and Ruth also have five grandchildren: Jackson, Victoria and Ella - Reid and Nicole's children, and Caroline and Julia - daughters of Reese and Alison. When not visiting children and grandchildren in Round Rock, Nolan and Ruth divide time between their ranches in Gonzales and Tilden and their new home in Williamson County.

* LEAGUE LEADER

JULIO LINARES

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO
DOMINICAN REPUBLIC OPERATIONS

A member of the Astros organization since 1973, Julio Linares begins his third season as special assistant for Dominican scouting and development. He previously spent six seasons as director of Dominican Republic Operations.

Julio served as manager of the Gulf Coast Astros in 1997-98. Overall, he has managed Houston's Rookie League club for 16 years (Sarasota 1977-80, 1984-87; Gulf Coast 1988-93, 97-98). He also spent three years at the Major League level as the Astros bench coach from 1994-96.

Julio played 15 seasons in the minor leagues as an infielder and outfielder and finished ninth in the Pacific Coast League with a .308 average in 1969. He retired after the 1972 season and began his coaching career with the Astros in 1973 at Covington in the Appalachian League.

Julio and his wife, Damaris, reside in San Pedro. He has five sons, Amaury, Rodney, Erick, Brian, and Michael. His son Rodney is the hitting coach for Houston's Class A team in Lexington and his son Amaury is a coach for the Dominican Summer League Astros.

MATT GALANTE

THE GENERAL MANAGER

Longtime Astros coach Matt Galante begins his second season as a special assistant to general manager Tim Lincecum. He returned to Houston on January 13, 2005, when he was named a consultant for baseball operations. Matt rejoined the organization after spending three seasons with the New York Mets as their third base and infield coach from 2002-2003, and their bench and infield coach in 2004. His duties with the Astros include participation in Major League Spring Training as well as assisting in the evaluation of players at Major and minor league levels throughout the regular season.

An Italian-American born in Brooklyn, NY, Matt served as the manager of Italy's team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in March.

Matt previously spent 21 years with the Astros organization from 1980-2001, the longest tenure by any coach in franchise history. He served 16 seasons as a member of the Major League coaching staff (1985-96, 1998-2001) and worked for five managers: Bob Lillis, Hal Lanier, Art Howe, Terry Collins and Larry Dierker. Matt also managed in Houston's minor league system for five years, from 1980-82 with Double A Columbus of the Southern League and 1983-84 with Triple A Tucson of the Pacific Coast League.

Matt was a coach every season from 1985-2001 with the Astros except for 1997. That year, he began the season as a special assistant to General Manager Gerry Hunsicker, however, four games into the minor league campaign, he was named the manager of the Astros Triple A New Orleans club of the Pacific Coast League. He guided the club to an overall record of 74-70, a second place finish in the PCL's Western Division and a berth in the playoffs. From 1998-2000, he served as Houston's bench coach and in 2001, he was the third base coach for the Astros. Matt also took over as the Astros interim manager from June 14-July 14, 1999 while Larry Dierker recovered from brain surgery. Houston went 13-14 with Galante at the helm.

Prior to his tenure with Houston, Matt served as a scout and minor league instructor for the Mets in 1978 and then managed New York's Class A Little Falls club of the New York-Penn League in 1979. He began his managerial career in the Milwaukee Brewers organization in 1973 with Class A Newark of the New York-Penn League and stayed with the Brewers through 1977, winning a Class A Midwest League title with Danville in 1974. He also worked as a player-coach with Triple A Evansville of the American Association in 1973 before beginning his managerial career later that season.

Matt was drafted in the 25th round of the June 1966 Free Agent Draft by the New York Yankees and played in their farm system through the 1971 season. In 1972, he was traded to Milwaukee. Matt was an All-American second baseman at St. John's University his senior year when he batted .402 and helped the Redmen qualify for the College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

Matt resides in Staten Island, NY. He and his wife, Mary, have three children: sons Paul and Matthew Jr., and daughter Mary. His son, Matthew Jr., was a 13th-round selection of the St. Louis Cardinals in the June 2000 draft. Matthew Jr. played for the Cardinals organization for two years before being signed by the Mets in the 2001 offseason. He played for Class A Capitol City of the South Atlantic League in 2002 and split the 2003 season between Capital City and Class A St. Lucie of the Florida State League. Matthew Jr. played for Double A Binghamton of the Eastern League in 2004 and now owns a business.

BARRY WATERS

DIRECTOR OF TEAM TRAVEL

Barry Waters returns for his 23rd season of overseeing all aspects of Astros travel and accommodations across the country. Recognized as one of the best in his field, Barry was selected to lead the Major League Baseball All-Star tour of Japan following the 1996 season. His peers voted him Traveling Secretary of the Year in 1992.

Barry was named the club's traveling secretary on an interim basis in July of 1986 before being named to the post on a full-time basis in September of that year. His role was expanded in 1993 when he was named director of baseball administration with duties that include overseeing budget and administration.

A native of Ashland, Mass., Barry joined the organization in 1980 and filled several positions before being named traveling secretary. He also worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers for one year before joining the Astros.

Barry has two children, Colin and Claudia. He and his wife, Heather, live in Houston.

JAY LUCAS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

The 2007 season marks Jay Lucas' 15th season in professional baseball and fourth season as senior vice president of communications, a position he was appointed to on September 22, 2003. He is responsible for all corporate and club communications efforts and directly oversees the media relations, marketing, community development, broadcasting, special events and market development departments. Lucas works with his management team in building a proactive communications and marketing plan that helps promote the Astros brand and its players.

Prior to joining the Astros, his career as a professional communicator spanned 23 years in Southern California. Jay came to Houston from the now Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim where he served as director of publicity and broadcasting in 2002 and 2003, managing strategic publicity plans for the marketing and media relations departments and overseeing the broadcasting and community relations departments. While with the Angels, he handled all broadcast duties for the 2002 World Series and in 2003, helped plan and execute marketing initiatives that helped the organization reach the three million mark in attendance for the first time in club history.

Lucas began his professional baseball career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 (1988-1996) as assistant director of publicity and earned a promotion to director of publicity in 1991. As director, he coordinated all public relations efforts for the organization and was in charge of all media relations activities for the 1988 World Series and the 1995 and 1996 National League Championship Series. He has also assisted MLB in media efforts at other All Star games, League Championship Series and World Series. Baseball dates back to 1923 in the Lucas family, when his great uncle, Red Lucas, began his pitching career with the New York Giants. Red's career is highlighted by his induction into the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame in 1965.

Lucas changed career paths when he joined the world of professional racing in 1996 and went to work for Penske Motorsports, Inc. (PMI) and the California Speedway. He served as director of public relations for PMI and the speedway from 1996-2000 and planned, developed and implemented all of the public company's communications components. PMI was purchased by International Speedway Corporation (ISC) where he served in the same role before leaving the company in 2001 to join Championship Auto Racing Team (CART) as their senior vice president of communications and entertainment marketing.

A 1981 communications graduate from California State University, Chico (Chico State), he began his communications career as a public relations assistant for the Los Angeles Lakers and the then-California Angels in 1981. He served as sports information director for the University of California, Santa Barbara in 1983 and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director, Media Relations from 1986-1988.

Jay and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, D. Jay and Tyler, and a daughter, Lindsay. They reside in Spring, Texas.

JACKIE TRAYWICK

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Jackie Traywick is in her fifth season with the Astros after joining the franchise in February of 2003. She was promoted to senior vice president of finance and administration in September of 2003 and is responsible for all finance, accounting, human resources, and information technology functions for the team as well as event reporting and settlement for all events occurring at Minute Maid Park and in its Conference Center.

Jackie brings more than 18 years experience in sports administration, having served as vice president of finance for the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers NFL franchise and the Nashville Coliseum stadium. She began her career with the accounting firm of PriceWaterhouseCoopers in 1985.

She received her Master of Business Administration in Finance from Rice University in 1994 and her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Denver in 1983. She is also a licensed CPA in Texas.

Though she was born in Baltimore, Md., Jackie grew up in Denver, Colo. She and her husband, Don, live in Houston.

BOBBY FORREST

VICE PRESIDENT, BALLPARK OPERATIONS

Bobby Forrest was named the club's vice president of ballpark operations in January of 2007. He originally joined the Astros franchise on January 2, 1995, as a member of the engineering department. Bobby was subsequently promoted to engineering supervisor in 1997, engineering manager in 1999, and senior director of engineering and maintenance in 2003. He is responsible for all building operations, which will include engineering, groundskeeping and security. Bobby also played a key role in the club's move from the Astrodome to the brand-new Minute Maid Park prior to the 2000 season.

Bobby is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers and also the Association of Retractable Roof Operators World Wide, the latter of which he has served as vice president.

A native of Houston, Bobby and his wife, Cathie, have three children, Bobby, Chelsey and Kyle.

MARIAN HARPER

VICE PRESIDENT,

Marian Harper begins her 16th season with the Astros. She was named vice president of community development on July 22, 1999, after serving as the director of that department since November 1997. Under her guidance, the department assists thousands of organizations annually through memorabilia and monetary donations, appearances, community awareness programs, player involvement, and the Astros mascot program. She is also responsible for all youth outreach initiatives including educational programs, the youth fan club, and the Grand Slam for Youth Baseball program with Minute Maid.

Marian also oversees the day-to-day operations of the Astros in Action Foundation. The AIAF was established in 2000 during the Astros inaugural season at Minute Maid Park. The mission of the Astros in Action Foundation is to use the strength of the National Pastime to enhance the quality of life in the community through educational, health, and spiritual endeavors. Major fundraisers for the foundation include the Astros FanFest, Leadoff Luncheon, Race for the Pennant - 5K Run/Walk, and the Astros Alumni Celebrity Golf Classic.

She joined the Astros in 1992 as Promotions Coordinator, overseeing purchasing, distribution and account services for in-game activities.

Marian is a native of Pittsburg, Texas. She currently serves on the Board of the Northeast YMCA where she was named 2002 Volunteer of the Year, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston, and The Ensemble Theatre.

ROSI HERNANDEZ

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKET DEVELOPMENT

Rosi Hernandez joined the Houston Astros in July of 1999 when she was named vice president of market development. She has been instrumental in the development of the organization's niche marketing and promotional efforts, including the team's award-winning Spanish web site, the Hispanic advertising campaign efforts and marketing initiatives aimed at attracting the female segment of the market to Minute Maid Park.

Rosi also leads the club's efforts in developing special multi-cultural events such as the Astros Hispanic, Black and Asian Heritage events, and works closely with international journalists in producing articles for the team's website, the Astros Magazine and the Astros Spanish newspaper, "Cronicas de los Astros.". In addition, she works closely with the club's sponsorship and sales team in creating and selling packages to prospective clients. Since 2004, she has spearheaded the day-to-day operations of the Astros Spanish game broadcasts on Univision Radio. In 2006, Rosi helped develop and produce the Astros' first bilingual monthly TV special, "Contacto con los Astros," which airs on FSN.

In 2001, Rosi received the Triunfando Award for Female Senior Executive of the Year from the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, where she also serves on the Board of Directors. In 2005, she was named among the 100 Hispanic Elite Women of the Year by the national business publication Hispanic Business Magazine. Rosi serves as the Vice Chair of Tourism for the Greater Houston Conventions and Visitors Bureau. She also serves on numerous other boards and advisory committees, including AAMA (the Association for the Advancement of Mexican Americans), the Latin Women's Initiative, and the Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council, the second largest council in the nation.

A native of San Juan, Puerto Rico, Rosi received her bachelor's degree in newspaper journalism in 1989 and her master's in public relations in 1991, both from Syracuse University. She and her husband, Jorge, make their home in Clear Lake.

JAMIE HILDRETH

VICE PRESIDENT, SALES AND BROADCASTING

Jamie Hildreth, a 33-year veteran of Houston radio, was named vice president of sales and broadcasting in 1999 after serving as the Astros director of broadcasting since July 1987. His radio career in Houston has spanned roles from sales to management, including sales manager of KTRH Radio from 1984-87 before joining the Astros. The 2007 season will be his 21st season with the Astros franchise.

Jamie is responsible for building the Astros Radio Networks in English and Spanish and coordinating all television broadcast productions. He oversees the Astros broadcasting team for both home and road games. Jamie also leads the sales team for all revenue categories for the Astros, including print, radio and television inventory at Minute Maid Park.

Jamie and his wife, Theresa, reside in Houston, and have two sons, Jeff and Shane.

MARTY PRICE

VICE PRESIDENT OF GUEST EXPERIENCES

An accomplished executive in the hospitality industry, Marty Price joined the Houston Astros as Vice President of Guest Experiences in February of 2007. Marty oversees customer services, guest relations, and is the organization's liaison with Aramark, the concessionaire for Minute Maid Park. He joins the Astros from Levy Restaurants, where he most recently served as the regional director of operations.

Marty first worked at Houston's new downtown ballpark when he served as the general manager of Aramark at Minute Maid Park, directing daily operations and managing business maturation in the home of the Houston Astros. In 2001, he was named the district manager of the Aramark sports and entertainment division, overseeing all of the company's operations at Minute Maid Park, the Compaq Center, Verizon Wireless Theater, the Houston Arena Theater, Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion, and all Texas A&M University sports facilities in College Station, Texas.

Marty joined Aramark in 1989, and in addition to his tenure at Minute Maid Park, he also worked for the company at The Astrodome as the sales director for luxury suites (1989-92) and the division manager of premium services (1995-97). He also served as the general manager of Sam Houston Race Park from 1992-94 and the Louisiana Superdome from 1997-99.

Additionally, Marty has a long-time association with the Astros franchise that predates his work history, as when he was nine years old, his father was the on-call doctor at the The Astrodome.

Marty has a bachelor's degree in hotel and restaurant management from the University of Denver and an MBA with a concentration in finance from St. Thomas University in Houston. He and his wife, Kim, reside in Houston and have a five-year-old daughter, Marley.

KALA SORENSON

VICE PRESIDENT, CONFERENCE CENTER AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Kala Sorenson, responsible for all non-baseball events at Minute Maid Park and Union Station Conference Center, is in her eighth year with the Astros. She was promoted to vice president of special events on Jan. 1, 2001, after originally joining the organization as director of the conference center.

Kala is a Houston native who attended Klein High School and the University of Texas. She worked from 1996-2000 for the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau as convention sales manager, establishing relationships in the sports industry and various associations in the Midwest.

Beginning her career in the hospitality industry, Sorenson worked closely with Major League Baseball, the NBA and the NFL as the Sports Market Sales Manager for the Westin Galleria and Westin Oaks Hotels in Houston. She also helped create the Westin "One Call Department," sales and catering for groups of 75 people or less.

Kala is a member of the board of directors for the Houston Downtown Alliance and the board of directors for the Epilepsy Foundation of Southwest Texas. She is also a member of Meeting Professionals International.

JOHN SORRENTINO

VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

After 17 years in group and season tickets, John Sorrentino was named vice president of business development on Sept. 9, 2005. In his new role, John works on selling corporate packages, as well as taking on projects such as Spring Training revenue enhancement and funding for a proposed museum and new business opportunities.

John became the club's vice president of ticket sales and services on July 22, 1999, managing the entire ticket department at Minute Maid Park, including group, season and individual game ticket sales, as well as box office and customer service management.

The 2004 season turned out to be the most prosperous year for John and his staff. The Astros set a franchise record for attendance, drawing 3,087,872 fans to Minute Maid Park, including 24 sellouts. John was also responsible for the tickets and distribution services for the 2004 All-Star Game at Minute Maid Park and related events. The new club attendance record eclipsed the mark set during the 2000 season, the inaugural campaign at Minute Maid Park, when 3,056,139 tickets were sold at the new downtown ballpark, becoming the then-only Texas sports franchise to surpass the three million mark. The team drew more than 2.9 million fans in 2001, the third-highest total in franchise history.

John joined the Astros in 1987 as a ticket account executive and moved to the Community Relations department in 1989 as director of community services before moving back to the ticket services operations. From 1999-2000 he oversaw the season ticket relocation of the Astrodome's season ticket holders to Minute Maid Park.

The 1983 graduate of Texas A&M began his career as a sales manager for Houston Gamblers USFL football. John serves on the board of directors for SEARCH, a United Way agency organization that is responsible for enhancing and improving the lives of Houston's homeless. He also serves on the charity board of directors for the Administaff Small Business Classic Senior PGA Tour event, held in Spring every October.

Sorrentino and his four children, Andrew, J.D., Patricia, and Hannah, reside in Kingwood.

CHAPLAIN

A business leader and veteran broadcaster, Gene Pemberton is the first full-time chaplain in Major League Baseball. Gene first joined the Astros organization in January 1994. He served as director of community development until becoming the team chaplain in 1997.

Gene served for 31 years at American Desk Manufacturing Company in various capacities. Before coming to the Astros, he was the vice president of marketing and director of special projects, selling stadium seating for more than 60 sports venues, including the 70,000-seat Georgia Dome.

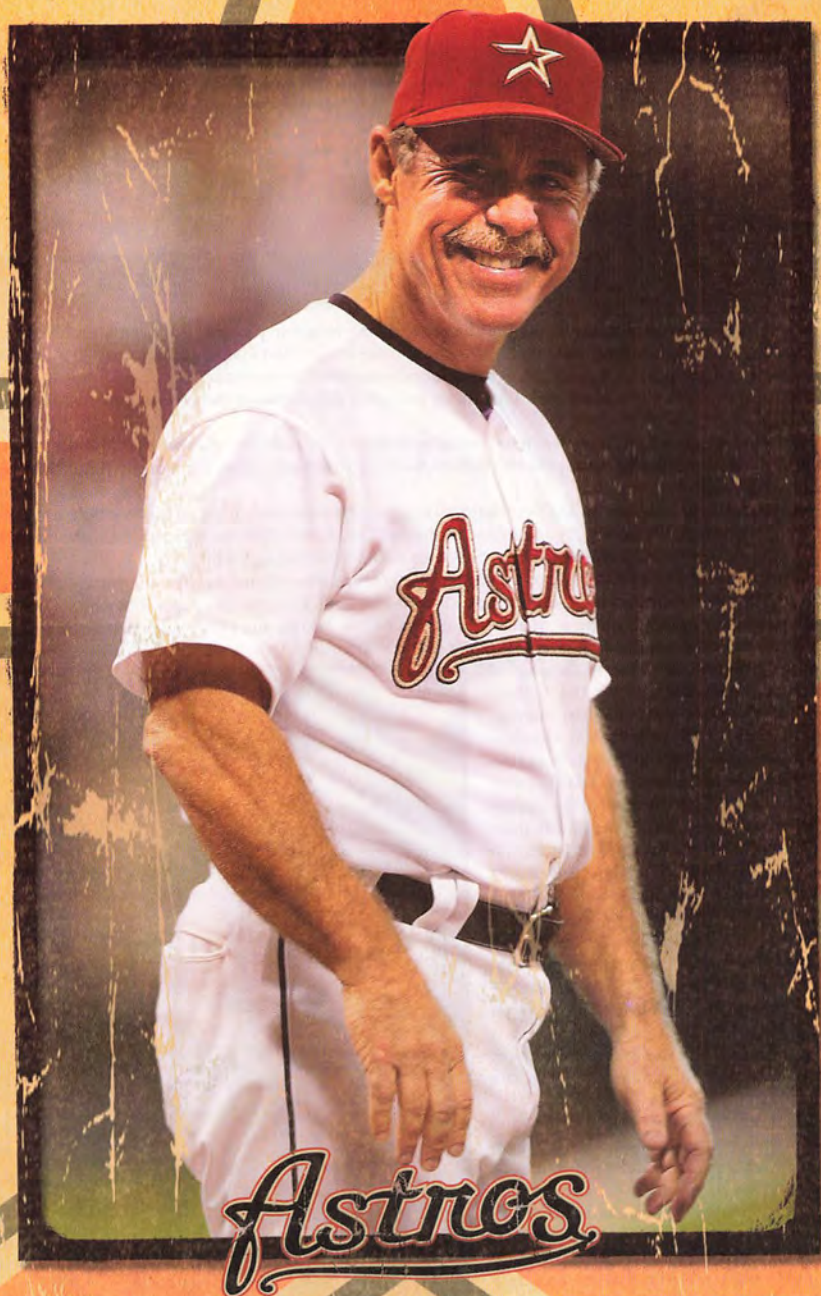

A long-time basketball and football official, he was honored as a lifetime member of the Southwest Officials Association for 23 years of service. Gene officiated in four state basketball tournaments.

Gene has been the color commentator for Temple Wildcat football games on KTEM radio since retiring from officiating in 1986. He and play-by-play announcer Mark McLain have been honored by the Associated Press for best sports play-by-play in their class several times since 1992. ## MANAGER

Phil Garner is entering his fourth season as the manager of the Houston Astros. During his tenure, the club has reached heights not previously attained in franchise history. Garner was named manager on Nov. 2, 2004, becoming the 14th manager in franchise history. The former Astros infielder assumed the interim manager's post on July 14, 2004, during the All-Star Break. Garner joins Larry Dierker and Art Howe as former Astros players who have returned to the franchise as the club's manager.

Under Phil's guidance, the Astros have reached several milestones. In 2004, the club won its first postseason series, defeating the Atlanta Braves in five games in the NL Division Series, and fell one game short of reaching the World Series, falling to St. Louis in seven games.

In 2005 under Garner, the Astros won the first National League Championship in team history, defeating St. Louis in six games in the NL Championship Series. By advancing to the Fall Classic, the 2005 team brought the World Series to the state of Texas for the first time in baseball history, as the Astros battled the Chicago White Sox.

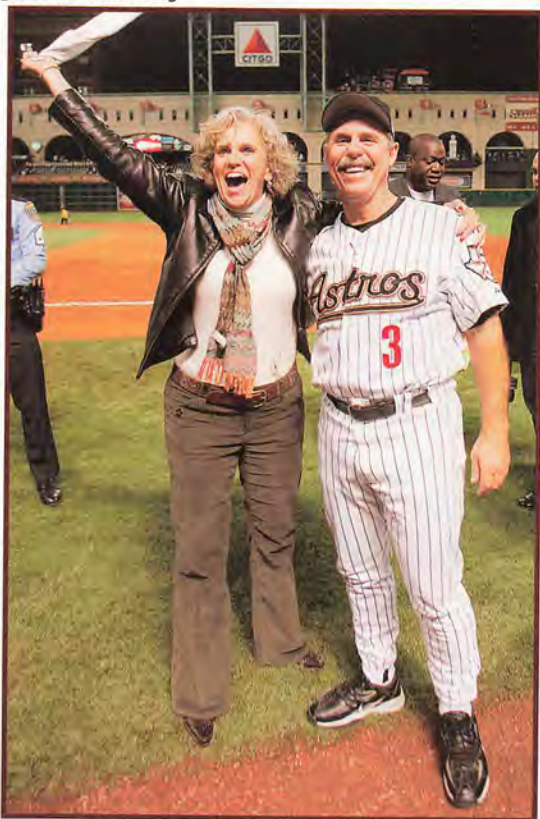

The 2005 season started out with the Astros holding a 15-30 record after 45 games. The improbable finish, in which the Astros earned the National League's Wild Card berth, made the 2005 Houston team the first since the 1914 Boston Braves to make the postseason after being as many as 15 games below .500 during the regular season. Garner tallied 38 points to finish third in the 2005 National League Manager of the Year voting.

By managing in the World Series in October of 2005, Garner became the player with the highest career average in World Series games (.500) to manage in the Fall Classic. During the 2006 season, Houston finished 82-80 but made a remarkable late-season charge typical of Garner's Astros teams. The club won nine in a row during the final two weeks of the season and went 10-2 in its last 12 games to finish just short of St. Louis for the NL Central crown. In 2006, Garner recorded career win No. 900 as a manager, and he is 73 wins away from becoming the 55th manager all-time to reach the 1,000-victory plateau.

Garner is in his third managerial stint and has an 927-981 (.486) overall record in 1,908 games as a Major League manager with the Detroit Tigers, Milwaukee Brewers and Houston. He became the 33rd manager of the Tigers on Oct. 14, 1999, after seven-plus seasons at Milwaukee as the skipper of the Brewers. He spent two-plus seasons with Detroit, guiding the club to a 145-185 record.

As the manager of the defending National League champs, Garner managed the 2006 NL All-Star team at PNC Park in Pittsburgh. His primary influence during both his playing days and in his current role as a manager, Chuck Tanner, was on the bench as an honorary coach during the Midsummer Classic at PNC Park. Garner became the first individual to manage the All-Star Game in the same city in which he won a World Series as a player, for the 1979 Pittsburgh club managed by Tanner.

Overall, the Astros are 219-179 under Garner, and his .550 winning percentage ranks second in Houston franchise history. His Houston teams earned consecutive Wild Card berths from 2004-05, and in the second half of the 2004 campaign, he guided Houston to a 48-26 record (.649). The 2004 Astros were 36-10

(.783) in their last 46 games of the 2004 regular season, the best record in baseball during that time period, the best finish in franchise history, and the second-best finish in NL history from Aug. 15 through the end of the season. He finished fourth in NL Manager of the Year voting in 2004.

During his tenure with the Tigers, Garner finished sixth in American League Manager of the Year voting in 2000, receiving two third-place votes. He earned his 700th win as a manager on Sept. 16, 2001, with a 6-2 victory at Minnesota, and he picked up his 600th career victory on July 4, 2000, in an 11-0 win at Tampa Bay. He was released by the Tigers in April 2002.

Before joining the Tigers, Garner served as skipper of the Milwaukee Brewers. He was replaced as the Brewers manager on Aug. 12, 1999, and left as the club's all-time leader in games managed and victories with a 563-617 mark. He passed Tom Trebelhorn for first place in Brewers history in wins with his 423rd on Aug. 24, 1997, in a 6-0 victory vs. Detroit. He earned his 500th career win on Aug. 26, 1998 at Colorado, and he managed in his 1,000th career game on July 17, 1998 at Atlanta.

Garner finished in the top three in balloting for the AL Manager of the Year award in two seasons, placing third in 1997 and second in 1992. He piloted Milwaukee to a 78-83 record in 1997 as the Brewers finished third in their final season in the AL, eight games out of first place. In 1996, he became the third manager in Brewers history to win 300 games as he led a young team to an 80-82 record and third in the AL Central. The club closed with a 25-16 record down the stretch, the third-best mark in the league.

2007 COACHING STAFF

Garner also finished sixth in AL Manager of the Year voting in 1995 as the Brewers tied a big league record with 10 grand slams and led the Majors in double plays turned. During the 1992 season, his first as a big league manager, he led the Brewers to a 92-70 record and second place in the AL East. Garner's Brewers club was the last to be eliminated from the division chases, finishing four games behind eventual World Champion Toronto. Garner succeeded Tom Trebelhorn as the Brewers ninth manager on Oct. 30, 1991, to begin his first managerial stint.

Following the 1988 season, Garner retired as a player and assumed a coaching role on the staff of then-Houston manager Art Howe. He coached first base in 1989-90 and third base in 1991 while also serving as the club's infield and baserunning instructor.

A three-time All-Star, Garner enjoyed an 18-year professional playing career beginning in 1971, when he was the first pick in the secondary phase of the January draft by Oakland. He played primarily second and third base during his career and spent 14 full seasons, and parts of two others, in the Major Leagues with five clubs. He made his big league debut with the A's in 1973 and also played for Pittsburgh, Houston, Los Angeles, and San Francisco.

Garner earned his first career All-Star selection for Oakland in 1976 and he was named to the AL squad in his second full year in the big leagues. He led AL second basemen in total chances that season (865). On March 15, 1977, he was traded to Pittsburgh along with Tommy Helms and Chris Batton in exchange for Tony Armas, Mitchell Page, Doc Medich, Rick Langford, Doug Blair, and Dave Giusti.

In 1978, he tied a Major League record for most grand slams in two consecutive games as he hit bases-loaded homers on Sept. 14 and 15. The two grand slams also tied the NL marks for slams in a single month. The following season, he batted a career-best .293 with 32 doubles as he helped the Pirates to the 1979 World Championship. During the postseason, he set a World Series record for most double plays by a second baseman in a seven-game series (nine), and he also tied Series marks for highest batting average (.500) in a seven-game series by collecting at least one hit in each of the seven games.

Garner led NL second basemen in assists (499), total chances (869) and double plays (116) in the 1980 season, and he was named to the NL All-Star team in both 1980 and '81 for the Pirates before being dealt to Houston on Aug. 31, 1981. He was acquired by the Astros in exchange for Johnny Ray and two players to be named (Randy Niemann and Kevin Houston). He played a total of six seasons for the Astros, including 1986, when he was the primary third baseman on the Houston club which lost to the Mets in the NLCS. Garner split his final two seasons between the Astros, Dodgers and Giants, and he appeared in 15 games for San Francisco in 1988 to conclude his career.

Garner graduated from the University of Tennessee with a business degree in 1973. He played for the Volunteers from 1968-70 and was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection, the 1969 NCAA home run champion (12) and a 1970 honorable mention All-American. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame on Feb. 1, 2002. He was originally drafted by Montreal in the eighth round of the 1970 June draft but did not sign.

He and his wife, Carol, reside in Kingwood, Texas. His family includes: son Eric, his wife Michelle and their daughter Marilyn and son Joshua; son Ty and his wife, Tammy and their son Gage; and daughter Bethany. Garner was nicknamed "Scrap Iron" during his playing days in Pittsburgh.

BULLPEN COACH

Fomer Astros catcher Mark Bailey enters his sixth season as the club's bullpen coach. He assumed his current duties on May 15, 2002, when Tony Pena left the staff to become the manager of the Kansas City Royals. Bailey also begins his ninth season as a coach in the Astros organization.

Bailey was Double A Round Rock's hitting coach before joining the Astros. Under his guidance, the Express led the Texas League in team batting and home runs in both 2000 and 2001. Express players also finished in the top four in nine individual offensive categories.

Bailey previously spent three-plus seasons as a coach at the Class A level with the Astros. He was a coach at Kissimmee in 1998 when the Class A Cobras established club records in home runs (96), RBI (611), doubles (221), and slugging percentage (.394).

Bailey played for the Astros from 1984-88 and was part of the NL Western Division championship team in 1986. His best season came in 1985 for the Astros, playing in 114 games and batting .265 with 10 homers and 45 RBI. He finished his big league career with the San Francisco Giants in 1990 and 1992 before going into private business. He batted .220 with 24 homers and 101 RBI in 340 Major League games.

Drafted by Houston in the sixth round of the 1982 free agent draft out of Southwest Missouri State, Bailey was originally a first-/third baseman, but switched to catcher in the minors. At SMS, he was a three-year letterman in both baseball and basketball. He was a two-time Division II All-American and set career records with 146 RBI and 16 game-winning RBI.

HITTING COACH

Sean Berry enters his second season as the Astros hitting coach. Berry was appointed to the role on an interim basis on July 12, 2006 and was appointed to the role full-time following the season. He spent 2005 and the first half of the 2006 season as the club's minor league hitting coordinator. A veteran of 11 Major League seasons, Berry returned to the Astros organization in 2003 and spent two seasons on the Double A Round Rock coaching staff. During three seasons as the Astros third baseman from 1996-98, he hit .283 with 39 home runs and 190 RBI.

Berry's best season with the Astros happened in 1996, when he hit .281 with 17 home runs and 95 RBI. He also spent two seasons with Kansas City (1990-91), four with Montreal (1992-95), 1999 and part of 2000 with Milwaukee, and one game in 2000 with Boston.

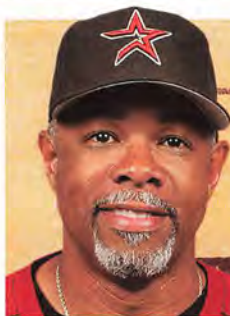

Originally selected by Kansas City in the first round of the 1986 draft, Sean hit .272 with 81 home runs and 369 runs batted in while playing in 860 career Major League games. Berry and his wife, Linda, live in Paso Robles, Calif., with son Tanner and daughter Madeline.

BENCH COACH

Cecil Cooper begins his third season as Houston's bench coach. He returned to the Major League coaching ranks in 2005 after spending the 2003-04 seasons as manager of the Triple A Indianapolis Indians in the Milwaukee Brewers organization. He collected 130 wins at the helm of the Indians, posting a 66-78 mark in 2004 for third in the International League's West Division, and a 64-78 record in 2003.

Cooper returned to the dugout for the first time since his playing career when he was named bench coach for Milwaukee on April 30, 2002. He previously worked in several capacities in the Brewers organization. For the 2000-01 seasons, he served the Brewers as special assistant to the general manager as well as roving minor league hitting instructor. During the 1997-99 seasons, he was Milwaukee's Director of Player Development.

Following the conclusion of his playing career, Cooper worked as a player agent for CSMG International (1988-96).

A 17-year Major League veteran, Cooper batted .298 with 241 home runs and 1,125 RBI. He was selected by Boston in the 27th round of the 1968 free agent draft and made his big league debut with the Red Sox in 1971. In 1974, he became Boston's starting first baseman and helped the Sox to the World Series in 1975.

After the 1976 season, Cooper was traded to Milwaukee. He concluded his career with 11 seasons as a Brewer, including a World Series appearance in 1982.

He earned two Gold Glove awards as a first baseman (1979, 80), and was a five-time American League All-Star (1979, 80, 82, 83, and 85). He led the AL in doubles in 1979 (44, tie) and 1981 (35); led the AL in RBI in 1980 (122) and 1983 (126, tie); and finished second in the AL in batting in 1980 (.352). He posted three seasons with 200-plus hits (1980, 82, 83), and two seasons with 30-plus home runs (1982, 83). He was named the Brewers team MVP three seasons (1980, 82, 83), and finished fifth in AL MVP voting three times (1980, 82, 83). He still holds the Milwaukee franchise records for both hits (219 in 1980) and RBI in a season (126 in 1983).

In 1983, Cooper was honored with Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award, in 2002 he was inducted into the Brewers Walk of Fame.

Cooper and his wife, Octavia, have three daughters: Kelly, Brittany and Tori, and make their offseason home in Katy, Texas. He is the youngest of 13 children, and he had two brothers who played for the Indianapolis Clowns. He graduated from Brenham (TX) High School in 1968 where he played on two state championship baseball teams. He attended Blinn Junior College and Prairie View A&M College.

FIRST BASE COACH

Although his uniform number 25 was retired on Oct. 3, 1992, that number remains on the field for an 11th year on the back of first base coach Jose "Cheo" Cruz. His big league career spanned 18 seasons and included stints with St. Louis (1971-74), Houston (1975-1987) and the New York Yankees (1988).

The former outfielder has been involved with all nine of Houston's postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, 01, 04-05). Cruz made the first three trips into postseason play with the Astros as a player, including hitting .400 (6x15) in the dramatic five-game series against Philadelphia in the 1980 NLCS. He represented the Astros in the All-Star Game in 1980 at Los Angeles and 1985 at Minnesota.

Cruz had played in more games than any other player in the history of the Houston franchise (1,870) before being passed by Craig Biggio in 2001. Cruz is now in third place in club history in games played, behind Biggio and Bagwell. In 2000, Cruz witnessed Biggio surpass many of his other long-standing franchise records, including at-bats, hits and total bases. Cruz's 80 triples remains the franchise record.

His uniform number was retired by the club along with former teammate Mike Scott's number 33 in 1992. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Cruz was selected by a panel of experts as one of three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

After his playing career he spent time managing in the Texas-Louisiana League and the Puerto Rican Winter League. Cruz was one of three Houston coaches who was forced to take a leave of absence from the team during the 1999 season. He returned to the field on June 14 after missing 34 games because of an irregular heartbeat.

He and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston. They have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Sharika, and Jose Enrique.

His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft and currently plays for the San Diego Padres. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award at Rice.

Jose Enrique, also a former Rice and Bellaire HS standout, helped the Owls to the 2003 College World Series title and spent last season in the New York Mets organization.

THIRD BASE COACH

Doug Mansolino enters his third season on the Astros coaching staff, and he begins his seventh season working with manager Phil Garner. He serves as Houston's third base coach, and previously held the same position with the Detroit Tigers and Milwaukee Brewers.

For the 2003-04 seasons, he worked with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization as the roving infield instructor and defensive coordinator.

Mansolino returned to the third base coaching box with Detroit in 2002 after serving as the bench coach for the Tigers in 2001. He was also third base coach for Detroit in 2000. On May 11, 2001, he led the Tigers to a 7-6, 11-inning win vs. Anaheim in Garner's absence (daughter's college graduation). With Detroit, he also served as infield coach and coordinated Spring Training.

Prior to his move to Detroit, Mansolino served on Garner's staff in Milwaukee. He was the Brewers third base coach and infield coach for 1999 and part of 1998. In the '98 season, he began as the club's first base coach but switched sides on Aug. 11.

Mansolino began his coaching career in the San Francisco organization as the third base coach for Triple A Phoenix in 1985. During his three seasons in the Giants system, he also served as roving infield instructor and interim manager for Class A Clinton in the Midwest League. In 1988, he began a nine-year stint in the Chicago White Sox organization where he started as the director of minor league instruction and field coordinator. He coached for four seasons in the White Sox system, including 1990-91 as the club's minor league defensive coordinator, and in both seasons he assumed the role of interim manager at Class A Sarasota and Triple A Vancouver, respectively.

He accepted his first big league coaching role in 1992, serving as the White Sox first base coach and infield coach through June 1995. The second half of the 1995 season and all of 1996, he moved to third base coach. He spent one season in the New York Mets organization in 1997 as manager at Class A in the South Atlantic League.

Mansolino graduated from Huntington Beach (CA) High School where he was an all-league baseball selection three seasons. He received a bachelor's degree from Cal State Long Beach and has completed course work towards his master's degree in education from Cal State Dominguez Hills.

He has traveled to Korea three times to teach defensive skills in Samsung and Pusan. He also managed Caribes de Orientes in the 1995 Venezuelan Winter League.

Mansolino and his wife, Cindy, make their offseason home in Collierville, Tenn. They have two sons, Nick (Feb. 24, 1980) and Tony (Sept. 28, 1982), and a daughter, Ariana (July 30, 1991). Tony played baseball at Vanderbilt University and was selected in the 26th round of the 2005 draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates. He played last season for Class A Hickory.

PITCHING COACH

Entering his 27th season in professional baseball, Dave Wallace begins his first season as the Houston Astros pitching coach after spending the last four years in the same role with the Boston Red Sox. He was appointed interim pitching coach on June 9, 2003, after Tony Cloninger took a medical leave of absence, and assumed the full-time role from 2004-06. A Major League and minor league coach and front office executive since 1981, Wallace had previously worked almost exclusively in the Dodgers organization, including a 17-season stretch from 1981-97. At the time of his appointment by the Red Sox, he was serving the Dodgers as Senior Vice President/Baseball Operations, overseeing the organization's minor league operations and consulting with General Manager Dan Evans on baseball operations. Wallace had previously served the Dodgers as a Special Assistant to the GM (December, 2000-April, 2001) and interim GM (April-October, 2001).

Before returning to the Dodgers, he spent three years with the Mets, first as a Senior Advisor to GM Steve Phillips then as a Senior Executive Advisor/Player Personnel. Wallace returned to the field in 2000 as pitching coach during the Mets' N.L. championship season. During his first 17-year run with Los Angeles, Wallace spent 3 years (1995-97) as a Major League pitching coach. Wallace also coached at Single-A Vero Beach in 1981-82, at Double-A San Antonio in 1983 and at Triple-A Albuquerque in 1984-86. He served as the Dodgers' minor league pitching instructor from 1987 until he was named Major League pitching coach in 1995. As a Major League and minor league pitching instructor in the organization, Wallace was credited with helping develop the talents of Pedro Martinez, Ramon Martinez, Pedro Astacio, Darren Dreifort, Hideo Nomo, Chan Ho Park, Ismael Valdes, and John Wetteland.

A Waterbury, CT native, Wallace signed with the Phillies as an amateur free agent out of the University of New Haven in 1970...the righthander made 13 Major League appearances for the Phillies (1973-74) and Blue Jays (1978)...he posted an 0-1 record and a 7.84 ERA in the majors and went 47-31 with 60 saves in 355 career minor league outings, concluding his playing career with Pawtucket in 1979.

Dave and his wife, Joyce, make their home in Norfolk, MA...earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from the University of New Haven in 1969...posted a 24-6 collegiate record, helping UNH to the NAIA Eastern Regional championship and a spot in the national tournament in 1966...played baseball, basketball and football at Sacred Heart High School in Waterbury, CT.

DAVE LABOSSIERE

Dave Labossiere, 55, has spent more than half his life (33 years) in professional baseball as he enters his 28th year in the Astros organization and his 24th on the Major League level. He began his athletic training career in the Boston Red Sox minor league system in 1973, spending seven years with affiliates in Winston-Salem (NC), Bristol (CT) and Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. In 1980, he joined Houston's Triple A Club in Tucson before joining the parent club in 1983.

Labossiere earned his undergraduate degree from Springfield (MA) College and his master's degree from the University of North Carolina. A frequent lecturer on sports medicine topics, he is a member of National Athletic Trainers Association, Southwest Athletic Trainers Association and the Greater Houston Athletic Trainers Society.

In 1997, Labossiere and Assistant Athletic Trainer Rex Jones were recognized as PBAT's Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year. He also has been selected as an All-Star trainer four times, including the National League All-Star team in Houston in 1986, Baltimore in 1993, and Seattle in 2001, and again in Houston in 2004. Labossiere also served as the trainer on the Major League Baseball All-Star tour of Japan in 1998.

Labossiere and his wife, Stephanie, have two sons, Jacob and Joshua.

2007 ASTROS

REX JONES

Rex Jones, 52, has spent his entire athletic training career in the Astros organization. He earned his call to the big leagues 14 seasons ago after spending 16 years in the club's minor league system. From 1988-93, he was the organization's Director of Minor League Athletic Trainers.

Jones started his career in 1978 with the Class A Daytona Beach club, while working toward a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southwest Missouri State. He was head trainer for the Double A Columbus Astros from 1979-82 before being promoted to the Triple A Tucson Toros in 1983.

Jones earned his master's degree from Central Missouri State. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is licensed as an athletic trainer in the state of Texas. Additionally, Jones is a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association, and the Greater Houston Athletic Trainers Society. In 2004, he served as a trainer for the National League All-Star team at the event held at Minute Maid Park.

He and his wife, Annie, have three children, Megan, Laura and Jeremiah.

DR. GENE COLEMAN

Dr. Gene Coleman begins his 29th season with the Astros as the team's strength and conditioning coach and is responsible for the club's in-season and off-season training programs. Last year, he was named the first recipient of The Nolan Ryan Award - the professional baseball strength and conditioning coach of the year award. He also received the Fred Hartman Award from the Houston chapter of the BBWAA for long and meritorious service.

Coleman received his undergraduate HPER degree from Lamar University, his master's degree from the University of Oklahoma and his doctorate from the University of Texas at Austin.

He and his wife, Barbara, have two children, son Jarrett Coleman and daughter Ashlyn Tankersley. They also have four grandchildren -- grandsons Brett (6) and Pearce (4), who are sons of Jarrett; and granddaughter Catelyn (4) and grandson Cole (6 months), who are Ashlyn's children.

NATHAN LUCERO

Nathan Lucero begins his 15th year with the Astros organization in 2007 and his first as a Major League strength and conditioning coach. He spent the last five seasons (2002-06) as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. Before assuming that role, he spent two seasons as an athletic trainer with Round Rock (2000-01) and earned Texas League Trainer of the Year honors in 2000. Before joining Round Rock, he worked for the GCL Astros (1993-94), Quad City (1995-97), Kissimmee (1998), and Jackson (1999).

Nathan is a 1993 graduate of New Mexico State University.

STRECH SUBA

Strech Suba begins his 31st year with the Astros organization as their Bullpen Assistant. Suba played for the Sarasota Astros in 1977 before assuming his present duties during the 1978 campaign. He is a graduate of Houston Smiley High and Oklahoma Christian College.

Suba and his wife, Mary Lou, live in Ramona, Calif., during the off-season.

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Made his Major League debut on July 25, 2006 vs. the Reds.
- ★ Made his first Major League start on Aug. 3, 2006 at SD.
- ★ Named the 2006 Texas League Pitcher of the Year with Corpus Christi after leading the Texas League in wins (10) and ERA (2.17)...ranked third in the league with 95 strikeouts until being called up to the big leagues in 2006.
- ★ Earned TL All-Star and postseason All-Star honors.
- ★ Ranked fourth in the Carolina League in strikeouts in 2005 (146).
- ★ Named a South Atlantic League All-Star in 2004 with Lexington.
- ★ Led the SAL in ERA in 2004 (3.31), and led the New York Penn-League in strikeouts in 2003 (94).

ASTRO-NOTES

- Albers was named the 2006 Texas League Pitcher of the Year with Corpus Christi after leading the Texas League in wins (10) and ERA (2.17)...ranked third in the league with 95 strikeouts until being called up to the big leagues in 2006.
- Albers was the first player Corpus Christi manager Dave Clark had ever informed about a promotion to the Majors..."I kind of played with him a little bit. I told him the toughest thing in a manager's life is to call a kid in and tell him he's being released. But the flip side of that is to call a kid in and tell him you're getting promoted. I told him, 'It's an honor for me to tell you you're going to the big leagues,'" Clark said.

CATCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ One of the top defensive catchers in the Majors since 1995, Brad won the third Rawlings Gold Glove of his career in 2006... also won consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Awards from 2001-02...has been the Astros primary catcher for each of the last six seasons since 2001 and signed a two-year extension before the 2006 season that has him under contract with the club through 2007.
- ★ Has caught more games than any other catcher in franchise history...tied Alan Ashby for the most games caught in franchise history with 901 on 9/17/05 vs. Milwaukee and set the club standard the following day (9/18 vs. MIL).
- ★ Is the club's all-time leader in both games (1,052) and starts (956) at the catcher position...leads the Majors in games played, assists, innings, and total chances at the catcher position since 1995...has caught at least 100 games for 11 consecutive seasons.
- ★ Named the recipient of the 2006 Darryl Kile Award by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA.
- ★ Went 3x4 and caught the combined no-hitter on June 11, 2003 at the New York Yankees, the first time he caught a no-hitter.
- ★ Named an American League All-Star in 1999 as a member of the Detroit Tigers.
- ★ Has 1,408 career hits and ranks 635th on the MLB career list (35th all-time among catchers).
- ★ Homered twice on April 4, 2003, at St. Louis for his first multi-homer game...hit a grand slam in the first inning (Tomko), the second of his career and first since July 14, 1997 at the Cubs (Bottenfield)...also tied his career high with five RBI (fourth time)...12th-inning homer (Springer) was the difference in the 6-5 win...also threw out three runners attempting to steal, including Fernando Vina at third for the final out of the game on the back end of a double play in the 12th.
- ★ Ranks second among active catchers in games played (1,696) and 17th all-time.

ASTRO-NOTES

- Ausmus was named the fifth recipient of the Darryl Kile Good Guy of the Year Award in 2006, joining Jeff Bagwell (2002), Roy Oswalt (2003), Morgan Ensberg (2004), and Brad Lidge (2005)...the award is named after the former Astros right-hander and 12-season Major League pitcher who passed away on June 22, 2002...it is designed to honor a player whose character traits reflect those of the late Kile, and who exhibits "character and decency to teammates, media, and fans."
- Homered with two outs in the bottom of the ninth in Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS against Kyle Farnsworth...the two-out home run to left field barely escaped Andruw Jones' glove and hit off the left-center field facade at Minute Maid Park, tying the score at 6-6...the game would turn out to be the longest in postseason history and won by the Astros in 18 innings by a score of 7-6.
- An avid surfer, Ausmus lives in San Diego in the offseason and enjoys watching CNN.
- Well-respected for his intellect and knowledge of the game, he is considered by many as one of the active players with the best prospect to be an eventual Major League manager...Manager Phil Garner has a great deal of trust in Ausmus and was quoted as saying that having him on the team, "is like having another coach on the field."

2006: Hit .230 (101x439) with two home runs and 39 RBI in 139 games for the Astros...led all NL catchers in games caught (138), starts (124), fielding pct. ## RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Right-hander is 17-12 in 42 career starts (all with Houston) with a 4.44 ERA (116ER/235.1IP)...is 18-13 since joining the Astros...is 12-4 with a 3.26 ERA (46ER/127IP) in 32 career games (18 starts) at Minute Maid Park...is 12-5 with a 3.70 ERA (62ER/151.0IP) in 47 home games overall (18 starts)...won his first seven career decisions as a starter in home games before the loss on June 25, 2005 vs. TEX...Houston won his first nine home starts, from 8/21/04-5/31/05 and the Astros were 14-4 in his first 18 career MMP starts.
- ★ Backe has never lost to the Brewers or Reds, and he does not have a losing record against any of the five NL Central opponents (CHI 2-1; CIN 3-0; MIL 2-0; PIT 3-1; STL 1-1).
- ★ The Astros are 24-17-1 (.571) in games started by Backe, dating back to his first career start on Aug. 21, 2004 vs. the Chicago Cubs.
- ★ In seven career postseason games (six starts), he is 1-0 with a 2.95 ERA (12ER/36.2IP)...has thrown 7.0 or more shutout innings as a starter in two playoff games...tossed 7.0 innings and allowed five hits and no runs in Game 4 of the 2005 World Series...threw 8.0 shutout innings and allowed one hit in Game 5 of the 2004 NLCS.
- ★ Recorded his first career stolen base on May 25, 2005 at the Cubs...one of 13 pitchers since 2000 and one of seven since 2003 to both homer and steal a base...ranks third among active pitchers in slugging at .393 (min. 50 PA).
- ★ Struck out five consecutive hitters between the fourth and fifth innings in World Series Game 4, one shy of the Fall Classic record for consecutive strikeouts...retired 11 consecutive hitters from the fourth through the seventh innings before a two-out single (Crede).
- ★ Became the 37th pitcher in MLB history to strike out three batters on nine pitches on April 15, 2004 vs. Milwaukee (eighth inning), tying an MLB record.

2006: 28-year-old right-hander finished 3-2 with a 3.77 ERA (18ER/43IP) in eight starts last season...underwent successful surgery to repair the ulnar collateral ligament on his right elbow on Sept. 7...had two stints on the Disabled List in 2006...placed on the 15-day DL on April 14 with a right elbow sprain (missed 88 games)...suffered the injury in a 2.0-inning start on April 13 at SF...also placed on the DL on Aug. 19 with a right elbow sprain (missed 40 games)...was 1-0 with a 2.25 ERA (2ER/8.0IP) in two starts before his injury...made six starts in between DL appearances and went 2-2 with a 4.11 ERA (16ER/35IP)...went 2-1 with a 2.42 ERA (7ER/26IP) in four August starts...earned the win on Aug. 2 at SD, allowing one run and seven hits in 7.2 innings...the win at SD marked the second-longest start of his career...also won his next start, on Aug. 8 vs. PIT, allowing three hits and one run in 7.0 innings...in his final August start before being placed back on the DL, he allowed four hits and two runs in 6.1 innings on Aug. 18 at MIL...received a no-decision in the club's 8-7 loss on July 28 vs. ARI...allowed five runs on 12 hits and left with a 4-4 tie...was activated from the DL on July 22 and made his first start since April 13...allowed four runs on four hits in 4.0 innings at NYM and received the loss...the loss snapped a three-game winning streak, from Sept. 17, 2005-April 7, 2006...the streak tied his career-long (also from May 25-June 8, 2005)...made four rehab starts for Triple A Round Rock...was 1-2 with a 5.31 ERA (12ER/20.1IP) with 13 strikeouts and 13 walks...allowed only one home run...batted .600 (3x5) with two doubles, two runs scored and three RBI...walked twice and did not strikeout...started on April 7 vs. WSH and notched the win after allowing just one run over 6.0 innings with three strikeouts.

2005: Recorded career highs in almost every statistical category, including wins, innings, starts, and strikeouts...finished 10-8 with a 4.76 ERA (79ER/149.1IP) in 26 games, including 25 starts...struck out 97 and walked 67...received a no-decision in his final regular-season start on Sept. 28 at STL, allowing seven hits and five runs in 4.1 innings...recorded a career-best 14 consecutive scoreless innings streak from the third inning on May 10 at FLA through the first inning on May 20 at TEX...

ASTRO-NOTES

- A native Texan, Berkman grew up in Austin and graduated from high school in San Marcos...he was drafted by the Astros from Rice University, where he was an All-American from the Houston school...a devoted resident and vocal proponent of his home state, Berkman claims he "doesn't even like to vacation" outside the state of Texas.
- His ideal offseason day consists of a Saturday morning hunt (bow-hunting deer), college football (either the University of Texas or Texas A&M) and a long nap.
- Growing up, he learned to switch-hit off a tire hanging from a tree in his backyard.
- Dubbed himself "Big Puma" after being referred to as "Fat Elvis" in the media.
- Played for Rice University from 1995-97...was named the 1997 National College Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association...was also named first team All-America by Collegiate Baseball Magazine, Baseball America and The Sporting News.
- Involved with Berkman's Bunch, an organization that allows him to provide game tickets, promotional items and personal visits to area underprivileged youth.
- Considering his devotion to his home state, it's appropriate that Berkman is the only player to appear in all 30 games of the six-year history of the Lone Star Series (2001-06) between the Astros and Texas Rangers.
- Among players born in the state of Texas, Berkman ranks second all-time in career slugging at .567, trailing only Rogers Hornsby (.577). Berkman's career slugging clip puts him ahead of fellow Texans and Hall of Famers such as Frank Robinson (.537), Eddie Mathews (.509), Tris Speaker (.500) and Ernie Banks (.500).
- Berkman signed a six-year contract extension in 2005 at Spring Training that will keep him in an Astros uniform at least through the 2010 season.

- ★ Completed his franchise-record 19th season with the Astros in 2006...set the club record for most seasons with the Houston franchise by playing in his 15th year in 2002, breaking the mark held by Terry Puhl and Bob Watson.
- ★ Made a franchise-record 18 consecutive Opening Day starts from 1989-2006, including one in left field (2004), one in center field (2003), three at catcher (1989-91) and 13 at second base (1992-2002, 2005-2006).
- ★ Is the only player in Major League history to record ALL of the following milestones: 600 doubles, 250 home runs, 2,700 hits, and 400 stolen bases...accomplished the feat on Sept. 10, 2005 by hitting his 600th career double at Miller Park vs. Milwaukee.
- ★ Holds the modern Major League record with 282 times hit by a pitch...set the record on June 29, 2005 at Colorado with No. 268 (Byung-Hyun Kim).
- ★ Has 2,930 career hits and is tied with Jake Beckley and Rogers Hornsby for 31st all-time...became the first Astro to record 2,700 hits on June 13, 2005 at Baltimore...was also the first Astro to reach the 2,000- and 2,500-hit marks.
- ★ Is 70 hits away from becoming the 27th player all-time and the first Astro with 3,000 hits.
- ★ Named to a franchise-record seven All-Star teams, making the squad from 1991-92 and 1994-98...voted the starter at second base in four consecutive seasons from 1995-98.
- ★ His All-Star selection in 1992 allowed him to become the first player to make the All-Star Team at both catcher (1991) and second base (1992)...in 1991, became the first Astros catcher ever named an All-Star.
- ★ Recipient of five NL Silver Slugger Awards: at catcher in 1989 and at second base in 1994, 1995, 1997, and 1998.
- ★ Earned Rawlings Gold Glove Awards in four consecutive seasons from 1994-97.
- ★ Finished fourth in the National League Most Valuable Player voting in 1997 (157 pts.) and fifth in 1998 (168 pts.)...also finished 16th in 1994 (16 pts.), 10th in 1995 (58 pts.), and 12th in 1999 (32 pts.).
- ★ In 1998, Craig joined Hall of Famer Tris Speaker as the only players in the 20th century to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season.
- ★ Hit 51 doubles in 1998 and 56 in 1999, becoming the sixth player in Major League history to have back-to-back 50-double seasons...his 56-double season in 1999 gave him the highest single-season total since George Kell in 1950 and the first NL player to hit 56 doubles since Joe Medwick for the Cardinals in 1937.

2000: Landed on the Disabled List for the first time in his 13-year, 1,800-game career after suffering from both a torn anterior cruciate ligament and medial collateral ligament in early August...became the franchise career leader with 6,630 at-bats on June 16 at San Francisco, surpassing Jose Cruz (6,629)...broke Cruz' total base record with a single on May 24 vs. Philadelphia...further entrenched his name into the Astros record book when he became Houston's all-time hits leader, surpassing Cruz (1,937) with a single on June 26 at Arizona for his 1,938th career base hit...began the season with a career-best 16-game hitting streak from April 5-26...313 (20x64)...had batted leadoff in 497 consecutive starts prior to batting second on May 8 vs. Colorado...previously batted second on Sept. 29, 1996...after a homerless drought that lasted nearly two months, he hit two homers in three games, June 8 at Los Angeles and June 10 at San Diego...the all-time franchise doubles leader collected his 400th career two-bagger on July 19 vs. Cincinnati...suffered both injuries to the ACL and MCL in his left knee while attempting to turn a double play at second base on Aug. 1 at Florida in a collision with the Marlin's Preston Wilson...underwent surgery on Aug. 10 in Houston (Dr. David Lintner) to reconstruct the ACL...the MCL was allowed to heal without the need for surgical repair.

1999: Became only the sixth player in Major League history to have back-to-back seasons with 50 or more doubles, breaking his own club record with 56...became the first player in the Majors to tally as many as 56 doubles since George Kell did so for the Tigers in 1950...the first National League player since Joe Medwick slapped 56 for the Cardinals in 1937...led all NL second basemen in putouts, assists, total chances and double plays turned...played in 160 or more games for the fourth consecutive year...scored his 1,000th career run on April 11 vs. Milwaukee...hit his 344th career double on May 4 at Florida, passing Cesar Cedeno (343, 1970-81) for the franchise record...hit a career-high three doubles (3x5) in a 10-4 win vs. the Braves on June 14...hit his 52nd double of the year on Aug. 29 vs. the Marlins, breaking his own franchise record (51) set in 1998...cracked a leadoff home run on Aug. 29 vs. Florida...it was his 21st career home run in Houston's first at-bat of the game and his fourth of the season...was 4x5 in that contest, tying his career high for hits in a game (23rd time)...scored 505 runs from 1995-98, the most of any Major Leaguer over that period...became one of only 16 players since 1900 to have scored 500 or more runs over any four-year period.

1998: Putting his blend of power and speed on display, he joined Hall of Famer Tris Speaker as the only players in the 20th century to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season...Speaker had 53 doubles and 52 steals for the Boston Red Sox in 1912, while Biggio finished 1998 with a club-record 51 doubles and a career-best 50 stolen bases...his 73 extra-base hits (51 doubles, two triples, 20 home runs) were the second-most by a leadoff hitter in the past 20 years...only Boston's Nomar Garciaparra had a higher total with 85 in his rookie season with the Boston Red Sox in 1997...had the first 200-hit season in club history with 210...finished the season ranked among the NL leaders in batting average (6th-.325), runs (4th-123), doubles (1st-51), hits (2nd-210), on-base percentage (10th-.403), stolen bases (2nd-50), multi-hit games (T7th-58), extra-base hits (9th-73), hit by pitch (T4th-23), at-bats (5th-646) and games played (T9th-160)...won The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position...it marked the fifth time in his career he claimed that honor and the fourth time at second base (also 1989 at catcher; 1994, '95, '97)...was named a first team All-Star by Baseball America...was voted the club's Most Valuable Player for the second consecutive year and the third time of his career (also 1995, 97)...finished fifth in the BBWAA's voting for the league MVP, behind Sammy Sosa, Mark McGwire, teammate Moises Alou and Greg Vaughn...became Houston's all-time leader in runs scored on April 18 vs. Montreal when he touched home for the 891st time to pass Cesar Cedeno (890 from 1970-81)...set the franchise single-season record for hits when he recorded his 196th on Sept. 12, breaking the previous record of 195 which was set by Enos Cabell in 1978...he led the team in hits for the second straight season and fifth time in his career (also 1990, 1993 and 1995)...on Sept. 14, his eighth-inning double against the Mets set a club single-season record with 49...he eclipsed the previous mark of 48, set by Jeff Bagwell in 1996...his 200th hit was a ninth inning single off Turk Wendell in the second game of a doubleheader against the Mets in the Astrodome on Sept. 15...had his club-record streak of consecutive games played broken at 494 on Aug. 5 when he did not play in Houston's 5-3 loss at Florida...the streak lasted from Aug. 1, 1995-Aug. 4, 1998...he reached base by hit, walk or hit by pitch in 150 of the 160 games he played...tied his career high with four-hit performances on June 25 at Colorado (4x6), at home on Sept. 9 against Milwaukee (4x5) and on Sept. 18 at Pittsburgh...those contests were the 17th, 18th and 19th four-hit games of his career...matched his career best for RBI in a game with six on Aug. 23 at Wrigley Field against the Cubs...hit two home runs in the game on May 22 against the Padres for the eighth multiple home run game of his career...his ninth multi-homer game came on Aug. 23 at Wrigley Field...named to the NL All-Star team for the seventh time in his career (the most ever by a Houston player) and for the fifth consecutive season...it made him the first Houston player ever to start the game four times.

1997: Led the Major Leagues and set a club single-season record by scoring 146 runs, the most in a single season in the NL since Chuck Klein scored 152 runs for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1932...his runs total was the highest in the Majors since Rickey Henderson scored 146 for the New York Yankees in 1985...the last time the AL had a total higher than 146 was when Boston's Ted Williams scored 150 times in 1949...became only the third player in Major League history to go through an entire season (minimum 150 games) without grounding into a double play (162 games/619 at-bats)...the feat had only been accomplished previously in the NL by Chicago's Augie Galan in 1935 (154 games) and in the AL by Detroit's Dick McAuliffe in 1968 (151 games)...was voted the club's Most Valuable Player by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA for the second time in his career (also 1995)...he finished fourth in the BBWAA's voting for the league MVP honor (157 points) behind only winner Larry Walker, Dodgers catcher Mike Piazza and teammate Jeff Bagwell...for the third straight year, fans selected him the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game (1,161,610 votes)...earned his fourth consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the best defensive player at his position...only Doug Rader (1970-74) and Cesar

Cedeno (1972-76) with five apiece have won more with the Astros...won The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position...winner of the prestigious Branch Rickey Award for Community Service...finished the season ranked among NL leaders in games (T1st, 162), batting average (10th, .309), at-bats (6th, 619), runs (1st, 146), hits (T4th, 191), triples (T6th, 8), total bases (9th, 310), walks (9th, 84), on-base percentage (6th, .415), stolen bases (4th, 47), multi-hit games (4th, 57) and hit by pitch (1st, 34)...his hit by pitch total was a club single-season record, breaking his own mark of 27 in 1996...established career single-season bests for at-bats, runs, hits, triples, RBI (81), and stolen bases...he matched his career season bests for games and home runs (22)...had a career-best 14-game hitting streak from May 18-June 2, over which he batted .356 (21x59)...tied a club single-game record by walking four times on July 14 at Chicago.

1996: Voted the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game for the second consecutive season and named Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner at second base for his third straight year...his Gold Glove honor came after committing only 10 errors in 811 total chances for a .988 fielding percentage...finished fourth among NL leaders in runs (T10th, 113), hit by pitch (1st, 27), sacrifice flies (T8th, 8) and hardest to fan (T9th, 10.0 PA per strikeout)...he also tied for the NL lead in games played with teammate Jeff Bagwell at 162...it marked the second time in his career he played in every game in a season (also 1992)...established a club single-season record with his 27 hit by pitch...he also became the first Houston player ever to score 100 or more runs in consecutive seasons (123 in 1995).

1995: Was the National League's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game, becoming the first Astro elected as a starter since Cesar Cedeno in 1973...earned his second consecutive The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position and second straight Rawlings Gold Glove award as the league's top defensive second baseman...finished 10th in balloting for the NL MVP award with 58 points...became Houston's first "20-20" player since Kevin Bass in 1986 when he slugged his 20th homer on September 15 at Montreal...shattered the franchise record for runs in a month when he scored 34 in July, breaking Jeff Bagwell's mark of 30 set in July of 1994...scored at least one run in 10 consecutive games from July 13-23, one shy

INFIELDER

- ★ Started at shortstop on Opening Day in 2002, 2004, 2005, and 2006.
- ★ Voted the top Major League shortstop in 2006 by a panel of judges from The Fielding Bible, a new book that conducted an in-depth statistical analysis of all Major League defenders over the last three seasons from 2003-05...before the 2006 season, Everett was named by The Fielding Bible as "quite simply the best shortstop in the Major Leagues."
- ★ His .990 fielding percentage in 2006 ranked fourth all-time for an NL shortstop in a single season...committed only seven errors in 2006 and recorded a career-long, 53-game errorless streak from June 30-Aug. 31, 2006.
- ★ Recorded career-highs in RBI (59), doubles (28), triples (6), and walks (34) in 2006.
- ★ His 136 hits in 2005 were the most for an Astros shortstop since Andujar Cedeno in 1993 (143).
- ★ Stole home twice in 2005, the first Astro since Cesar Cedeno (1977) to record as many as two steals of home in the same year.
- ★ Ranks eighth among all Major League shortstops since 2002 with an 77.1 percent success rate on stolen base attempts (minimum 55 attempts from 2002-06).
- ★ Became the third shortstop in club history with at least 10 homers and 20 steals in a single season in 2005 (Dickie Thon, 1983; Julio Lugo, 2000).
- ★ One of the best defensive shortstops in the Majors, Adam turned a remarkable, game-ending double play in the top of the ninth inning to clinch Game 4 of the 2005 NLCS.
- ★ Ranked second in the Majors in 2004 with 22 sacrifice bunts.

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

- Is the only player in Major League history to throw a complete-game shutout and hit a home run in his big league debut, Aug. 23, 2001...only nine National League pitchers have won more games than Jennings since his debut in 2001, tied for tenth with 58 wins.
- In 2006, Jennings became the Rockies all-time franchise leader in wins (58), innings (941.0), starts (156), and shutouts (3)...is also the all-time Coors Field leader in wins (31), innings (430.0), and starts (73)...ranks second all-time in strikeouts (622), 127 shy of matching Pedro Astacio (749).
- Joined Pedro Astacio as the only pitchers in Colorado history to post three consecutive 10-win seasons (Jennings, 2002-04).
- Jennings and Pittsburgh's Josh Fogg were the only pitchers from the rookie class of 2002 to win at least 10 games in each of their first three full seasons in the big leagues.
- Owned the second-longest active tenure with the Rockies behind Todd Helton, as Jennings had been with the club since August 2001 and posted a 58-56 record during that time...Jennings is 31-22 at Coors Field, the most wins by any pitcher in the park's history.
- The former Baylor All-American has worked at least 6.0 innings in 104 of his 156 starts, going 7.0-plus on 50 occasions.
- Was named National League Rookie of the Year in 2002, the only player in Rockies history to earn that honor...his 16 wins that season remain the most by an NL rookie since Tom Browning won 20 games in 1985.
- Led the Rockies in starts for each of his first two full seasons in the majors, the first pitcher to do that since Minnesota's Brad Radke in 1995-96.

ASTRO-NOTES

- Following his junior season at Baylor, Jennings was the consensus 1999 National Player of the Year (Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, USA Today/Baseball Weekly)...was the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award as the top amateur player in America.
- His father, Jim, played baseball for the University of Texas and professionally in the Texas Rangers system...his late grandfather, James Jennings, was the long-time public address announcer for the Dallas Cowboys and Mesquite Championship Rodeo.
- Graduated from Poteet High School (Mesquite, Texas) in 1996, lettering in both baseball and football...in football, he was an all-district punter and kicker...was the district MVP on the diamond.
- Jennings uses his left hand to do most ordinary activities such as eating and writing but throws right-handed.

- ★ It took Jennings 35 starts before he reached his 20th career victory on Sept. 2, 2002, one of just five pitchers since 1976 to reach 20 wins in 35 or fewer starts.
- ★ Jennings owns a .219 career batting average, fourth-highest of any active hurler with at least 300 at-bats...including seven pinch-hit appearances (3x7)...Jennings has compiled 14 doubles, two HR and 25 RBI at the big league level...his .306 average in 2002 was the highest by a rookie hurler since Clint Hartung hit .309 for the 1947 New York Giants.

2006: Jennings went 9-13 with a 3.78 ERA (89ER/212.0IP) in 32 games, all starts, for Colorado in 2006...his 3.78 ERA was the second-lowest ERA in Rockies franchise history behind Joe Kennedy, who posted a 3.66 mark in 2004... Jennings and Kennedy are the only pitchers in franchise history to post a sub-4.00 qualifying ERA, with Jennings being the only right-hander to accomplish the feat...in 2006, Jennings became the all-time franchise leader in wins (58), innings (941.0), starts (156), and shutouts (3)...is also the all-time Coors Field leader in wins (31), innings (430.0), and starts (73)...ranks second all-time in strikeouts (622), 127 shy of matching Pedro Astacio (749)...led staff in the NL...tossed two shutouts in 2006, both in May...was one of six pitchers in the league to throw multiple shutouts in 2006...joined Roger Bailey as the only Rockies with two shutouts in a single season and is the only Rockies with multiple shutouts in a single calendar month...tied for fifth in the NL with three complete games, the most by a Rockies since Pedro Astacio had four complete games in 2001...had a 3.12 ERA in day games ranking sixth in the league...posted a 3.56 ERA (40ER/101IP) in 15 starts at Coors Field in 2006, the second-lowest home ERA in franchise history (minimum 81.0 innings)...only pitcher with a lower mark in Denver was Denny Stark, 3.21 (30ER/84IP) in 2002...beginning May 29, Jennings compiled a 3.17 ERA (52ER/147.2IP) over his final 22 starts, the fourth-lowest ERA in the Majors during that span and second-lowest in the NL (minimum 133.0 innings)...the only players with lower figures during that stretch: Johan Santana (2.44), Roy Oswalt (2.78), and Baltimore's Erik Bedard (2.91)...tossed 15.0 consecutive scoreless innings from June 15-26, the longest scoreless stretch by a Rockies starter during the season...led the team in ERA and strikeouts, and ranked among team leaders in starts (T1st, 32), innings (2nd), and wins (T3rd)...Jennings had the second-lowest run support per nine innings among NL pitchers at 4.033 (95RS/212.0IP), Florida's Dontrelle Willis had the lowest at 4.0299 (100 RS/223.1IP)...received one or zero runs of support in nine of his 13 losses, as the Rockies were shut out four times in Jennings' starts...of the 28 Major League pitchers that posted a qualifying sub-4.00 ERA in 2006, three had 13 losses or more: Jennings, Tigers' Nate Robertson (13-13, 3.84), and Angels' Kelvim Escobar (11-14, 3.61)...out of the three, Jennings was the only pitcher in the National League...Jennings suffered six losses in quality starts, earning just one win in his last 11 quality efforts...the team was 14-18 in Jennings' 32 starts...pitched at least 6.0 innings in 25 of his 32 starts and tossed 7.0 or more frames on 16 occasions...had a trio of 9-inning complete games and also pitched 8.0 innings three times during the season...went 6-6 with a 3.67 ERA (50ER/122.2IP) before the All-Star Break and was 3-7 with a 3.93 ERA (39ER/89.1IP) in the second half...in 16 starts from May 29-Aug. 20, he went 5-5 with a 2.28 ERA (29ER/114.1IP), lowering his season ERA to 3.32...beginning Aug. 26, he went 2-3 with a 6.21 ERA (23ER/33.1IP) over his final six starts to finish the season with a 3.78 ERA...Opening Day starter against Arizona on April 3, and received a no-decision after allowing one run in 7.0 innings, matching the third-longest outing by a Colorado starter on Opening Day...Jennings became the fourth pitcher in team history to start multiple Opening Days, joining Kevin Ritz (1996-97), Darryl Kile (1998-99), and Mike Hampton (2001-02) and the first pitcher to start non-consecutive openers for the Rockies (also started in 2003)...sealed Rockies' three-game sweep with the win on April 9 at San Diego, allowing three runs in 6.0 innings for his first win of the year...the win marked the 50th of his career, becoming the second Rockies pitcher to accomplish that feat and the first homegrown Rockies to reach that mark...allowed two runs in 7.0 innings on May 1 at Atlanta but took the loss as opposing starter, Tim Hudson, tossed a one-hitter...Jennings had the lone hit in that game for Colorado, a third-inning line single to right-center...tossed his second career shutout, allowing seven hits, on May 6 against Houston at Coors Field...marked his first shutout since his Major League debut, a five-hitter on Aug. 23, 2001 at the New York Mets...he made 129 starts between his first two career shutouts...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest span between shutouts by a Major League pitcher since Roger Clemens went 132 starts between blankings on June 29, 1999 vs. Detroit and July 30, 2003 at Anaheim, all while with the New York Yankees...was his fourth career complete game and first since April 22, 2005 vs. Los Angeles...it was the 14th shutout by an individual pitcher in Coors Field history, the seventh by a Rockies starter...he retired 12 straight batters before a bunt single by Willy Taveras in the sixth inning...Jennings became the first pitcher to throw complete game shutouts in both his Major League debut and a start at Coors Field...out dueling Brad Penny for six innings on May 17 vs. Los Angeles but allowed three runs in the seventh, including a tie-breaking two-out, two-run single by Nomar Garciaparra, his last batter faced in a 3-2 Rockies loss...after losing at Dodger Stadium in his next start, another outing against Brad Penny, he tossed a career-best two-hit shutout on May 29 at San Diego...it matched the lowest-hit complete game in Rockies franchise history, just the second time it had been accomplished during a nine-inning game, though the feat would be duplicated by both Josh Fogg and Jeff Francis later in 2006...was his second shutout in a span of five starts...tossed 7.0 innings of one-hit ball on June 20 vs. Oakland, after which relievers Tom Martin and Brian Fuentes closed out the first one-hitter in Rockies history...Colorado had allowed two or more hits in each of the club's first 2,113 games...it was the first one-hitter in which the opposing team's leadoff batter had the lone hit since Los Angeles' Derek Lowe tossed a one-hitter on Aug. 31, 2005 at the Chicago Cubs...received a no decision in Colorado's 5-4 loss on June 26 at the Los Angeles Angels after leaving in the seventh inning with a 3-0 lead...the bullpen allowed both of Jennings' inherited runners to score in that game, snapping a stretch in which he had not allowed an earned run in 24.1 consecutive innings...lost each of his first three starts after Break...the last of those defeats came July 25 vs. St. Louis, a match-up with 2005 Cy Young winner Chris Carpenter...Albert Pujols hit a solo home run to the opposite field in the sixth inning for the game's only run as Jennings became the first Colorado pitcher to take the loss in a complete game at home, either at Mile High or Coors Field...that start would begin a stretch in which Jennings allowed one or two runs for six consecutive starts with one win...received a no decision after allowing one run in 8.0 innings on Aug. 15 vs. Arizona, a 2-1 Rockies loss in 18 innings, marking the longest game in team history...Jennings allowed five or more runs in four of his last six starts beginning Aug. 26 vs. San Diego...the only quality start in that season-ending span came Sept. 6 at San Diego, when he tossed 7.0 shutout innings...only runs scored in that game came on a Paul McNulty walk-off, two-run homer in the 11th inning, ending what was the longest scoreless game in Rockies history...won two of his final three starts, both against the Giants...at the plate, Jennings ranked fifth on the team with 10 sacrifice bunts...Rockies exercised his 2007 club option on Nov. 7, 2006.

2005: Signed to a two-year contract extension through 2006 with a club option for 2007 on Jan. 20, 2005...Jennings went 6-9 with a 5.02 ERA (68ER/122IP) in 20 games, all starts, for the Rockies before undergoing surgery on July 26 for a fractured right middle finger...the injury occurred in the sixth inning on July 20 at Washington while sliding into second base in an attempt to break up a double play...the injury led to the first stint of Jennings' career on the disabled list as he missed the final two months of the season...began throwing in late September...despite missing the final two months, he still ranked fourth on the Rockies staff in wins (6), innings (122), and starts (20)...ranked fifth on the team with 75 strikeouts and had the second-best winning percentage (.400) on the staff...pitched 6.0 or more innings in 15 of his 20 starts, going 7.0 or more frames on six occasions with eight quality starts...held opponents to .237 (54x/228) on the road and .308 (76x/247) at home...dropped six of his first seven decisions, going 1-6 with a 7.05 ERA (41ER/52.1IP) in his first nine starts through May 21...earned his first win of the season on April 22 vs. Los Angeles, tossing a complete game in the Rockies' 9-1 victory...it marked his third career complete game, second complete game win, and first career complete game at home...the win was his first overall victory since Aug. 17, 2004, snapping an 11-game drought without a win...was 0-3 with a 10.89 ERA (25ER/20.2IP) over first four starts in May...during his final 11 starts beginning May 26, Jennings went 5-3 with a 3.49 ERA (27ER/69.2IP) with six quality starts...earned wins in consecutive starts on May 26 at Chicago Cubs and May 31 vs. St. Louis, allowing just one run in 7.0 innings in each outing...the May 26 victory snapped a stretch of four consecutive losing decisions, and also broke a stretch in which Jennings won one game in a span of 17 starts...it was his first road win since July 25, 2004 at Arizona...the win on May 31 vs. St. Louis was the 25th of his career at Coors Field, surpassing Pedro Astacio for most by an individual pitcher in the park's history...earned his fourth win after tossing 7.0 shutout innings on June 17 at Baltimore, the first of two scoreless outings of the year...made consecutive starts against Houston on June 22 and 28, opposing Roger Clemens in each outing, and went 0-1 with a 7.82 ERA (11ER/12.2IP)...in his final four starts of the season in July, Jennings went 2-1 with a 2.16 ERA (6ER/25IP), including three quality starts...earned the win on July 9 vs. San Diego in the Rockies' 1-0 victory, the first 1-0 game in Coors Field history in the 847th regular season contest at the park...it snapped longest span without a 1-0 game in any park in Major League history...earned the win in his final start on July 20 at Washington, allowing just two runs in 5.0 innings, before leaving due to injury.

2004: Joined Pedro Astacio (1998-2000) as the only pitchers in franchise history to post three consecutive 10-win seasons, going 11-12 with a 5.51 ERA in a career-high 33 starts...Jennings did so in his first three seasons, becoming the only Rockies all-time to post three consecutive 10-win seasons during the first three years of his career and one of only two pitchers from the rookie class of 2002 to accomplish the feat (also Josh Fogg)...led the staff with a career-high 133 strikeouts, marking his third straight year to lead the club in strikeouts...pitched more than 200 innings for the first time in his career (201.0), a total that ranked second on the club behind Shawn Estes (202.0)...Jennings also ranked second on the staff in starts (33) and wins (11)...posted a team-leading 17 quality starts, the third-highest total in franchise history behind Darryl Kile's 19 in 1998 and Astacio's 18 in 1999...worked at least 6.0 innings in 22 of his 33 trips to the mound and gave up three or fewer runs in 20 of 33...posted a 1-4 record with a 10.57 ERA in his first five outings of the season before going 10-8 with a 4.60 ERA over his final 28 starts (87ER/170.1IP)...he had a 6.19 ERA in the first half, then posted a 4.76 after the All-Star Break, which included a 3.76 ERA in September...went 6-7 at home, his first losing campaign at Coors...in 16 road outings, Jason was 5-5 with a 4.86 ERA...Colorado was 13-20 when he took the mound...hit .239 with a homer and six RBI, the third-highest average among big league starting pitchers behind Jason Marquis (.292) and Livan Hernandez (.247)...Jason's 17 hits tied for third among all Major League pitchers, trailing only Marquis (21) and Hernandez (20)...he was also 2x4 as a pinch-hitter...earned his first win April 18 at St. Louis, an 8-5 decision over Woody Williams...snapped a three-game losing streak on May 8 at Wrigley Field, as he belted a game-tying, two-run homer off Greg Maddux on his way toward a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs...beat the Padres in back-to-back starts, May 26 at Coors (3ER/6.0IP) and May 31 at PETCO Park (1ER/8.0IP), both against Adam Eaton...his three-game winning streak was halted with a 10-4 loss on June 10 at Yankee Stadium (struck out eight)...earned a 7-6 victory over Curt Schilling and the Boston Red Sox on June 16, as he allowed just three runs over 6.0 innings and went 2x3 at the plate with an RBI single...it was Jennings' 20th career victory at Coors Field...collected his 40th career victory on July 8 at PETCO Park, joining Astacio (53) as the only pitchers to win 40 games in a Rockies uniform...allowed a club-record 15 hits in a 9-7 loss to the Padres on July 20...beat Randy Johnson and the Diamondbacks in consecutive starts July 25-30, during which he allowed two runs in 15.2 innings...earned an impressive 3-2 win July 25 at Arizona...Jennings and Johnson took a shutout into the eighth inning...Jennings gave up one run in the eighth, but Colorado rallied for three runs off the D'Backs bullpen in the ninth to sweep their first road series since June 2001...beat Johnson 4-1 at Coors on July 30 to collect his 10th victory of the season, joining Astacio as the only Rockies pitchers to post three consecutive 10-win seasons...worked 7.0 innings (4 ER) in a loss to Mark Prior on Aug. 5, giving him three consecutive 7.0-plus inning starts for the first time in his career...earned his 11th and final win on Aug. 17 vs. New York Mets, yielding three runs over 7.0 innings and also going 2x3 at the plate for his fifth career multi-hit game...made his 100th career start on Sept. 9 vs. San Diego and allowed three runs over 6.0 innings...made his career-high 33rd and final start on Sept. 30 at Dodger Stadium...gave up one run over 8.0 innings and received a no decision.

2003: Jennings went 12-13 with a 5.11 ERA (103ER/181.1IP) in 32 games, all starts, for the Rockies in 2003...Colorado's Opening Day starter, Jennings led the staff in innings pitched (181.1) and tied Darren Oliver for the staff lead with 32 starts...Jennings also led the team with 32 starts as a rookie in 2002 and became the first ML pitcher since Brad Radke in 1995-96 to lead his club in starts for each of his first two seasons...Jennings' 12 wins in 2003 trailed only Oliver's 13, giving him 28 victories over two seasons (2002-03)...only Pedro Astacio (30, 1998-99) won more games in consecutive years as a Rockies...led the staff in strikeouts (119), walks (88), hits (212), runs

(115), and earned runs (103) allowed...he and Oliver shared the team lead with 15 quality starts...snapped three different losing streaks of five or more games for the Rockies, including Colorado's season-high, eight-game losing streak and a franchise record-tying 10-game road losing streak with a victory on Sept. 9 at St. Louis...was 8-1 with a 4.64 ERA in 12 starts at Coors Field...no other pitcher in baseball had a higher home winning percentage (minimum 10 starts)...20 of his starts came on the road, where he posted a 4-12 record with a 5.38 ERA...the Rockies were an even 16-16 when he took the mound...at the plate, Jennings hit .308 through the end of June then went 4x28 to close out the year at .222...made his first career Opening Day start on April 1 at Houston, becoming the first Rookie of the Year winner in either league to start the following season's opener since Dwight Gooden in 1985...at 24 years, 257 days, Jason was the second-youngest Opening Day starter in club history, 5 months older than David Nied in 1993 (24 years, 103 days)...allowed five first-inning runs at Philadelphia in April but then blanked the Phillies on just two hits over his final 5.0 innings...Jennings went 8-3 with a 3.46 ERA over his next 13 starts heading into the All-Star Break (37ER/96.1IP)...picked up his second career complete game in a 3-2 loss to Kazuhisa Ishii on May 21 at Dodger Stadium...it was the first time he pitched a complete game since his ML debut...faced four straight American League opponents to open June and responded by going 4-0 with a 3.25 ERA (10ER/27.2IP)...the four victories tied Derek Lowe and Chris Reitsma for the most Interleague wins in the Majors...improved to 5-0 at Coors Field by tossing 6.2 scoreless innings on July 2 vs. Arizona and ended the first half a perfect 6-0 at home by defeating Los Angeles 5-3 in his last start before the Break on July 12...took the mound on his 25th birthday, July 17, at Pac Bell but suffered an 8-4 loss...had a career-long, four-game losing streak, Aug. 2-22, including three consecutive losing starts, Aug. 11-22...posted a career-high 10 strikeouts in a 6-1 victory over the Giants on Aug. 28...became the first Rockies pitcher to reach double-digits in strikeouts since John Thomson fanned 12 on Oct. 7, 2001 at San Diego...was the only Rockies pitcher with a victory over a 16-game span from Aug. 22 to Sept. 10, as the rest of the pitching staff went 0-14...lost a 5-0 decision to Randy Johnson on Sept. 14 at Bank One in what turned out to be his 2003 finale...scheduled to take the mound at least two more times, but Jennings came down with a flu-like virus and was hospitalized the night before his Sept. 20th start vs. San Diego...the illness kept him away from the club for a week, and he was shutdown as a precaution.

2002: Jennings was named 2002 National League Rookie of the Year by the BBWAA after going 16-8 with a 4.52 ERA (93ER/185.1IP)...became the first player in Rockies history to earn Rookie of the Year honors...became the 18th pitcher to win the award since its inception in 1947 and only the sixth pitcher in the last 21 years...was the only player to appear on all 32 ballots, receiving 27 first place votes and five second place for a total of 150 points...in voting by his peers, was named The Sporting News' NL Rookie Pitcher of the Year...also honored as the top NL rookie by Sports Illustrated, Baseball Digest and the Players Choice Awards...Jennings' 16 wins led all Major League rookies in 2002 and remain the most by an NL rookie since Tom Browning won 20 games in 1985...since 1980, only Browning and Gooden (17 in 1984) won more games among first-year hurlers in the NL...fell just one win shy of tying the Rockies single-season record of 17...Jennings combined with Denny Stark (11) to produce 27 victories, the most by two rookie teammates in the NL since Browning (20) and Ron Robinson (7) won 27 for the 1985 Reds...led the staff in victories (16), starts (32), innings (185.1), and strikeouts (127)...finished second among all ML rookies in starts, tied for third in winning percentage (.667) and was fourth in strikeouts...had nine home wins, still second-most in franchise history behind only Gabe White's 10 in 2000...Colorado was 12-5 in his 17 home starts...the Rockies were 19-13 overall with Jennings on the hill, averaging 6.51 runs per game (second best run support in the NL)...at the plate, the former Baylor All-American produced one of the best hitting seasons by a rookie pitcher in more than half a century...hit .306, second among all pitchers to teammate Mike Hampton (.344)...his .306 average was the best by a rookie hurler since Clint Hartung hit .309 for the 1947 New York Giants...Hartung also played 34 games in the outfield...therefore, Jennings became the first exclusive pitcher to hit .306 or better in his first year since Eddie Lopat for the 1944 White Sox (.309)...was the first rookie pitcher to break .300 since Jim Perry did so for Cleveland in 1959...drove in 11 runs, tied with Kevin Millwood for most RBI among pitchers...compiled a seven-game winning streak from April 28-June 11, tied for the longest by a starter in club history...Bill Swift also won seven consecutive decisions in 1995...it was the longest streak by a rookie in 2002 and tied for fifth-longest in the NL...the streak covered nine starts in which he went 7-0 with a 3.93 ERA, 15 BB and 45 strikeouts...pitched a perfect game through 5.1 innings and a no-hitter through 6.1 innings in a 6-2 victory on May 31 at Pac Bell...picked up a victory in his final start of the first half, July 3 vs. San Francisco, becoming just fourth pitcher in club history to have nine wins at the All-Star Break...won five consecutive starts, Aug. 1-23, only the fourth pitcher in team history to do so...in the five wins, Jennings allowed eight runs in 33.2 innings (2.14 ERA)...in six August starts, he went 5-1 with a 3.55 ERA en route to being named NL Rookie of the Month...opened the month with a 3-0 win on Aug. 1 at PNC Park, during which he set a club record with 6.2 hitless innings to start a game...with two outs in the seventh, a no-hit bid was erased by a Rob Mackowiak broken-bat, bloop single down the left field line...

Jennings tied a franchise record with his fifth consecutive winning start on Aug. 23 vs. the Mets, exactly one year to the day of his ML debut in 2001...was the first Rookie to win five straight starts since Brian Bohanon in 1999...earned his 20th career victory in his 35th start, Sept. 2 at San Diego...became the fifth Major League pitcher since 1976 to record 20 career wins in 35 or less starts...Cal Eldred won 20 in his first 30 career starts (1993), Scott Erickson (1991) and Mark Fidrych (1977) each won 20 in 34 starts and Steve Rogers (1974) won his 20th game in start No. 35...walked a team-record 10 batters on Sept. 8 vs. the Padres, most by anyone since Scott Ruffcorn issued 10 for the Phillies on June 24, 1997 vs. Florida.

2001: After starting the year at Double A Carolina, Jennings was bumped up to Triple A Colorado Springs in late April...had his Triple A contract purchased by the Rockies on Aug. 23, the day he would take the mound and make history at Shea Stadium...in his Aug. 23 Major League debut, he threw a complete-game, five-hit shutout with four walks and eight strikeouts in a 10-0 Rockies win...along with his shutout, he also went 3x5 at the plate with a home run and two RBI...in doing so, he became the first player in Major League history to throw a complete-game shutout and hit a home run in his big league debut...Jennings was the first big league pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout in his debut since the Rockies' Mark Brownson blanked the Astros on July 21, 1998 in Houston...Jennings became the 75th player in ML history to debut with a shutout and the third since 1992...joined Marcus Moore (July 9, 1993), Mark Thompson (July 26, 1994), Bryan Rekar (July 19, 1995) and Brownson as the only Rockies to win their Major League debut...it marked the 12th individual shutout in Rockies franchise history and one of nine complete games by an NL rookie in 2001...the bat he used (Juan Uribe model) was sent to the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY... Jennings followed up his grand debut with two more wins in as many starts...his scoreless-innings streak to begin his career reached 13.0 innings as he allowed his first run to score in the fifth inning of his second start on Aug. 29 at Los Angeles...improved to 3-0 by beating the Giants at Pac Bell on Labor Day, Sept. 3...he joined Bryan Rekar (July 19-29, 1995) as the only pitchers in team history to win their first three big league starts...became the sixth ML pitcher since 1993 to win his first three starts, most recently done by Philadelphia's Randy Wolf in 1999...suffered his first career loss in his home debut, Sept. 8 vs. San Francisco...went 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA (3ER/22.0IP) in his first three games but struggled in his next three starts, allowing 18 earned runs in 11.1 innings (14.29 ERA)...finished the year with a 4-0 combined shutout on Oct. 5 at San Diego...threw four complete games for the Sky Sox, second-most in the PCL.

MINOR LEAGUES:

OUTFIELDER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Has hit 41 HR in the last two seasons from 2005-06...hit 26 home runs in 2005, two shy of the club record for a right fielder, set by Richard Hidalgo in 2003 (28).
- ★ Led the club and ranked tied for sixth in the NL with eight home runs in June of 2005...his eight homers during the month tied for the third-most in club history by an outfielder (Moises Alou, 12, 2001; Cesar Cedeño, 9, 1972).
- ★ All of his 2005 playoff home runs came in the fourth inning...he homered in the fourth inning (Suppan) of 2005 NLCS Game 4 to tie the score at 1-1...Houston won the game 2-1...also homered in the fourth inning of the clinching NLCS Game 6 (Mulder)...in Game 3 of the World Series, he hit a solo home run against Chicago pitcher Jon Garland.
- ★ Became the ninth player to homer in his first career postseason at-bat with a solo shot in the ninth inning of 2004 NLDS Game 1 at Atlanta (Reitsma).
- ★ Has hit 14 of his 53 career home runs in September.

2006: Hit .201 (58x288) with 15 home runs and 45 RBI in 112 games for the Astros in 2006...drew a career-high 49 walks...was 5x19 (.263) with two HR and seven RBI as a pinch-hitter, including a 5x8 stretch with two HR and a walk in his last nine pinch-hit appearances...hit six home runs in April with 11 RBI and 22 walks...hit .314 (11x35) with three HR and seven RBI when he hit the first pitch of an at-bat fair...hit three HR with 11 RBI in August...drove in 12 runs in a 12-game stretch from Aug. 20-Sept. 3...hit a game-tying HR in the sixth on Sept. 25 at PHI, his 15th of the season...1x1 as a PH with his first career grand slam on Aug. 29 vs. MIL...it marked the first pinch-hit grand

ASTRO-NOTES

- Lane pitched 2.2 innings in the 1998 College World Series championship game to pick up the win and help USC to its 12th NCAA baseball championship, topping Arizona State 21-14...also served as the DH in the game, going 3x6 with a ninth-inning grand slam...set a CWS record with 15 hits overall, and led the tournament with a .517 average...Astros teammate Morgan Ensberg was his teammate on the national championship squad.
- Known as a pitcher throughout college, he broke his left thumb diving into the stands for a foul ball and was limited to serving as the DH his senior year. His offensive production as the DH had scouts focusing on his hitting rather than his pitching ability, and the Astros drafted him in the sixth round of the June 1999 draft.

- ★ Is the MLB all-time leader in strikeouts-per-nine-innings ratio with 12.75 (minimum 300 appearances).
- ★ Holds the National League record for most strikeouts by a reliever in a single season with 157, set in 2004... the strikeout total, which ranked fourth all-time for any reliever in one season, shattered the previous record for a Houston reliever, set by Octavio Dotel, who struck out 128 in 2001.
- ★ Led all MLB relievers in strikeouts in consecutive seasons from 2004-05.
- ★ Ranked second on the club's single-season saves list with 42, recorded in 2005.
- ★ Holds the franchise record for second-half saves with 22 (2004 and 2005)...converted a franchise-record 24 successful save opportunities from June 21-Sept. 28, 2005.
- ★ His 20 saves in the first half of 2005 were the third-best total in club history (Billy Wagner 25 in 2003, 23 in 1999).
- ★ Holds the franchise record for saves in September with nine, set in both 2004 and 2005.
- ★ Struck out the side in the bottom of the seventh at the 2005 All-Star Game, the first pitcher to strike out the side in his first All-Star appearance since Bill Caudill and Dwight Gooden in 1984...marked his first All-Star selection.
- ★ Recorded three saves in the 2005 NLCS, becoming the first pitcher to record three saves in a single LCS since Dennis Eckersley in the 1988 ALCS for Oakland...pitched 4.0 scoreless innings in the 2005 NLDS...pitched 2.0 scoreless innings in 2005 NLCS Game 2 and NLDS Game 4.
- ★ Named the recipient of the 2005 Darryl Kile Award by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA.
- ★ Recorded three saves during the 2004 postseason, tying for the most in the Majors (Foulke, Isringhausen) and setting a Houston postseason record...tossed 8.0 scoreless innings in the 2004 NLCS vs. St. Louis - the most by a reliever all-time without allowing a run in a single LCS...tossed 3.0 scoreless innings - his longest outing of the season - with five strikeouts in Game 6 of the NLCS...fanned five batters in both Game 3 and 6 of the 2004 NLCS - five strikeouts are the most by a Houston reliever in a postseason game.
- ★ Assumed the Houston closing role on June 24, 2004, following the trade of Octavio Dotel.
- ★ Successfully converted 69 of 75 save chances from 2004-05 (.920 save pct., the fourth-highest in the Majors during that time span).

ASTRO-NOTES

- In 2006, Lidge joined fellow teammates Trevor Miller, Chad Qualls and Dan Wheeler, as well as former teammate Russ Springer, in contributing to Strikeouts for Troops, a national program started by Barry Zito that provides the "comforts of home" to military troops and their families while rehabilitating in the hospital.
- Lidge is a proud alumnus of the University of Notre Dame and met Fighting Irish head football coach Charlie Wells in Chicago before Game 1 of the 2005 World Series.
- Lidge was a marketing and economics major at Notre Dame, although world history was his favorite subject...he has an impressive collection of memorabilia, baseball and otherwise, from the decades of the 1890s and 1900s...if he wasn't a Major League baseball player, he likely would have become a history professor...is the unofficial "baseball historian" of the Astros clubhouse for his uncanny ability to remember baseball statistics and past events.
- His collection of vintage baseball memorabilia includes a 1912 Walter Johnson baseball card.
- Is an avid fantasy football player and entered teams in five leagues during the 2005 NFL season...also enjoys playing ping pong and the Golden Tee golf video game.
- Learned to throw a slider after scrapping the overhand curve ball that gave him elbow and shoulder problems...Astros director of pitching development Dewey Robinson worked on the slider with him, a pitch that Lidge learned in about 45 minutes.
- Had four surgeries in the minor leagues -- one on his elbow, one on his shoulder, one on his knee, one on his fractured forearm...while on rehab following one of the surgeries, current GM and then-Assistant GM Tim Purpura gave him a copy of Robb Nen's bio from the Giants media guide...Nen had overcome similar significant injuries to develop into a dominant Major League closer.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- ★ Has hit .273 (105x384) in 441 career plate appearances as a pinch-hitter...ranks eighth all-time with 105 career pinch-hits...is second among active players in pinch-hits (105) and pinch-hit doubles (24), trailing only his former minor league teammate, Mark Sweeney, in both categories (Sweeney has 139 career pinch-hits and 28 pinch-hit doubles)...Sweeney and Palmeiro were teammates at Triple A Vancouver from 1994-95 and at Double A Midland in 1993.
- ★ His 20 pinch-hits in 2006 tied the franchise record, previously accomplished by Ken Boswell in 1976.
- ★ Played his third season as an outfielder with the Astros and 12th season as a Major League outfielder in 2006...played for the Angels from 1995-02 and St. Louis in 2003.
- ★ Played in his 1,000th career big league game on Sept. 30, 2005 vs. the Cubs.
- ★ Set the Houston franchise record with seven pinch-hit doubles in 2005.
- ★ Hit a career-high three home runs in three consecutive seasons (2003, 2004, 2005).
- ★ Ranks third among active players for the lowest career pct. of swings that miss (7.9 percent, trailing Juan Pierre at 6.5 percent and David Eckstein at 7.1 percent).
- ★ Appeared in his second World Series as a member of the 2005 Houston club.
- ★ Earned a World Series ring as a member of the 2002 Anaheim Angels, who defeated San Francisco in seven games that year to win the Fall Classic.
- ★ Has hit .273 (3x11) in 13 career League Championship Series games.

ASTRO-NOTES

- Ranks third among active players for the lowest career pct. of swings that miss (7.9 percent, trailing Juan Pierre at 6.5 percent and David Eckstein at 7.1 percent).
- Played in the World Series for Anaheim in 2002 and Houston in 2005.
- Would like to teach young children how to play baseball after he retires.

ASTRO-NOTES

- After playing his final college year at Texas Tech, Sampson was originally drafted by the Astros in the eighth round of the June 1999 draft as a shortstop...a transfer from Lon Morris Junior College, Sampson was named the Big 12's "Fastest Player" by Baseball America before even stepping foot on Dan Law Field.
- Sampson played the 1999 season as a shortstop at Class A Auburn before deciding to retire...a few years later in 2002, while serving as assistant coach at Collin College in Plano, Texas, Sampson was used as an emergency pitcher and struck out five of the six batters he faced...he attended a try-out at Minute Maid Park in 2003 and was invited to minor league Spring Training as a pitcher.
- Credits Astros scout Scipio Spinks for helping him develop his sinker, saying "he worked with me in the offseason and taught me the grip and really worked on it with me."
- Chris and his wife, Heather, were married at home plate of Minute Maid Park...he credits the idea of the wedding location to Heather.

no-hitter through 4.1 innings...started the final game of the season, on Oct. 1 at ATL, and suffered the loss after allowing three runs (one earned) on two hits in 4.0 innings...was his first career loss and his third big league start...pitched 11.2 consecutive scoreless innings from Sept. 12-27, a span of five appearances in which he did not walk a hitter...posted an 0.66 ERA (1ER/13.2IP) during the month of September...started on Sept. 25 at PHI, tossing 3.2 shutout innings in Houston's 5-4 win...pitched 2.2 scoreless innings in relief on Sept. 27 at PIT, picking up his second big league win...was one of five Astros to make his first Major League start (Albers, Buchholz, Nieve, and Hirsh) and was one of 10 starters used by the Astros...made four different stints on the Houston roster in 2006...recalled on Sept. 8 from Triple A Round Rock...also with the Astros from June 2-22; July 29-Aug. 1 (did not make an appearance); and from Aug. 22-28...contract was purchased from Triple A Round Rock on June 2...LHP Mike Gallo was optioned to the Express to make room on the roster...made his Major League debut the same day vs. the Reds...entered in the second inning and allowed three runs in 5.1 innings, while striking out four...his 5.1 innings of relief were the most by an Astros reliever since Doug Brocail worked 5.1 innings out of the bullpen on April 19, 1996 vs. CIN...optioned back to the Express on June 22 when Roger Clemens returned to the club...finished 12-3 with a 2.51 ERA (35ER/125.2IP) with four saves in 27 appearances (18 starts) at Triple A Round Rock...struck out 68 and walked 14...finished second in the Pacific Coast League with a 2.51 ERA...began the season in the rotation and moved to the bullpen and served as the closer for the final month of the season...recorded the win in relief in Game 2 of the PCL Division Series vs. Nashville...Round Rock won 11 games in a row from April 29-May 9, vaulting the club to a 20-10 record to start the season...Sampson made three starts and recorded three victories during the 11-game winning streak, including the first and last win of the streak...during the Express' streak, he went 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA (6ER/20IP)...hit .391 (18x46) with seven RBI at Round Rock...used as a pinch-hitter in 15 games for the Express...participated in the 2nd Annual Nolan Ryan Elite Camp at Minute Maid Park before Spring Training in early February.

MINOR LEAGUES:

2005: Spent the season at Double A Corpus Christi where he finished 4-12 with a 3.12 ERA (52ER/150IP) in 32 games (19 starts) for the Hooks...his 3.12 ERA ranked fourth in the Texas League...2004: Played 27 games (all starts) for Class A Salem, finishing 7-11 with a 3.80 ERA (64ER/151.2IP)...pitched one game at Double A Round Rock, striking out one in 2.0 innings...named the Carolina League Pitcher of the Week (Aug. 30-Sept. 5)...also named Class A Salem's pitcher of the month for August...led Salem and ranked third in the CL in innings (151.2)...tied for team and league lead with two shutouts...2003: Split time between Class A Lexington and Class A Salem in his first season playing professional baseball since 1999...posted a 1.39 ERA (13ER/81IP) in 22 games (14 starts) for Lexington...1999: Began his professional career as a shortstop, hitting .239 with one homer, 19 RBI and 21 stolen bases in 51 games at Class A Auburn.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Sampson and his wife, Heather, make their offseason home in Spring, Texas...a native of Channelview, Texas, Sampson played only the 1999 season at Texas Tech after transferring from Lon Morris Junior College...he was named the Big 12's "Fastest Player" by Baseball America before even stepping foot on Dan Law Field...he contributed at shortstop, rightfield and as a closer...the six-foot, one-inch junior hit .281 (9x32) with five RBI and registered a 2-2 record with a 12.60 ERA and nine strikeouts in 10.0 innings pitched...credits Astros scout Scipio Spinks for helping him develop his sinker, saying "he worked with me in the offseason and taught me the grip and really worked on it with me."

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- ★ Recently completed his third season with the Astros after being acquired by Houston from the New York Mets on Aug. 27, 2004 in exchange for Adam Seuss.
- ★ Posted a 3-5 record with nine saves and a 2.52 ERA (20ER/71.1IP) in a career-high 75 appearances in 2006.
- ★ Posted a 1.11 ERA (4ER/32.1IP) in the second half of 2006, the fifth-lowest for any NL reliever since the All-Star Break (min. 15 app.) and the fourth-lowest in Houston franchise history in the 2nd half (min. 30 appearances).
- ★ Has pitched 22.2 scoreless innings in 20 career games pitched vs. the Cubs.
- ★ Posted a 1.64 ERA (7ER/38.1IP) in the first half of the 2005 season, the third-lowest in the National League... the ERA was the third-lowest among all NL relievers before the All-Star Break and the seventh-lowest for a Houston reliever in the first half in club history.
- ★ Pitched 8.0 scoreless innings in the 2004 postseason... allowed four hits and struck out nine while walking none in five appearances...his 7.0 scoreless innings in the 2004 NLCS were the third-most innings pitched by a reliever in a single LCS without allowing a run... he allowed only one hit while striking out three and walking none, holding opponents to a .160 batting average.
- ★ Was on the mound and recorded the final out (Yadier Molina fly out to Jason Lane) in Houston's Game 6 NLCS-clinching victory over St. Louis on Oct. 19, 2005.
- ★ Has never allowed a run in an LCS game, pitching 9.2 scoreless innings over seven outings...his innings total are the sixth-most for a pitcher in an LCS career without allowing a run...allowed only one run in his first 15.0 career postseason innings...before allowing three runs in 2005 World Series Game 1, his 0.60 ERA was the lowest career playoff mark for an active reliever.
- ★ Pitched 3.0 scoreless innings (13th-15th innings) of Houston's 7-6, 18-inning win over Atlanta in 2005 NLDS Game 4.
- ★ Posted a 4.00 ERA (4ER/9IP) in eight 2005 playoff games.
- ★ Has recorded a career postseason ERA of 2.12 (4ER/17IP)...has allowed 12 hits and walked four while striking out 17 in 13 career playoff outings...has held opponents to a .188 opponent batting average during his postseason career.
- ★ Finished sixth in the NL with a 9.20 baserunners-per-nine-innings ratio in 2005, finishing 2-3 with a 2.21 ERA (18ER/73.1IP), including three saves, in a career-high 71 appearances.
- ★ Earned his first Major League victory on Oct. 1, 2000 in the final day of the season, a 3-2 win over Boston...worked 0.2 innings...his first eight Major League outings were starts.

ASTRO-NOTES

- Wheeler joined fellow teammates Brad Lidge, Chad Qualls and Trever Miller, as well as former teammate Russ Springer, in contributing to the Strikeout for Troops program, a national program started by Barry Zito that provides the "comforts of home" to military troops and their families while rehabilitating in the hospital.
- Wheeler was dubbed as "The Wrecking Ball" for being the last pitcher to stand on the mound of Busch Stadium in St. Louis in October 2005 before it was demolished.
- His father-in-law is Tampa Bay Devil Rays broadcaster Dewayne Staats...a longtime veteran of baseball broadcasting, Staats was a TV and radio voice of the Astros from 1977-84.
- Has not allowed a run in his career against the Chicago Cubs, pitching 22.2 scoreless innings in 20 career games.
- Perhaps lost in the dramatics of the Astros 18-inning win over Atlanta in Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS was the performance by Wheeler...pitched 3.0 scoreless innings (13th through 15th innings), allowing one hit and walking three while striking out four.

THE SEASON: The 2006 Houston Astros finished 82-80, in second place and 1.5 games behind the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League Central...the Astros have now finished first or second in the NL Central for the 12th time in the 13 seasons (1994-2006) of the division (4th place in 2000)...the Astros were 45-32 against NL Central opponents this season, 16-18 vs. the NL East, and 14-19 vs. the NL West...the Astros finished .500 or better for the 14th time in the last 15 years since 1991, and have finished under .500 only once during Drayton McLane's ownership tenure (1993-2006; 72-90 in 2000, above .500 in every other season)...the Astros missed the playoffs for the first time since 2003, and have made the postseason in six of the last 10 seasons (1997-98-99-01-04-05)...the Astros were 39-34 in the second half after posting a 43-46 mark before the All-Star Break...the Astros went 22-12 in their last 34 games since 8/24, when the club was eight games under .500 (60-68) following a 7-3 loss at Pittsburgh...the Astros scored 735 runs this season, eclipsing their 2005 National League Championship club full-season total of 693.

NINE WAS FINE: The Astros nine-game winning streak from 9/20-28 almost carried the club to the NL Central title...the club made up eight games on St. Louis in eight days...the Astros also were 10-2 in their last 12 games, 11-3 in their last 14 games, and 12-6 in their last 18 road games...the season-high, nine-game streak was the longest winning streak for the club since winning a franchise-record-tying 12 in a row from 8/27-9/8/04...that 12-game winning streak was part of a 36-10 finish to the 2004 season that sent Houston to the postseason via an NL Wild Card berth...the five-game road winning streak was also the longest for the club in 2006 and the longest since the team won six in a row from 7/18-22/05 (including a doubleheader at Pittsburgh on 7/19).

GOLD CATCH: One of the top defensive catchers in the Majors since 1995, Astros catcher Brad Ausmus won his third Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2006...he led all NL catchers in games caught (138), starts (124), fielding pct. (.998), total chances (994), and innings caught (1124.2)...in 2006, he committed only two errors and allowed one passed ball...Ausmus won two consecutive Gold Glove Awards from 2001-02 and has caught more games than any other catcher in franchise history.

CATCHER BRAD AUSMUS

ROY WONDER: Astros RHP Roy Oswalt made a strong case for his first NL Cy Young Award and won the National League ERA title for the first time in his career...Oswalt finished 15-8 with a 2.98 ERA, marking the second consecutive season in which an Astro has led the league in ERA...Roger Clemens posted an NL-best, 1.87 ERA in 2005...the last Major League team to have two different pitchers with the league ERA title in consecutive seasons was Toronto, with Clemens winning the AL ERA crown in 1997 at 2.05 and teammate Juan Guzman winning in 1996 at 2.93...the last NL team to accomplish this feat was Houston in 1986-87, with Mike Scott posting a league-best 2.22 ERA in 1986 and Nolan Ryan winning the NL ERA title with a 2.76 mark in 1987...Oswalt (15-8, 2.98) won his last six decisions since August 23 and was 5-0 with a 1.85 ERA (9ER/43.2IP) in six September starts...he also won nine of his last 10 decisions since July 23...in the last four seasons, Oswalt is 17-2 in September games, making him the first pitcher since Tom Browning from 1985-88 to win as many as 17 September games over a four-year span...Oswalt, the winning pitcher in the clinching Game 6 of the 2005 NLCS for Houston at St. Louis, was tied for second in the NL with nine wins after the All-Star Break, and he finished one win shy of the NL lead in victories in 2006...Oswalt posted back-to-back, 20-win seasons in 2004-05...he leads the NL and is tied with Johan Santana for the Major League lead in wins over the last three seasons from 2004-06 with 55...Oswalt recorded 10 consecutive quality starts since August 9 through the end of the season and ranked second in the NL with a 1.55 walks-per-nine-innings ratio...Oswalt and Chris Capuano tied for the Major League lead in quality starts this season with 25.

HOUSTON BBWAA AWARD WINNERS: The Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) named its award winners for the 2006 season...Lance Berkman was named Astros Most Valuable Player, while RHP Roy Oswalt was named the club's Pitcher of the Year...Luke Scott earned Astros Rookie of the Year honors, while catcher Brad Ausmus was named the fifth recipient of the Darryl Kile Good Guy of the Year Award, joining Jeff Bagwell (2002), Roy Oswalt (2003), Morgan Ensberg (2004), and Brad Lidge (2005)...the award is named after the former Astros right-hander and 12-season Major League pitcher who passed away on June 22, 2002...it is designed to honor a player whose character traits reflect those of the late Kile, and who exhibits "character and decency to teammates, media, and fans"...the BBWAA also honored Tampa Bay OF Carl Crawford as the Houston-area Major League Player of the Year.

SECOND STORY: RHP Roy Oswalt leads all Major League pitchers in career winning pct. in the second half of a season since 1957 with a .761 (51-16) winning pct. since the break (source: Stats, Inc.)...another 2006 member of the Astros rotation, LHP Andy Pettitte, ranks fourth among all pitchers in second-half winning pct. in the last 50 seasons since 1957 (.703, 97-41)...RHP Roger Clemens ranks tied for 11th in the same category at .664 (162-82)...in the second half of the 2006 season, Oswalt, Clemens, and Pettitte were a combined 21-10 with a 2.59 ERA (82ER/285IP)...Oswalt was 9-2 with a 2.77 ERA since the All-Star Break, with Clemens 6-4 with a 2.18 ERA and Pettitte 7-4 with a 2.80 ERA.

WINNING WAYS: Andy Pettitte posted his 12th consecutive winning season (1995-2006) and Roger Clemens had a winning season for the 10th year in a row (1997-2006)...only Pedro Martinez (14 from 1993-2006) has more consecutive winning seasons among active pitchers...additionally, Pettitte's 12 consecutive winning seasons to start a career rank tied for third all-time with Carl Hubbell and Juan Marichal, trailing only Grover Alexander (19) and Cy Young (15).

MLB CAREER WINS LEADERS

7. Kid Nichols.....	360
8. ROGER CLEMENS.....	348
9. Tim Lincecum.....	342

ROCKET MAN: Since his first start of the 2006 season on 6/22 vs. Minnesota, RHP Roger Clemens led the NL and the Majors with a 2.30 ERA...since joining the Astros in 2004, Clemens is 38-18 with a Major League-best 2.40 ERA...Clemens led MLB in ERA in 2005 with a career-best 1.87 mark...he ranks eighth on the MLB career list in victories with 348...over the last two seasons, Clemens owns a 1.50 ERA (24ER/144IP) in 23 road starts, the best of any MLB starter by more than a full run (Roy Halladay, TOR, 2.66)...his 2.02 ERA is the lowest in MLB over the last two seasons (2005-06).

3,000,000: The Astros went over the 3,000,000 mark in attendance for the third time in franchise history in 2006...the final home game, on Sunday, Sept. 24, featured a crowd of 43,704 that was the third-largest regular-season crowd in Minute Maid Park history and increased the final season attendance tally to 3,022,763, the third-highest total in Houston franchise history...the 24 sellouts were the second-highest total recorded by the club at Minute Maid Park.

MAGNIFICENT 7: Craig Biggio finished the 2006 season with 2,930 career hits, tying him with both Jake Beckley and Rogers Hornsby for 31st all-time...Biggio also ranks ninth all-time with 637 career doubles, three away from eighth-place Honus Wagner (640)...he finished the season with 21 home runs, marking the eighth 20-homer season of his career, and among players who played primarily second base, only Jeff Kent has more 20-homer seasons (11)...Biggio played in career game No. 2,700 on Sept. 21, making him the 27th player all-time to play in that many games and the eighth in the National League (the others are Pete Rose, Hank Aaron, Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Barry Bonds, Honus Wagner, and Mel Ott)...Biggio holds the National League record for leadoff home runs with 50 (Rickey Henderson owns the all-time mark with 80)...Biggio now has 970 career extra-base hits and has moved past Jeff Bagwell (969) to become the franchise career leader in extra-base hits...Biggio is 70 hits away from becoming the 27th player all-time to reach the 3,000-hit plateau.

SECOND BASEMAN CRAIG BIGGIO

COUNTIN' DOWN THE HITS: Craig Biggio passed the following players on the MLB career hits list in 2006: George Sisler (2,812), Charlie Gehringer (2,839), Brooks Robinson (2,848), Harold Baines (2,866), Jesse Burkett (2,872), Babe Ruth (2,873), Mel Ott (2,876), Frankie Frisch (2,880), Zack Wheat (2,884), and Al Simmons (2,927)...Biggio ranks second all-time among active players with 2,709 games played and first among all active players in most games played, all with the same team.

30. Frank Robinson.....	2,943
31. Jake Beckley.....	2,930
31. CRAIG BIGGIO.....	2,930
31. Rogers Hornsby.....	2,930

WILLY T.: Willy Taveras recorded a franchise-record, 30-game hitting streak from July 27-August 27, 2006...Taveras was the 42nd player all-time and the second in 2006 (Chase Utley, PHI, 35 games) to record a hitting streak of 30 games or longer...he hit .349 (45x129) during the streak and broke Jeff Kent's previous club-record, 25-game hitting streak in 2004...Taveras also had nine outfield assists in 2006, ranking him second among all National League center fielders.

GOOD AS GOLD: Houston led the NL in fielding in 2006 at .987, second-best in MLB (Boston, .989)...Rawlings Gold Glove Award candidate SS Adam Everett ranked third in the NL and fourth in the Majors with 479 assists...Everett committed only seven errors during the 2006 season, including only four in his last 101 games since 5/29...an error on 9/2 snapped his errorless streak at a career-long 53 games...Everett's 2006 season ranked fourth all-time in fielding pct. by a National League shortstop in a single season at .990...Everett has been named as "simply the best defensive shortstop in baseball" over the last three seasons according to a new book, The Fielding Bible, that conducted an in-depth statistical analysis of every defensive play in the Majors from 2003-05...the Astros committed the fewest errors in the NL with 80 and while the team did not beat the lowest single-season error total in franchise history (76 by the strike-shortened 1994 club), the 2006 Astros did post the lowest error total among Houston clubs who played the full slate of games...the 2002 Astros team had previously committed the fewest errors in club history with 84.

ON THE MOUND: The Astros ranked second in the NL in 2006 with a 4.08 ERA...the Houston pitching staff led the National League in the second half with a 3.56 ERA...Houston ranked second in ERA during September at 3.40...Astros starters ranked second in the NL this season with a 4.15 ERA, trailing only San Diego (4.10)...the Astros were tied with the New York Mets for the NL in shutouts this season with 13...over the last three seasons from 2004-06, the Astros lead MLB in shutouts thrown with 36 (FLA and STL each has 35).

BULLPEN BANTER: Astros relievers ranked fifth in the NL with a 3.94 ERA...no NL team was more successful at converting saves at home in 2006 than Houston, as the Astros .750 save pct. (21-28) in home games led the circuit...Houston's seven blown saves were the fewest at home for any NL club in 2006...RHP Dan Wheeler owned an 1.11 ERA (4ER/32.1IP) since the All-Star Break, fifth-best among NL relievers in 2006 and the fourth-lowest second-half relief ERA in Houston franchise history with a minimum of 25 appearances...Wheeler did not allow a run in 30 of his last 34 appearances since 7/18...LHP Trevor Miller had a streak of 24 consecutive scoreless outings from 8/15-9/29, a career-long span of 14.1 innings...RHP Russ Springer did not allow a run in nine of his last 10 outings.

LEFTY LEDGER: Aubrey Huff's 39 second-half RBI were the ninth-most by an Astros left-handed hitter in one season after the All-Star Break...in the last 20 seasons since 1987, Huff's 39 second-half RBI ranks tied for second in one season for the club (Eric Anthony, 1992; Derrick May, 1995), trailing only Franklin Stubbs' 42 second-half RBI in 1990...Luke Scott had 37 RBI in the second half, the fifth-highest total for an Astros left-handed hitter since 1987.

GREAT SCOTT: While there were many outstanding rookies in the National League in 2006, perhaps none had a greater impact in the second half than Astros rookie OF Luke Scott...Scott hit .336 with 10 home runs and 37 RBI for the Astros in 2006, all in the second half...Scott collected 35 extra-base hits since the All-Star Break, the fourth-most in the NL since 1997 and one more than last year's NL Rookie of the Year, Philadelphia slugger Ryan Howard, collected in the second half in 2005 (34)...Scott ranked 11th in the NL in hitting since the All-Star Break at .336, and his average was tied with Albert Pujols' 2001 second-half average as the ninth-best by any National League rookie in the second half since 1957...Scott's .336 average was also the 11th-best in club history in one season after the All-Star Break...Scott homered twice in the club's Sept. 23 win over St. Louis, including a three-run, walk-off home run off the Cardinals' Tyler Johnson...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Scott is the first rookie to homer twice in one game, with one of the homers being of the walk-off variety, since Reed Johnson of Toronto on 6/15/03 vs. the Cubs...the last NL rookie to accomplish the feat was then-Phillie Scott Rolen in September of 1997.

OUTFIELDER LUKE SCOTT

CENTURY CLUB, PART 1: Orlando Palmeiro has 105 pinch-hits in his career, ranking him 15th on the MLB career list...Palmeiro's 20 pinch-hits in 2006 tied the franchise record for the most in one season, equaling Ken Boswell's total from 1974...Palmeiro is the 18th player all-time with at least 100 career pinch-hits (source: Elias Sports Bureau) and only the 10th since 1974...he ranks second among active players in pinch-hits (105) and pinch-hit doubles (24), trailing only his former minor league teammate, Mark Sweeney, in both categories (Sweeney has 139 career pinch-hits and 28 pinch-hit doubles)...Sweeney and Palmeiro were teammates at Triple A Vancouver from 1994-95 and at Double A Midland in 1993.

2006 SEASON REVIEW

CENTURY CLUB, PART 2: RHP Brad Lidge struck out 104 hitters in 2006, making him the first Major League reliever to strike out at least 100 hitters in three consecutive seasons since Eric Gagne did so in three consecutive from 2002-04...Lidge is the all-time Major League leader in strikeouts per nine innings at 12.82 (minimum 300 career appearances)... Lidge leads the Majors in strikeouts by a reliever since 2003 with 461.

CENTURY CLUB, PART 3: Lance Berkman's 136 RBI were more than twice as much as the Astro with the next-highest total, Craig Biggio with 62...it marks the first time in the Majors that a team had its RBI leader with at least twice as many RBI as the next player since 2002...that season, Sammy Sosa drove in 160 runs, 94 more than the second-highest RBI producer, Ricky Gutierrez (66).

OUTFIELDER LANCE BERKMAN

ROOKIE ROUNDUP: The Astros used 10 rookies during the 2006 season:

RHP Matt Albers	RHP Taylor Buchholz	RHP Jason Hirsh	OF Charlton Jimerson	RHP Chris Sampson
LHP Philip Barzilla	C Hector Gimenez	C J.R. House	RHP Fernando Nieve	OF Luke Scott

Albers, Buchholz, Hirsh, Nieve, and Sampson all made starts for the Astros in 2006.

SERIES STORY: The Astros were 24-26-5 in their 2006 series...the club swept seven series and was swept seven times by other clubs.

MISCELLANEOUS: The Astros were 12-13 in shutouts in 2006...in one-run games, Houston was 25-21...the Astros were 11-20 in two-run games...Houston was 22-16 vs. left-handed starters and 60-64 against right-handed starters...Houston was 22-25 in day games and 60-55 at night.

EXTRA INNINGS: The Astros were 5-10 in extra inning games...the club played two 18-inning games, an 8-7 loss at PNC Park to the Pirates on May 27 and an 8-6 loss to the Chicago Cubs on August 15...the club also won a 15-inning game over Pittsburgh on Sept. 27 by a score of 7-6...the Astros played 1468.2 innings during the 2006 season, the most of any Major League club.

GOOD START, GOOD FINISH: The Astros began the 2006 season with a 19-9 (.679) record...the club also finished 10-2 (.833), including a nine-game winning streak...in the 122 games in between the strong start and strong finish, the club was 51-69 (.418).

HISTORY & RECORDS

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

32 - JIM UMBRIGHT

1962-1963

BORN: 9/17/30 IN CHICAGO, IL

B: R T: R

Jim Umbricht broke into the professional ranks with the Milwaukee Brewers farm system in 1953 and was traded to Pittsburgh by Milwaukee for outfielder Emil Ranko on April 6, 1959. He was purchased by the Houston Colt .45s in the 1961 National League player pool for $50,000 from Pittsburgh. Umbricht opened the 1962 season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the National League. He posted a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA that year. He then made a remarkable comeback after a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963 and was once again one of the league's leading relievers with a 4-3 record and 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired on April 12, 1965.

40 - DON WILSON

BORN: 2/12/45 IN MONROE, LA

B: R T: R

Don Wilson is the only player to hurl two no-hitters while wearing a Houston uniform. He pitched a no-hitter on June 18, 1967 vs. Atlanta (2-0) and May 1, 1969 at Cincinnati (4-0). Wilson established the club record for single-game strikeouts (18) on July 14, 1968 vs. Los Angeles. He compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros and won a career-high 16 games twice in 1969 (16-12), and 1971 (16-10). He was named to the 1971 All-Star team. Wilson died on January 5, 1975 and his number, 40, was officially retired on April 13, 1975.

25 - JOSE CRUZ

1975-87

BORN: 8/8/47 IN ARROYO, PR

B: L T: L

Jose "Cheo" Cruz ranks in the top 10 in every significant Astros career hitting category. He was the team's most valuable player four times (1977, 1980, 1983, 1984) and named a National League All-Star twice (1980, 1985). He started his career in the St. Louis organization but did not blossom until he was acquired by the Astros in 1975. Cruz made three trips into post-season play with the Astros, batting .400 in the 1980 NLCS against the Phillies and hitting .300 six times in his career. Cruz currently serves as the Astros' first base coach. His number, 25, was officially retired on October 3, 1992.

33 - MIKE SCOTT

1983-91

BORN: 4/26/55 IN SANTA MONICA, CA

B: R T: R

Mike Scott is still remembered for doing the impossible: on Sept. 25, 1986, he became the first pitcher ever to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco 2-0 to wrap up the NL West title. Scott, who began his career with the New York Mets, was 110-81 with a 3.30 ERA as an Astro from 1983-90, winning the Cy Young Award in 1986 when he led the Majors in strikeouts (306), innings pitched (275.1) and ERA (2.22). He will also be remembered for his feats in the 1986 NLCS. Scott twice beat the New York Mets, limiting them to one run in 18 innings and striking out 19 batters.

He became the first player from a losing team to win NLCS MVP honors. In 1989, he became Houston's fourth 20-game winner when he posted a 20-10 record. His number, 33, was officially retired on Oct. 3, 1992.

34 - NOLAN RYAN

B: R T: R

The all-time strikeout king and 1999 inductee to the Baseball Hall of Fame played nine seasons for the Astros after signing as a free agent on Nov. 19, 1979. Astros fans did not have to wait long to get a glimpse of Ryan magic. In his first game as an Astro, he hit a three-run homer off of Don Sutton as the Astros lost to the Dodgers 6-5 in 17 innings. He helped the Astros to their first National League West Division title in 1980. He tossed his fifth career no-hitter on Sept. 26, 1981 against Los Angeles and posted one of the best post-World War II ERAs (1.69) in helping Houston to the second half title. On April 27, 1983, he surpassed Walter Johnson as baseball's all-time strikeout king when he fanned Montreal's Brad Mills. He led the league with a 2.76 ERA in 1987 despite an 8-16 record. He led the league in strikeouts in 1987 (270) and 1988 (228). Ryan made two All-Star appearances while wearing a Houston uniform (1981, 1985) and was the owner of 53 Major League pitching records upon his retirement. His number, 34, was retired on Sept. 29, 1996.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

49 - LARRY DIERKER

1964-77

BORN: 9/22/46 IN HOLLYWOOD, CA

B: R T: R

On May 19, 2002, the Astros retired the number 49 of franchise icon Larry Dierker. In 38 years of service to the organization, Dierker served as a player, front-office member, broadcaster, and manager. In 13 seasons on the mound with Houston, he won 137 games, second only to Joe Niekro in team history. He owns the franchise records for innings pitched, starts, complete games, and shutouts. A two-time All-Star, Dierker pitched the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976. After one season in the front office and 18 as a broadcaster, Dierker became only the sixth manager in Major League history to win a division crown in his first season. In five seasons as the club's skipper from 1997-2001, he won four division titles, and the 1998 team won a franchise-record 102 games, allowing Dierker to earn NL Manager of the Year honors.

24 - JIMMY WYNN

1963-73

BORN: 3/12/46 IN HAMILTON, OH

B: R T: R

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the Top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season. In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Wynn smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. Wynn remains an active member of the Houston community and works closely with the Astros Community Development Department and charities. His number, 24, was officially retired on June 25, 2005.

42 - JACKIE ROBINSON

1947-56

BORN: 1/31/19 IN CAIRO, GA

B: R T: R

On April 15, 1947, Jackie Robinson debuted at first base for the Brooklyn Dodgers, becoming the first African American in the 20th century to appear in a Major League Baseball uniform. He broke the color barrier, and quickly became one of the league's stars and a symbol of hope to millions of Americans. Known for his daring baserunning, Robinson stole home 19 times, and helped the Dodgers win the pennant in six of his 10 seasons. In 1949, he was named the National League MVP after batting .342 with 37 steals and 124 runs. And, in 1962, he became the first black elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. To mark the 50th anniversary of his historic achievement, Major League Baseball dedicated the 1997 season to Robinson and retired his number, 42, throughout the league. Robinson died October 24, 1972, at the age of 53.

- 1979 Houston finishes in second place, just a game-and-a-half behind the Reds... J.R. Richard improves upon his 1978 strikeout total by fanning 313...Joe Niekro sets a club mark with 21 wins...Ken Forsch no-hits the Braves on April 7...Bill Virdon is named Manager of the Year.
- 1980 Houston claims its first title as the Astros win the NL West with a 93-70 record, defeating Los Angeles in a one-game playoff...Niekro wins 20 games again... Joe Morgan returns to Houston to add leadership in the pennant drive.
- 1981 Houston gets off to a slow start, but takes advantage of the split season created by the player's strike to win the "second season" with a 33-20 mark, earning a spot in the playoffs...Nolan Ryan hurls his Major League record fifth no-hitter, blanking the Dodgers on September 26...Ryan also leads the league with a 1.69 ERA...Art Howe establishes a club record with a 23-game hitting streak.
- 1982 Ray Knight, an offseason acquisition from Cincinnati for Cesar Cedeno, remains among the league leaders in hitting for most of the season, finishing with a .294 mark...Bob Lillis takes over as interim manager on August 10 and the Astros finish 28-23 under Lillis.
- 1983 After struggling to an 0-9 start, the Astros rebound with one of their finest seasons...Houston finishes at 85-77, the third-highest win total in club history...Jose Cruz battles for NL batting title to last day and finishes third... Nolan Ryan surpasses Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout mark.

- 1984 The Astros bounce back from another slow start, finishing second in the NL West...1983 All-Star Dickie Thon is lost for the season in the fifth game after being hit in the head by a pitch from the Mets' Mike Torrez...Cruz repeats as the club MVP by posting a .312 average and a career-high 95 RBI.
- 1985 The Astros celebrate the Astrodome's 20th Anniversary with a 2-1 opening day victory over the Dodgers in front of 42,876 fans...Joe Niekro becomes Houston's all-time winningest pitcher with his 5-0 shutout of San Francisco on June 9...Nolan Ryan becomes first player to record 4,000 strikeouts in a career when he fans Danny Heep on July 11 at the Astrodome...Jose Cruz reaches the 2,000 hit plateau on Sept. 15.
- 1986 A Silver Anniversary season turns golden as the Astros win their second NL West title...Rookie skipper Hal Lanier guides the team to a club-record 96 regular season wins...Lanier earns Manager of the Year notice from four different press associations after the season...right-hander Mike Scott becomes Houston's first ever Cy Young Award winner, leading the league in ERA (2.22) and strikeouts (306), and winning 18 games for the second straight year.
- 1987 Houston finishes the season with the third-highest attendance total in baseball (1,909,902)...Nolan Ryan leads the Majors in strikeouts with 270 and ties for the lead in ERA with a 2.76 mark...Mike Scott is named the NL starter for the All-Star game and throws two scoreless innings.
- 1988 Houston wins its 2,000th game 6-3 over San Diego on opening night...Mike Scott comes within one out of his second career no-hitter on June 12 vs. Atlanta...Bob Knepper tosses a one-hitter on September 21 vs. the Braves.
- 1989 Mike Scott becomes the fourth Houston pitcher to win 20 games and wins his second Astros MVP award...the Astros win 10 straight on the road from May 7-31 to set a club record...their 10-game winning streak from May 26 to June 4 tied another club mark...Glenn Davis hits a career-high 34 homers.
- 1990 Danny Darwin had a league-leading 2.21 ERA, becoming the third Houston pitcher in five years to lead the NL in ERA...Franklin Stubbs sets club mark for left-handers with 23 home runs...Houston ties a league record by playing in 27 extra-inning games...on May 17, Eric Anthony becomes the first Astro to hit an upper deck home run since 1970.
- 1991 Jeff Bagwell becomes the Astros first BBWAA Rookie of the Year after hitting .294 with 15 homers and club rookie record of 82 RBI...Craig Biggio leads the club in hitting for the second straight year (.295) and joins Pete Harnisch on the NL All-Star team.
- 1992 Despite a grueling 26-day road trip made necessary when the Astrodome played host to the Republican National Convention, the Astros rallied in the second half to post the club's first non-losing season since 1989...Craig Biggio became the first player ever to make the All-Star team at both catcher (1991) and second base (1992)...Doug Jones was also named to the All-Star team and set the club single-season record with 36 saves.
- 1993 The club established several franchise offensive records including batting average (.267), homers (138) and doubles (288)...paced by Craig Biggio's career-high 21 round-trippers, seven Houston players totaled double figures in homers for the first time in club history...Mark Portugal set a club record by winning his final 12 decisions...Darryl Kile posted a nine-game win streak and tosses the ninth no-hitter in Astros history on September 8 against New York.
- 1994 Jeff Bagwell became the first Houston player ever to win the NL Most Valuable Player award...Bagwell was a unanimous selection for only the third time in league history after batting .368 and setting club records with 73 extra base hits, 39 homers and 116 RBI...Bagwell earns All-Star honors along with Craig Biggio, Ken Caminiti, Doug Drabek and rookie John Hudek...Rookie skipper Terry Collins guided the club to a 66-49 mark, one-half game behind Cincinnati, before a players' strike ended the season on August 12.
- 1995 The Astros took the chase for the NL's first-ever Wild Card playoff berth to the final day of the season before finishing one game behind Colorado...Craig Biggio was voted the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game and slugged a solo homer...he later was voted team MVP and wins a second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.
- 1996 A two-and-a-half game lead at the end of August slipped away and denied Houston a shot at the NL Central title...the Astros suffered through an 8-17 September, which included a nine-game losing streak, to fall out of the playoff chase...Jeff Bagwell slugged 31 homers and set single season records with 48 doubles and 120 RBI...Derek Bell knocked in 113 runs, marking the first time ever the club had two 100-plus RBI players in the same season...Craig Biggio collected his third consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award...Shane Reynolds won 16 games, while he and Darryl Kile each topped the 200-mark in strikeouts.

HISTORY & RECORDS

- 1997 The Astros captured their first-ever NL Central title and their first division title in 11 years...Jeff Bagwell banged 43 homers and swiped 31 bases to become Houston's first "30-30" man...Bagwell set new single-season club records in homers (43), RBI (135), total bases (335) and extra-base hits (85)...Craig Biggio became the first player in Major League history to have not grounded into a double play in a 162-game season...fans select Bagwell and Biggio to play in the 1997 All-Star Game, marking the first time that two Astros position players were selected to start in the Mid-Summer classic...Darryl Kile won a team-high 19 games and was also selected to the All-Star Team...Larry Dierker became one of only six skippers in Major League history who won a division title in his first year as manager.
- 1998 The Astros won their second consecutive NL Central title en route to a franchise-best 102-win season...the club drew a record 2.45 million fans and drew ten crowds of 50,000 or more...Larry Dierker was voted NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and Baseball America...General Manager Gerry Hunsicker was voted The Sporting News Executive of the Year...Craig Biggio joined Tris Speaker as the only two players in the century who have hit 50 doubles and stolen 50 bases in the same season...Biggio and Moises Alou were selected to represent the Astros in the 1998 All-Star Game in Denver...Biggio broke Cesar Cedeno's record for the most runs scored by an Astro...he and Alou each received Silver Slugger Awards for their offensive contributions and both finished in the top five in NL MVP voting...five Astros starting pitchers, including Randy Johnson who was acquired just minutes before the July 31 non-waiver trading deadline, finished the season with double figures in wins.
- 1999 The Astros bid adieu to the Astrodome in dramatic fashion, clinching their third straight NL Central title on the final day of the regular season before a sold out crowd...standing-room only crowds were commonplace during the last year of baseball in the Dome as a record 2.7 million fans flocked to the Eighth Wonder of the World...despite an injury-riddled year that landed 14 players on the DL and sidelined three members of the coaching staff for significant periods of time, Houston won 97 games, only five victories fewer than its record-setting 102-win season of 1998...the pitching staff produced two 20-game winners for the first time in club history in Mike Hampton (22-4) and Jose Lima (21-10)...Hampton and Jeff Bagwell were recognized as the best offensive players at their respective positions as each was a recipient of the Silver Slugger Award...four Astros were selected to represent the National League in the 70th annual All-Star Game (Bagwell, Hampton, Lima, Billy Wagner)...Wagner was the recipient of the 1999 Roloids Relief Man Award.
- 2000 History was made as the doors of sparkling-new Minute Maid Park opened for the first time on March 30 before an exhibition game with the New York Yankees...a record 3,056,139 fans passed through the turnstiles during the Astros inaugural season at their new ballpark...Houston finished the season at 72-90 to mark the club's first sub-.500 season since 1991...Jeff Bagwell set single-season franchise records with 47 homers and 152 runs scored...Bagwell ended the 2000 season having logged 310 career homers and became only the 87th Major Leaguer to reach the 300-homer plateau...the Astros set franchise records with 249 homers, 900 RBI and 938 runs scored...Tony Eusebio set a franchise record with a 24-game hitting streak that lasted nearly two months...Shane Reynolds was named to the All-Star team, marking his first career selection to the Mid-Summer Classic.
- 2001 The 2001 season went right down to the wire as the Astros clinched their fourth division title in five years with a 9-2 win over the Cardinals on October 7 in St. Louis...play stopped throughout the sports world following the tragic terrorist attacks on September 11; the regular season was extended a week...Craig Biggio became the first player in franchise history to log 2,000 hits and enters the 2003 season with 2,295 hits during his 15-year career...after toiling around the .500 mark with a 33-33 record on June 17, the Astros went on to finish the year at a 59-36 (.621) clip to edge the Cardinals for the division title...Major League Baseball announced that the Astros were awarded the 2004 All-Star Game...Moises Alou, Billy Wagner and Lance Berkman represented the Astros at the 72nd Mid-Summer Classic...Jeff Bagwell became the sixth player in MLB history to have 30 homers, 100 RBI and 100 runs scored in six consecutive seasons...after being swept by Atlanta in the NLDS, manager Larry Dierker resigned and was replaced by former Red Sox skipper Jimmy Williams...at the end of the season, utility infielder Bill Spiers announced his retirement...the Astros were named Organization of the Year by SportsTicker, Topps, Baseball America and Baseball Weekly...Brad Ausmus received a Gold Glove award for defensive excellence at his position.
- 2002 By Houston standards, the 2002 season was a disappointment after the Astros finished with an 84-78 record, good for only second place in the NL Central behind the St. Louis Cardinals. Despite staying in the division race until the final two weeks of the season, the Astros wound up 13 games behind the Cardinals. However, the 2002 season was anything but forgettable for the Astros. The Wade Miller-Roy Oswalt arsenal combined to go 34-13 on the year while stringing together 12- and nine-game winning streaks, respectively...Astros hurlers threw 10 shutouts at home to contribute to a 47-34 record at home...on April 8th, Craig Biggio hit for the cycle in Colorado, becoming only the fifth player in franchise history to accomplish the feat...in May, the Astros retired Larry Dierker's No. 49 in a pregame ceremony...Lance Berkman represented the Astros at the 2002 All-Star game...Houston's downtown ballpark was re-christened Minute Maid Park when the Astros announced an agreement with the local beverage giant for naming rights on June 5...Berkman finished third in MVP voting and led the NL in RBI...Brad Ausmus won his second consecutive Gold Glove Award.

2003 The Astros were favorites to win the NL Central title to start the season behind young aces Wade Miller and Roy Oswalt and new acquisition Jeff Kent. But, injuries intervened and Houston ended the season in second place, one game behind the division champ Chicago Cubs...Craig Biggio made his second career position move and served as the club's primary center fielder...on June 11 at Yankee Stadium, six Astros pitchers combined to no-hit the Yankees for the 8-0 win: Roy Oswalt, Pete Munro, Kirk Saarloos, Brad Lidge, Octavio Dotel and Billy Wagner. It was the first time in ML history that a team used five or more pitchers in throwing a no-hitter...Biggio recorded his club-record 500th double on July 10...Wagner recorded a career-high and franchise-record 44 saves on the season and represented the team at the All-Star game...Jerome Robertson set the franchise record for a rookie with 15 wins, the most of all ML rookies...Richard Hidalgo was named Team MVP and led the Majors with 22 outfield assists.

2004 It was going to be a big year in Houston - Minute Maid Park would play host to the 2004 All-Star Game. But no one knew exactly how big it would get when the calendar year began. It started with the signing of Roger Clemens on Jan. 12, and didn't end until Game 7 of the National League Championship series on Oct. 21...Clemens came out of retirement and returned to his hometown to pitch - he won his first nine decisions, and on May 5, he claimed the No. 2 slot on the all-time strikeout list with his 4,137th career strikeout...on May 8, Craig Biggio collected his 2,500th career hit...the Astros acquired outfielder Carlos Beltran on June 24, who finished with a combined 38 home runs and 42 stolen bases between Houston and Kansas City...four Astros were named All-Stars: Clemens, Beltran, Lance Berkman, and Jeff Kent...on July 14, Phil Garner replaced Jimmy Williams as manager...Roy Oswalt led the NL in wins with his first 20-game season, and Clemens tied for second with 18 wins...Houston claimed the NL Wild Card after a 36-10 run in its last 46 games of the season...the Astros won their first postseason series, defeating the Atlanta Braves in Game 5 of the NLDS...the NLCS was pushed to Game 7 before St. Louis defeated Houston...Clemens claimed his unprecedented seventh Cy Young Award.

2005 The Astros advanced to the World Series for the first time in franchise history after defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2 in a rematch of the 2004 NLCS...the Chicago White Sox went on to sweep the Astros in four games to claim their first World Series since 1917...the Astros hosted the first World Series game in the state of Texas, and Game 3 on Oct. 25 turned into the longest in World Series history as the White Sox won in 14 innings, 7-5...Houston won the NL Wild Card for the second season in a row, finishing in second place in the NL Central Division with a record of 89-73...the Astros won the longest game in postseason history, defeating Atlanta in the NLDS, 7-6, in 18 innings after a Chris Burke solo home run in the bottom of the 18th, while Roger Clemens tossed 3.0 scoreless innings of relief...the club started the season with a 2-21 record on the road, and overcame a 15-30 record on May 24 to become the first team since the 1914 Boston Braves to make the postseason after falling to 15 games under .500...on June 29, Craig Biggio was hit by a pitch for the 268th time of his career, setting the modern Major League record...Roger Clemens returned to the Astros for a second year and finished 13-8 with a career-best 1.89 ERA...Roy Oswalt posted his second consecutive 20-win season, finishing 20-12 with a 2.94 ERA...Andy Pettitte won 17 games and recorded a career-low 2.39 ERA...for the second season in a row, four Astros were named to the All Star squad: Clemens, Oswalt, Brad Lidge and Morgan Ensberg...Ensberg set career-highs in home runs and RBI, and took home the National League Silver Slugger Award at third base...Willy Taveras made the jump from Double A to the Majors and led all NL Rookies in hits, runs and stolen bases...Taveras also led the Majors with 70 infield hits and 29 bunt singles.

2006 In a thrilling finish to the season, the Astros spent the final two weeks chasing first-place St. Louis by winning 10 of the last 12 games...the club finished 82-80, in second place, 1.5 games behind the World Champions, giving Houston its sixth consecutive winning season...trailing the Cardinals by 8.5 games on Sept. 20, the Astros picked up eight games in eight days and moved to within a half-game of first place with three to play...but Houston would lose two out of three in Atlanta and missed the playoffs for the first time since 2003...the end of the season was similar to the club's hot start in April...the Astros won 19 of the first 28 games, which represents the best start in franchise history...Lance Berkman made his fourth All-Star appearance and set the single-season franchise record with 136 RBI. Roger Clemens returned for a third season on June 22 and finished 7-6 with a 2.30 ERA...Willy Taveras logged a 30-game hitting streak from July 27-Aug. 27, eclipsing Jeff Kent's franchise-best 25-game hitting streak in 2004...Roy Oswalt won the ERA crown with a 2.98 mark, while winning 15 games...he was the runner-up in the NL Cy Young Award voting...Adam Everett recorded the fourth-best fielding percentage by a shortstop in Major League history, holding down a .990 mark at the position...the Astros finished .500 or better for the 14th time in 15 years and their second-place finish marked 12th time in 13 years that the club has claimed first or second place in the NL Central.

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium would be completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

2005 HOUSTON ASTROS MAKE FIRST TRIP TO WORLD SERIES

The 2005 season was a magical and historic season for the Houston Astros, as the team won its first National League Championship and advanced to the World Series for the first time.

For the second consecutive season, the Astros clinched the National League Wild Card berth on the final day of the regular season. Brad Lidge recorded his 42nd save of the year on October 2 at Minute Maid Park as Houston beat the Cubs 6-4 to end the season and clinch a playoff spot.

The historic season had an inauspicious beginning, however, as the Astros began the 2005 campaign with a 15-30 record through their first 45 games. On May 25, the club's reversal of fortune began as Houston and Brandon Backe defeated the Chicago Cubs and Greg Maddux at Wrigley Field 5-1, beginning a 44-18 run that was the best in the Majors and carried the Astros back into the pennant race. The run included a franchise-record-tying 22 wins in July (22-7, .759).

In the 2004 postseason, the Houston franchise won its first postseason series in history by defeating the Atlanta Braves in five games in the Division Series. The club then fell to St. Louis in seven games in the NLCS. The 2005 playoffs were a different story, as the Astros would reach heights the franchise had not previously attained.

The 2005 NL Division Series would pit the Astros in a rematch of the 2004 clash with Atlanta. A familiar foe in the postseason, the Braves would be Houston's opponent in the first round for the fifth time in Houston's last six playoff appearances since 1997. The series would have a historic ending, and it would be in Houston's favor.

The Astros took a 1-0 series lead with a 10-5 win at Turner Field, thanks to the 14th career playoff win from Andy Pettitte, a five-run eighth inning, and five RBI from Morgan Ensberg. The 10 runs overshadowed a strong "small ball" performance by Houston, as the club became the ninth team and the first since 1974 to record four sacrifice bunts in one game. The Braves would tie the series after a 7-1 win in Game 2, as John Smoltz turned in a strong performance while facing Astros starter Roger Clemens.

The series journeyed to Minute Maid Park, where the Astros carried a 3-2 lead into the seventh inning of Game 3. Six consecutive Houston hitters reached base against the Atlanta bullpen in the seventh, with four scoring to give the Astros a comfortable lead they would never relinquish. Roy Oswalt earned the win in Houston's 7-3 victory, scattering six hits and three runs over 7.1 innings. Houston needed one more win to advance to the LCS for the second consecutive season. What happened next would be one of most memorable and unique games in postseason history.

By the time the eighth inning rolled around, many in the stands and both dugouts were looking ahead to a trip to Atlanta for another Game 5, the exact scenario that transpired one year before. Atlanta had a seemingly insurmountable 6-1 lead, but what no one knew is that this contest had another three hours left, thanks to Lance Berkman, Brad Ausmus, and some tremendous bullpen work by both clubs.

The longest postseason game in Major League history turned in the bottom of the eighth, when with a 2-1 count and the bases loaded, Atlanta closer Kyle Farnsworth decided to challenge Berkman. The tall right-hander likely had a different result in mind, as Berkman drove the fastball to left field and into the Crawford Boxes for the first postseason grand slam hit by an Astro in franchise history.

It still appeared that Atlanta would win the game, as the Braves clung to a 6-5 lead heading into the ninth. Jason Lane grounded out to third and Jose Vizcaino struck out for two quick outs. One could have easily surmised in two hours, the Astros would be on a flight to Atlanta.

Actually, everyone would still be in the ballpark, thanks to Ausmus.

Ausmus launched a 2-0 Farnsworth pitch to left-center field, and the ball hit the façade above the yellow line, narrowly escaping center fielder Jones' outstretched glove for a solo home run that tied the score at 5-5. The game that was one out away from ending has changed on one swing of the bat.

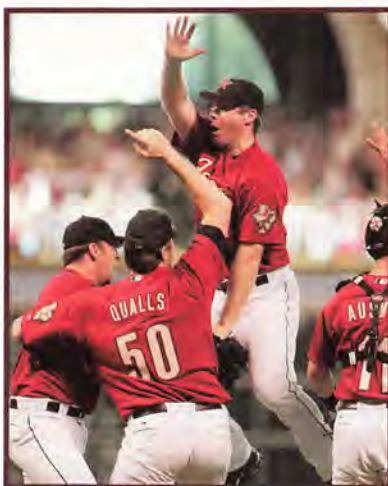

After a 10th-inning rally fell short, Houston would not have another hit until the game-winner in the 18th. And around the 15th, after a tremendous three-inning effort by Dan Wheeler and the score still deadlocked at 6-6 after 15 innings, a certain right-hander began warming in the Astros bullpen.

It would have been plausible to suggest that there was nothing left for Roger Clemens to accomplish in his career. One could make a case that Clemens is the greatest pitcher to ever don a Major League uniform, thanks to his 341 wins, 11 All-Star teams, 4,500-plus strikeouts, unprecedented seven Cy Young Awards, and certain lock to be elected to the Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

After throwing 92 pitches in the Game 2 loss three days earlier, the 43-year-old Clemens was among the last guy fans would expect to enter the game when they ventured to Minute Maid Park that day. The legend of the Rocket would grow even more remarkable on this October afternoon, as he not only appeared in relief but made the first pinch-hit appearance of his career in the 15th for Wheeler. He advanced Biggio on a sacrifice bunt before the next two hitters were retired.

It was Clemens' first relief appearance since as a rookie with Boston on July 18, 1984, and the Rocket would pitch three scoreless innings, throwing a fastball clocked in the mid-90's and showing no effects from the Game 2 loss (and 92-pitch outing) just three days earlier.

Clemens led off the bottom of the 18th with a strikeout, even though teammate Lidge said he "wouldn't have been surprised" had the Rocket added to his legend with a walk-off hit. With the Rocket's place in history secure, a rookie just starting his big league career was about to stake his place in postseason lore.

Facing Joey Devine, who was the closer for North Carolina State University just four months earlier, Chris Burke deposited a 2-0 fastball into the Crawford Boxes, giving Houston a 7-6 win and ending the longest game in playoff history at five hours, 50 minutes.

In addition to sending the Minute Maid Park crowd into a frenzy and the Astros to the NLCS for the second consecutive season, Burke became the sixth player in postseason history and the first rookie to end a playoff series with a walk-off home run, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The previous longest playoff game had also been held in Houston, the classic 1986 Game 6 at the Astrodome when the Astros fell to the eventual World Champion New York Mets, 7-6 in 16 innings. The "Greatest Game Ever Played," according to one book penned about that game, had been eclipsed in terms of innings. And perhaps in terms of greatness as well.

The abundance of remarkable statistics surrounding this game are too numerous to mention. However, to list a few (many of these are courtesy of Elias):

- The Astros used 23 players, a Division Series record.
- The 5:50 time of game eclipsed the 2004 ALCS Game 4 record by one minute (5:49).
- The 42 combined players were the most used in a DS game and the 14 total pitchers tied the previous standard.
- Houston went hitless from Berkman's double in the 10th until Burke's game-ending homer in the 18th.
- The same fan, Sean Dean of Porter, Texas, caught both Berkman's grand slam in the eighth AND Burke's walkoff.
- It was the first game in playoff history with two grand slams (LaRoche and Berkman).
- As Jim Molony from MLB.COM wrote, the matchup between Franco and Clemens featured "90 years on this earth and 42 years of Major League experience."
- The Braves went 1-for-18 with runners in scoring position, leaving a Division Series-record 18 runners on base.
- The Astros became the third team and the first since the 1993 Blue Jays to win a playoff game after trailing by five runs or more entering the eighth.
- Ausmus' home run in the ninth made him the fifth player in postseason history to tie a game with a home run with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning.
- 553 pitches were thrown.
- Clemens became the pitcher with the second most regular-season wins (341) before recording his first relief postseason victory, trailing only Walter Johnson (377), who accomplished the feat in 1914 in the lone Washington Senators' World Series win in franchise history.

The Astros were on to St. Louis, where Chris Carpenter outdueled Pettitte in Game 1 for a 5-3 St. Louis win. Houston evened the series behind seven dominant innings from Roy Oswalt in Game 2, taking a 4-1 victory. With the series moving back to Minute Maid Park, Mike Lamb was the hero with a home run and a double in a 4-3 win. Clemens tossed six strong innings and Lidge recorded his second save of the LCS.

The Houston bullpen was the difference in a 2-1, Game 4 win, as after 5.2 innings from Brandon Backe, four Astros relievers combined to pitched 3.1 scoreless innings, culminating with another Lidge save. Jason Lane homered in the fourth and Ensberg hit a sacrifice fly in the seventh for the only two runs Houston would need.

A three-run homer by Berkman in the bottom of the fifth in Game 5 gave the Astros a 4-2 lead. However, St. Louis would delay Houston's World Series dreams another couple of days, as Albert Pujols hit a three-run home run against Lidge to give the Redbirds a 5-4 win and send the series back to Busch Stadium.

Two days later, Oswalt hosted a going-away party for the Cardinals home, as the NLCS MVP allowed three hits and one run in seven innings. The Astros were National League Champions for the first time ever, as a 5-1 victory sent a Texas team to the World Series for the first time. Oswalt was 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA in the series, while Craig Biggio led the team with eight hits in the series and Burke paced the club with five runs scored.

The Astros would now appear in their first Fall Classic, traveling to Chicago to face the American League's best, the White Sox. Clemens started for Houston in Game 1 but was forced to leave with a left hamstring strain after allowing four hits and three runs in two innings. Lamb would hit the first home run by an Astro in World Series history, and after three innings, the game was tied at 3-3.

Joe Crede homered in the fourth and Chicago added one more in the eighth against Russ Springer, and the White Sox won Game 1, 5-3. Andy Pettitte pitched six strong innings in Game 2, and Houston owned a 4-2 lead heading into the seventh. Slugger Paul Konerko changed that with a grand slam against Chad Qualls in the seventh, but Jose Vizcaino's pinch-hit single scored Jeff Bagwell and Burke to tie the game at 6-6 in the top of the ninth. However, Scott Podsednik would end Game 2 with a walk-off home run against Lidge, and a 7-6 Chicago win gave them a 2-0 series edge.

Already owning the longest game in postseason, Division Series, and League Championship Series history, the Astros completed the cycle by playing the longest game in World Series history on Tuesday, October 25. The game was also the first Fall Classic contest played in the state of Texas.

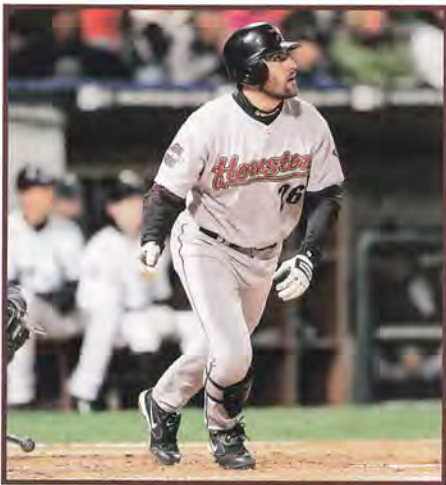

The Astros raced to a 4-0 lead after scoring one run in the first and fourth and two in the third inning of Game 3 against Chicago's Jon Garland. The lead evaporated in the fifth, however, as the White Sox scored five runs against Houston starter Oswalt. Lane tied the game against Dustin Hermanson in the eighth. Both offenses then went silent until the 14th inning, when a familiar face placed Houston in a deep hole.

With right-handed rookie Ezequiel Astacio on the mound, former Astro Geoff Blum homered to right field to give Chicago the lead. The White Sox added another in the 14th, and then Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle pitched the bottom frame to save the game and give Chicago a 3-0 series lead.

World Series MVP Jermaine Dye was responsible for the only run production in the series-clinching Game 4, driving in Willie Harris with a ground-ball single to center field in the eighth against Lidge. Brandon Backe had started for the Astros and pitched seven shutout innings to keep the game deadlocked until Dye's hit in the eighth.

The 1-0 victory clinched the White Sox first World Championship since 1959 and ended the Astros World Series hopes in 2005.

But despite falling short in the World Series, the 2005 Houston Astros team reached heights not previously attained, and have set a standard of excellence and resilience for future clubs to aspire to.

DARRYL KILE GOOD GUY OF THE YEAR AWARD

In 2002, the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America created the Darryl Kile Good Guy of the Year Award, honoring an Astros player who exhibits "character and decency toward teammates, media, and fans." The award is named after the former Astros right-hander and 12-season Major League pitcher who passed away on June 22, 2002. It is designed to honor a player whose character traits reflect those of the late Kile. Astros first baseman Jeff Bagwell was the first recipient of the award. Kile played for the Astros from 1991-97, and also played for Colorado (1998-1999) and St. Louis (2000-02).

ASTROS VS. YANKEES

The first baseball game played in the Astrodome was Friday, April 9, 1965, an exhibition game between the Astros and New York Yankees. Houston won the game, 2-1 in 12 innings with Hal Woodeschick getting credit for the pitching win and Pete Mikkelsen the loss. A paid crowd of 47,876 watched the game and saw Mickey Mantle hit the first Astrodome home run in the sixth inning with the bases empty.

In an effort to link the past to the future, the Astros invited the Yankees to Houston to play the first-ever game at Minute Maid Park, Houston's new downtown ballpark. The teams squared off in front of 40,624 fans in an exhibition on Thursday, March 30, 2000. Houston again won by one run, 6-5. Yankees outfielder Ricky Ledee hit a pinch-hit home run in the sixth inning for the first longball in the new park. But a two-run homer by Astros outfielder Darryle Ward capped a four-run eighth inning as Houston erased a 5-2 deficit. Righthander Jay Powell picked up the win, while lefty closer Billy Wagner got the save. Yankees reliever Jason Grimsley took the loss.

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40 HR/30SB seasons. Jeff is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jeff Bagwell is the only player in franchise history to win the Jackie Robinson National League Rookie of the Year and the NL Most Valuable Player. Astro pitchers have captured the NL Cy Young Award twice, Mike Scott in 1986 and Roger Clemens in 2004. Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the NL MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers was the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte. Craig Biggio is the active club leader in home runs hit in the Bayou City with 123, with Lance Berkman second at 101.

HOUSTON'S FIRST HOME RUNS

The first home run ever hit by a Houston player in the National League came on Opening Day in 1962, April 10. Roman Mejias connected off Chicago pitcher Don Cardwell in the third inning with two men on base. Mejias also homered off Al Lary in the eighth inning with two more men on to account for the third Colt .45s home run of the game. Hal Smith had hit one in the third inning.

The first opposition home run came in the seventh inning of the same game when the Cubs' Ernie Banks hit one off Bobby Shantz.

1980 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

PHILADELPHIA.....3 GAMES
HOUSTON .....2 GAMES

In one of the best League Championship Series in baseball history, the Phillies took the opener 3-1 on the series' only home run - Greg Luzinski's two-run blast in the sixth inning. Game 1 was the only game without extra innings.

The Astros evened the series in Game 2 - breaking a 3-3 tie with four runs in the 10th - and took the series lead in a Game 3 pitchers' duel that featured 10 shutout innings from Houston's Joe Niekro. Reliever Dave Smith continued the shutout and took the win as Joe Morgan's triple and Denny Walling's sacrifice fly off Phillie ace reliever Tug McGraw scored the game's only run in the bottom of the 11th.

The Phillies rebounded with their own set of extra-inning victories. In Game 4, a single and two doubles pushed across two go-ahead runs in the top of the 10th, and McGraw preserved the edge for his second series save. And in the finale, which featured three lead changes. Del Unser scored on Garry Maddox's 10th-inning double and Dick Ruthven held off Houston to bring the Phillies their first pennant in 30 years.

1981 NATIONAL LEAGUE WEST DIVISION SERIES

LOS ANGELES ..... 3 GAMES
HOUSTON ..... 2 GAMES

Because of a midseason player strike that forced a complete shutdown of Major League Baseball for almost two months, a split-season format and a new tier of playoffs were created after the work stoppage ended. This new format matched the Astros against the Los Angeles Dodgers for a best-of-five National League West Division Series.

Behind Nolan Ryan's pitching and Alan Ashby's two-run homer in the ninth inning, the Astros took a 3-1 victory in Game 1. Houston then took a 2-0 series lead with a 1-0 triumph in Game 2 as Denny Walling stroked a pitch-hit single with the bases loaded and two out in the 11th inning.

Back in their familiar L.A. surroundings, the Dodgers managed to take control of the remainder of the series. They erupted for three first-inning runs in Game 3 and coasted to a 6-1 victory as three pitchers combined on a three-hitter.

Game 4 turned out to be a pitcher's battle. Neither the Dodgers nor the Astros put a runner on base in the first four innings as Fernando Valenzuela and Vern Ruhle were in complete command. Both pitchers allowed four hits in the game, but Pedro Guerrero belted a solo homer in the fifth and Bill Russell added an RBI single in the seventh to give the Dodgers a 2-1 victory that evened the series at two games apiece.

Another pitching struggle ensued in Game 5. Nolan Ryan dominated the Dodgers until the sixth inning, when L.A. put together a three-run rally. Los Angeles starter Jerry Reuss threw a five-hit shutout in the 4-0 victory.

1986 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

NEW YORK ..... 4 GAMES
HOUSTON ..... 2 GAMES

Houston pitcher Mike Scott defeated the Mets in Games 1 and 4 and would have faced them a third time in Game 7 if the Astros had won Game 6. Houston scored three runs in the first as Bob Knepper shut out the Mets on two hits through eight innings. But in the top of the ninth, New York tied the game and sent the game to extra innings. No one scored again until the Mets put a run across in the 14th. Astro Billy Hatcher tied it up again later in the 14th with a home run just inside the left field foul pole. Two innings later, the Mets scored three runs. The Astros scored twice in the 16th, but fell just short as Jesse Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with two men on base to win his third game of the series and give New York the pennant.

In the series opener, Houston scored just one run off Dwight Gooden. The one run was plenty, as Mike Scott tossed a five-hit shutout and struck out 14. New York came back with five runs in Game 2 to win behind Bob Ojeda, who gave up 10 hits but only one run. In Game 3, the Astros held the lead into the last of the sixth, when New York tied the score with four runs. Houston retook the lead in the seventh with a run, but Lenny Dykstra won it for New York with a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The Astros win in Game 4 evened the series. Houston scored three runs by the time Scott allowed the Mets' only run of the game. Houston's Nolan Ryan gave up only two hits in the first nine innings of Game 5 while striking out 12, but New York's Gooden also yielded only one run in 10 innings of work. Astros pitcher Charlie Kerfeld shut out the Mets in the 10th and the 11th, and the Mets' Orosco stopped Houston in the 11th and 12th. In the bottom of the 12th, Mets' catcher Gary Carter's RBI single off Kerfeld ended the game and set the stage for the 16-inning marathon the next day.

1997 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

HOUSTON ..... 0 GAMES

After winning their first-ever National League Central title and their first division crown in 11 years, the Astros were swept in the NL Division Series by Atlanta. Despite a two-hit effort by Darryl Kile in Game 1, Houston fell victim to Braves ace Greg Maddux, who gave up only seven hits on his way to a 2-1 victory. Kenny Lofton's bloop double in the first inning manufactured into a run after two fly outs and teamed with Ryan Klesko's solo home run on the first pitch of the second inning for all the scoring Atlanta would need to win the opener.

In Game 2, a struggling offensive trio of Craig Biggio, Derek Bell and Jeff Bagwell, along with an uncharacteristic fit of wildness from starter Mike Hampton, led to a 13-3 Houston loss that put the Braves within one game of clinching the series. The Astros fell behind early, 3-0, but a two-run double by Brad Ausmus sparked a fourth-inning rally that temporarily tied the score. The Braves then scored a run after walking the bases loaded which opened the floodgates to a huge Atlanta rally.

John Smoltz dominated the Astros with a three-hit performance in Game 3 to seal the Atlanta victory and the sweep of the series. He struck out 11 batters on his way to his 10th post-season win, tying Whitey Ford and Dave Stewart for the Major League record in that category.

1998 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

HOUSTON ..... 1 GAME

The Astros 1998 season will be remembered as one of the most successful in the organization's 37-year history. The postseason, however, was a disappointment, as the Astros were eliminated in the National League Division Series.

The club entered the playoffs as the most feared team in the NL, featuring the league's most prolific offense and newly-acquired ace lefthander Randy Johnson. But four games later it was the San Diego Padres who advanced while the Astros went home.

Johnson, who was 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts after being acquired in a July 31 trade with the Mariners, lost both of his postseason starts despite a 1.93 ERA. The Houston offense managed just eight runs in the series.

After Kevin Brown shut down the Astros' offense in Game 1, Houston bounced back in Game 2 to beat San Diego 5-4, thanks to late-inning heroics by third baseman Bill Spiers. Games 3 and 4, however, belonged to the Padres, who ended the series on their home field at Qualcomm Stadium to advance to the NLCS.

1999 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

HOUSTON ..... 1 GAME

The Astros billed 1999 as a season to remember, as the team played their 35th and final season in the Astrodome. Unfortunately for the Astros, the final memory of baseball in the Astrodome is the loss in the Division Series to the Atlanta Braves. After winning Game 1 in Atlanta, 6-1, the Braves returned the favor the next day behind a one-hit gem by Kevin Millwood en route to a 5-1 victory. A 12-inning, 5-3 heartbreaking loss to the Braves in Game 3 gave Atlanta a two games to one lead entering the fourth and decisive game. Despite a come-from-behind effort during which the Astros erased a 7-0 deficit to inch within two runs of the Braves, Houston fell just short of sending the series to a Game 5, as the final box score in the last game to ever be played at the Astrodome read Atlanta 7, Houston 5.

2001 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

HOUSTON ..... 0 GAMES

The Atlanta Braves combined outstanding pitching performances with timely hitting en route to a three-game sweep over Houston in the 2001 National League Division Series. Atlanta starters posted a 1.77 ERA in three games while John Smoltz saved two of the three wins and the Braves bullpen as a whole allowed only one run in 6.2 innings pitched. Houston took a 3-2 lead in Game 1, but Chipper Jones' three-run home run in the top of the eighth propelled Atlanta to a 7-4 win. In Game 2, Atlanta's Tom Glavine and John Smoltz combined to shut out the Astros while a second-inning error allowed the only run the Braves would need in a 1-0 win. The Braves closed out the series back in Atlanta with a 6-2 Game Three win that included home runs from Atlanta's Paul Bako, Julio Franco, and Chipper Jones, his second homer of the series.

2004 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA ..... 2 GAMES

The Astros won their first playoff series in franchise history, defeating longtime playoff nemesis Atlanta in five games. Carlos Beltran homered twice and Houston exploded for 17 hits in a 12-3 win over the Braves in the deciding Game 5. Beltran collected four hits and drove in five runs in the clincher while hitting .455 with four home runs and nine RBI in the entire series, a series which saw the Astros set virtually every team offensive playoff record. Beltran became the second player in postseason history to drive in at least five runs in a clinching game.

The Astros scored four in the third and three in the fifth to win the series opener at Atlanta 9-3. Beltran, Jason Lane, Lance Berkman, and Brad Ausmus homered in the win, while Roger Clemens recorded career playoff victory number nine by allowing three runs in seven innings.

Atlanta evened the series in Game 2 on Rafael Furcal's two-run home run in the 11th against Dan Miceli. Roy Oswalt allowed one run in 6.1 innings in the loss, while Raul Chavez went 2x3 with a home run. Houston took a 2-1 advantage in the series in Game 3 in Houston, winning 8-5 thanks to a three-run sixth, a Beltran home run, and three RBI from Morgan Ensberg. Brandon Backe earned the win in his first playoff start and Brad Lidge earned the save.

The Braves knotted the series at two games apiece, scoring once in the ninth to win a 6-5 decision. Andruw Jones had three hits and Adam LaRoche three RBI in the Atlanta win, while Craig Biggio was 3x4 with a home run and three RBI. Russ Springer allowed the ninth-inning run to suffer the loss.

The series moved back to Atlanta for Game 5, which is where the Astros exploded for 12 runs and 17 hits to clinch the 2004 NLDS series victory.

2004 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ST. LOUIS ..... 4 GAMES
HOUSTON ..... 3 GAMES

The Astros came within one game of their first trip to the World Series but fell just short, losing the 2004 NLCS to St. Louis in seven games. Home runs by Albert Pujols and Scott Rolen against Houston starter Roger Clemens were the difference in the clincher, a 5-2 Redbird win at Busch Stadium that sent St. Louis to its first World Series since 1987. Offensively in the NLCS, Carlos Beltran paced Houston with a .417 average, four home runs, and eight RBI. Beltran's eight home runs in the 2004 playoffs tied Barry Bonds for the most in a single postseason. Lance Berkman homered three times and drove in nine runs, while Jeff Kent also hit three home runs while plating seven runners.

All seven games of the series were won by the home club, including 10-7 and 6-4 wins, respectively, by St. Louis in Games 1 and 2. The Cardinals scored six in the sixth in Game 1 (including five against Chad Qualls), while two runs in the bottom of the eighth against Astros reliever Dan Miceli gave Julian Tavaraz the win and the Redbirds a 2-0 series lead.

Roger Clemens earned the win in Game 3, with Kent, Beltran, and Berkman each homering in a 5-2 Astros victory. The Astros overcame a 5-3 deficit in Game 4, scoring two in the seventh and one in the eighth en route to a 6-5 win that gave Dan Wheeler his first postseason victory.

Game 5 was perhaps the most exciting in Astros playoff history, with Jeff Kent's three-run home run in the bottom of the ninth breaking a scoreless tie and propelling Houston to a 3-0 victory and a 3-2 series lead. Brandon Backe allowed only one hit and three baserunners in eight scoreless innings, while Kent's homer gave Brad Lidge the win after the right-hander recorded saves in Games 4 and 5.

Jim Edmonds' two-run home run in the 12th off Miceli allowed the Redbirds to even the series at three games apiece with a 6-4 St. Louis victory. Jeff Bagwell had three hits and two RBI in the loss, while Mike Lamb homered for Houston in a losing cause. In the deciding Game 7, Clemens allowed four runs and six hits in six innings, and the St. Louis bullpen held the lead for Jeff Suppan as the Cardinals advanced to the World Series.

2005 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA ..... 1 GAME

The Astros knocked Atlanta out of the playoffs for the second season in a row as Houston won the 2005 NLDS in four games. Chris Burke and Roger Clemens emerged as the heroes of clinching Game 4, the longest in postseason history. In the bottom of the 18th inning, Burke snapped a 6-6 tie and won the game with a solo home run, ending an eight-inning scoreless streak by both teams. Clemens earned the win after pitching three scoreless innings, on three day's rest in his first relief appearance in 21 years. Lance Berkman socked an eighth-inning grand slam to bring the Astros within one run, and with two outs in the bottom of the ninth, Brad Ausmus sent the contest into extra-innings with a game-tying solo home run. The decisive Game 4 lasted a postseason-record five hours and 50 minutes and the teams used a NLDS-record 42 combined players.

A five-run outburst in the eighth inning made Game 1 a blowout in the Astros favor, as Houston took a 1-0 series advantage with a 10-5 win. Morgan Ensberg led the attack with five RBI and three hits while Andy Pettitte earned the win. Craig Biggio doubled and scored three times as the Astros banged out 11 hits.

Atlanta secured its only win in Game 2 as the Braves scored five times off losing pitcher Roger Clemens in a 7-1 contest. Brian McCann hit a three-run homer and Adam LaRoche belted a two-run double as the Braves evened the series at one game apiece. John Smoltz allowed one run over seven innings and set a Major League record with his 15th postseason win.

Roy Oswalt pitched into the eighth inning of Game 3 and earned the win as the Astros took a 2-1 lead in the series. Houston set a NLDS record with seven doubles, including three by Craig Biggio, tying a postseason record. Mike Lamb broke a 2-2 tie in the third inning and put the Astros ahead for good with his third career postseason home run.

HOUSTON ..... 3 GAMES ST. LOUIS ..... 2 GAMES

Houston advanced to its first World Series after 44 years as the Astros defeated the Cardinals 4-2 in the 2005 NLCS. Roy Oswalt earned MVP honors as he picked up wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6. Oswalt allowed only two runs in the series, going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA and 12 strikeouts in 14 innings. Craig Biggio led the Astros with eight hits in the series and Chris Burke led the team with five runs scored.

Game 6 was decided in St. Louis, with Oswalt allowing three hits over seven innings to earn the win. Houston had 11 hits, including a home run by Jason Lane, in the 5-1 clinching game. Brad Ausmus went 3x4 in the contest and finished with a .318 NLCS average.

In Game 5, the Astros led 4-2 in the ninth and were on the verge of advancing to the club's first World Series when Albert Pujols smashed a three-run home run off Brad Lidge, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 comeback win. The blast by Pujols forced Game 6 and gave Lidge his first career postseason loss after going 1-0 with six saves to start his October career. Lance Berkman gave the Astros the lead in the seventh with a three-run home run off Chris Carpenter before St. Louis mounted its comeback.

St. Louis won the opening game of the series by a score of 5-3, but the Astros bounced back with wins in Games 2, 3 and 4 to take a 3-1 advantage overall. Reggie Sanders shined for the Cardinals in Game 1, with a home run and two RBI, as Andy Pettitte took the loss. Oswalt earned the win and Chris Burke homered in Game 2 as the Astros knocked off St. Louis 4-1. Brad Lidge earned a two-inning save and struck out three of the seven batters he faced.

Roger Clemens allowed two runs over six innings and was the winning pitcher in Game 3. Mike Lamb led the Astros offense, going 2x4 with a double, a home run, two RBI and two runs scored. Astros batters managed 11 hits and Lidge nailed down his second save of the series.

After trailing 1-0 in the fourth inning, the Astros battled back to win Game 4, 2-1. Jason Lane tied the contest at one with a solo home run in the fourth and Morgan Ensberg put the Astros ahead with a sacrifice fly in the seventh. Chad Qualls entered in the seventh and earned the win with a perfect inning of work. Lidge closed out the game and picked up his third save of the series.

2005 WORLD SERIES

HOUSTON ..... 0 GAMES

National League Champions for the first time in club history, the Houston Astros fell short in their first World Series appearance against the Chicago White Sox. For the series, the Astros were outscored just 20-14 in four games, marking the lowest run-differential in a World Series sweep since 1950. Two of the four games were decided by two runs and two were decided by a lone run, including the series finale. In Game 4, World Series MVP Jermaine Dye, singled home the game's only run in the eighth inning to make the score 1-0. Brandon Backe battled through seven scoreless frames, but Brad Lidge took the loss, falling to 0-2 in the World Series.

Roger Clemens had to exit Game 1 in the second inning with a left hamstring strain as the Astros lost 5-3. Mike Lamb homered and Lance Berkman tied the game early with a two-run double, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a home run in the fourth. Jose Contreras nailed down the win for Chicago and Bobby Jenks earned his first save of the series.

Game 2 was decided in the bottom of the ninth inning on a Scott Podsednik home run. With the game tied at six and the Astros two outs away from forcing extra innings, Podsednik hit a home run off Lidge, giving the White Sox a 2-0 lead in the series. Morgan Ensberg homered in the second and Berkman drove in two runs to stake the Astros to a 4-2 advantage, but Houston lost its lead on Paul Konerko's seventh-inning grand slam.

After five hours and 41 minutes and 14 innings, the Astros lost the longest game (time; tied in terms of innings) in World Series history by a score of 7-5. The Astros spotted Roy Oswalt four runs in the first three innings, but Oswalt was unable to hold the lead as the White Sox rallied for five runs in the fifth. Jason Lane hit a home run and drove in two, including the tying run off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth. Chad Qualls tossed three innings of scoreless relief before Ezequiel Astacio allowed Geoff Blum's game-winning homer in the 14th. The Astros pitching staff had gone eight consecutive innings without allowing a run.

ALL-STAR GAME #39 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 9, 1968

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the first inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the first and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched two perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

1968 ALL-STAR GAME

The 1968 All-Star Game in Houston was the first played indoors and on artificial turf.

ALL-STAR GAME #57 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 15, 1986

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed three perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the second. In the seventh inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, sitting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

ALL-STAR GAME #75 | MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON | JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the first inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two first-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched two innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run fourth, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the sixth ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final five innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

MINOR LEAGUE COORDINATORS

DEWEY ROBINSON

DIRECTOR OF PITCHING DEVELOPMENT

In January 2006, Dewey Robinson was named the Astros director of pitching development after nine seasons as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator. He works closely with Nolan Ryan in the coordination and oversight of the pitching aspect of the Astros player development program at all levels. He also adds responsibility in the scouting area.

The Astros Player Development Man of the Year in 1998, Robinson joined the Houston organization in 1997 after 10 years in the White Sox system. He served two years as the White Sox bullpen coach from 1993-94. He was also pitching coach at Class A Peninsula of the Carolina League in 1987 and coached at Class A Tampa in 1988 before becoming a minor league coordinator.

Robinson coached collegiately at Northwestern (1982-83) and Missouri (1984-86) after finishing his pro career in 1982. He compiled a 2-2 record with a 4.08 ERA in 30 games with the White Sox. He holds a bachelor of science degree in finance from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. He and his wife, Cindy, have two sons, Brett and Greg.

TOM WIEDENBAUER

MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Tom Wiedenbauer begins his seventh season as the Astros minor league field coordinator. Wiedenbauer has the unique distinction of having been a player, coach, manager, scout, roving instructor, and minor league field coordinator during his 30 years with the Astros.

Wiedenbauer was drafted by Houston as an outfielder in 1976 and spent the entirety of his eight-year minor league career in the Astros system. He played in four Major League games with the Astros in 1979. In 1983, he retired as a player and accepted his first coaching job with Houston at Daytona Beach in 1984. He later served four years as a minor league manager, guiding Osceola in 1986 and Columbus from 1987-89.

ORV FRANCHUK

MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Orv Franchuk joins the Astros organization for his first season as minor league hitting coordinator after spending four seasons as the Boston Red Sox minor league hitting coordinator. Franchuk brings with him over 20 years of pro baseball experience, including eight with the Oakland organization.

In 2002, he served as manager at Single A Vancouver, following four years as Oakland's roving hitting and catching instructor. Franchuk was the hitting coach for Triple A Edmonton from 1995-97. Prior to joining the Athletics, the Amesbury, Canada native spent seven seasons as a scout and hitting coach in the Angels system (1988-94) and eight seasons as a scout for Cincinnati (1977-84). Franchuk was a coach for the Canadian National Team at the 1977, 1980 and 1981 World Baseball Championships.

RUSS NIXON

MINOR LEAGUE ROVING INSTRUCTOR

Russ Nixon begins his 55th year in professional baseball this season, his fifth in the Astros system, and his second as a roving minor league instructor. He spent the 2005 season as manager of rookie league Greeneville, and 2004 as the skipper of the Class A Salem Avalanche, after joining the organization in 2003 as manager at Class A Lexington. He guided the Legends to a South Atlantic League playoff berth in his first season with Houston.

Nixon has both Major and minor league experience as a player, coach, instructor, manager, scout and farm director. He spent 2001 and 2002 with the Pittsburgh Pirates as the catching instructor, assisting manager Lloyd McClendon with team and player personnel evaluations and recommendations.

The former Major League catcher began his managerial career with the Reds Class A affiliate, Sioux Falls, in 1970. After six seasons as a minor league manager, Nixon joined Cincinnati's Major League coaching staff in 1976. From July 21, 1982, through the conclusion of the 1983 season, he served as the Reds manager, compiling a 101-131 record. Nixon was a coach with Montreal (1984-85) and Atlanta (1986-87) before stepping back into a managerial role with the Atlanta Braves (1988-90), replacing Chuck Tanner on May 22, 1988. After managing the Triple A Portland Twins in 1991, he returned to the big leagues as the bench coach for Seattle the following season. He has a Major League managerial record of 231-347 (.400 winning percentage).

Nixon managed in the San Diego farm system (1993-94) and then worked in the Padres front office (1995-97) before returning to the diamond in 1998. He also served three seasons in the Cincinnati organization as manager at Class A Billings prior to joining the Pirates.

A native of Cincinnati, Nixon graduated from Western Hills High School in 1953, the same school that produced Pete Rose and Don Zimmer, and he attended the University of Cincinnati. During his 12-year big league playing career with Cleveland (1957-1960), Boston (1961-65, 1968) and Minnesota (1966-67), he compiled a .268 batting average (670x2504), with 27 home runs and 266 RBI in 906 Major League games.

PETE FAGAN

COORDINATOR OF TRAINING, CONDITIONING AND REHABILITATION

Pete Fagan begins his sixth season in the Astros farm system as the coordinator of training, conditioning, and rehabilitation. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent 18 years as an athletic trainer in the St. Louis Cardinals system including serving as the athletic trainer at Triple A Memphis for four seasons (1998-2001). He has been recognized as one of the top trainers in minor league baseball, winning Trainer of the Year honors in 1994, 1999, and 2000.

Fagan has also worked as an athletic trainer for the past 23 years during the offseason in sports therapy clinics in Boston and St. Petersburg, Fla. He holds a bachelor of science degree from the University of Florida.

MIKE SMITH

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Mike Smith enters his seventh season in the Houston Astros organization and his first as strength and conditioning coordinator. Prior to taking on the role, he spent three seasons with the Lexington Legends as the athletic trainer. He previously served on the Legends staff in 2002, and also worked as athletic trainer at Salem (2003), Pittsfield (2001) and Auburn (2000). He spent the 2005 season at Mount Union College.

Smith received his bachelor of science degree in sports medicine from Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio. He went on to earn a masters degree in athletic training from Indiana State University.

JAIME GARCIA

ASSISTANT PITCHING COORDINATOR

Jaime Garcia joins the Astros organization as the assistant pitching coordinator after four seasons in the Reds organization as pitching coach. Garcia joined the Reds organization in 2003 as the pitching coach at Class A Daytona and spent the next three seasons in the same capacity with the Rookie Gulf Coast League Reds. Garcia spent two seasons as the Latin American pitching instructor for the Kansas City Royals before joining the Reds. Prior to that role, he served the Royals as pitching coach at Class A Charleston and has held various coaching positions in the Chicago-AL (1988-96), Milwaukee (1997) and Texas (1998-99) organizations.

HOUSTON ASTROS 2007 ELITE CAMPS

The Houston Astros hosted the Nolan Ryan Elite Pitching and Jeff Bagwell Elite Hitting Camps Jan. 29 through Feb. 2 at Minute Maid Park. The camps consisted of daily workouts targeting the techniques of hitting and pitching from a Major League standpoint.

The pitching portion of the camp was directed by Hall of Famer Ryan, who is in his fourth season as a special assistant to the general manager. Bagwell, the franchise's all-time home run leader, directed the hitting element of the Elite Camp. Manager Phil Garner also served as one of the directors of the camp. The 2007 Elite Camp marked Ryan's third year as a director of the camp while it was Bagwell's first.

Assisting in the camp were Astros minor league field coordinator Tom Wiedenbauer, director of pitching development Dewey Robinson, hitting coach Sean Berry, pitching coach Dave Wallace, bullpen coach Mark Bailey, bullpen catcher Javier Bracamonte, minor league hitting coordinator Orv Franchuk, minor league assistant pitching coordinator Jaime Garcia, Major League strength and conditioning coaches Dr. Gene Coleman and Nathan Lucero, minor league strength and conditioning coordinator Mike Smith and minor league coordinator of training, conditioning, and rehabilitation Pete Fagan.

The week-long camp consists of workouts by the organization's top prospects that allow the members of the front office, scouting and coaching staffs a chance to observe the players' techniques and skills and provide feedback to the players on how to improve in the areas of pitching, hitting and fielding. The prospects are given the opportunity to learn from two of the top names in the history of the game, Nolan Ryan and Jeff Bagwell.

For many of the minor league prospects, the camp is a chance to workout and become acclimated to Minute Maid Park. The camp also features lessons in how to handle all aspects of being a Major League player, both on and off the field.

ROUND ROCK EXPRESS

PO Box 5309 • Round Rock, TX 78683
(512) 255-2255 • (512) 255-1558 (fax) • roundrockexpress.com

In just its second season at the Triple A level, the Round Rock Express powered its way to a Pacific Coast League American Southern Division championship, clinching the league's first playoff spot with a 4-3 win over Albuquerque at The Dell Diamond on Aug. 24. Fueled by a franchise-record 170 home runs and a pitching staff that ranked second during the regular season with a 3.78 earned-run average, the 2006 Express became the fifth Round Rock team in seven years to reach the playoffs. Round Rock enjoyed a huge home-field edge, as the Express posted a 45-27 home record while finishing third among PCL teams in attendance. The Express advanced to the PCL Championship Series after defeating the Nashville Sounds in five games in the first round. The Tucson Sidewinders swept Round Rock in the finals en route to claiming the Triple A title.

AT THE PLATE: Three Round Rock hitters – Luke Scott, Cody Ransom and Brooks Conrad – all belted more than 20 home runs. Before being called up to the Astros, Scott batted .299 with 20 homers and 63 RBI while being named to the PCL All-Star squad. Conrad led the team in doubles (40), triples (15), homers (24), and RBI (94), while team MVP Joe McEwing led the Express with a .315 (133x422) average, which ranked eighth in the PCL. He finished the season with 38 multi-hit games, and his 133 hits ranked second on the Express while his 64 runs ranked tied for third.

ON THE MOUND: 2006 PCL Pitcher of the Year Jason Hirsh and Chris Sampson each posted 12-or-more wins on the mound for Round Rock. Hirsh posted an outstanding 13-2 record with the Express over 23 games. His 2.10 ERA, while at Round Rock, was the team-lowest. Hirsh represented the franchise at both the PCL All-Star Game as well as in the Futures game. Sampson finished the year 12-3 with a 2.51 ERA over 125.2 innings of work before being promoted to the Astros. RHP Travis Driskill led the Express with 15 saves during a team-high 52 appearances while posting a 3.20 ERA.

JACKIE MOORE

MANAGER, ROUND ROCK

Jackie Moore begins his third year as manager at Triple A Round Rock after leading the team to a Pacific Coast League American Southern Division championship in the club's second season at the Triple A level in 2006. Fueled by a franchise-record 170 home runs and a pitching staff that ranked second during the regular season with a 3.78 ERA, the 2006 Express became the fifth Round Rock team in seven years to reach the playoffs. Moore also served as coach during the MLB Futures Game in Pittsburgh.

During the first season at the Triple A level, Moore guided the Express to a 74-70 mark in 2005. He previously served five seasons as skipper of the Double A Express during which the team earned four Texas League playoff berths, including three consecutive from 2000-02.

In 2004, Moore continued his success with Double A Round Rock when the team claimed both the first- and second-half titles, and advanced to the TL championship series. The Express posted an 86-54 overall record, matching the best record in franchise history. Moore was named the league's Manager of the Year for the third time in five seasons, and he served as a coach at the 2004 MLB All-Star Futures Game at Minute Maid Park in Houston.

During the 2002 campaign, the team posted a 75-65 overall record and advanced to the Texas League playoffs for a third straight season. Moore landed six players on the TL All-Star squad, three on the Double A All-Star team, and he was also named a coach at the 2002 MLB All-Star Futures Game in Milwaukee.

The 2001 season proved to be a banner year for the Express, who posted the Texas League's best record (86-54) and swept the league's three major postseason awards: Manager of the Year (Moore), Player of the Year (Jason Lane), and Pitcher of the Year (Tim Redding). Moore was also chosen the Baseball America Manager of the Year.

The 2000 season was a storybook year for the former manager of the Oakland Athletics as Moore guided the Express to the Texas League championship in the franchise's inaugural season. Moore was named the league's Manager of the Year. He also led the TL All-Stars to two victories in midseason matchups with the Mexican League All-Stars. During its first season, Round Rock drew 660,110 fans to shatter the Double A attendance record and was named Baseball America's Minor League Team of the Year.

A graduate of Bellaire High School in Houston, Moore guided the Oakland A's from 1984-86. In 1999, he served as an assistant coach for the silver medal-winning Pan American team in Winnipeg.

Moore has been involved in baseball as a manager or coach since his playing career ended in 1967. He was the bench coach for the Rockies from 1996-98 and has also coached with Milwaukee (1970-72), Texas (1973-76, 1980, 1993-94), Toronto (1977-79), Montreal (1987-89) and Cincinnati (1990-92). He was the dugout coach for the 1990 World Champion Reds.

His 11-year playing career began in 1957 and included stints as an outfielder and a catcher with the Detroit and Boston organizations. He had one stint in the big leagues, spending the majority of the 1965 season with the Tigers. His lone year in the Red Sox system was 1967 with Toronto, topping the International League catchers with a .944 fielding percentage.

BURT HOOTON

PITCHING COACH, ROUND ROCK

Burt Hooton returns to Round Rock for a third year, following parts of five seasons (2000-04) as the pitching coach for the Houston Astros. Hooton previously served as the pitching coach for the Express in 2000 after four seasons as the pitching coach for the University of Texas, his alma mater, from 1996-99. The pitchers who flourished for the Astros during Hooton's tenure include Roy Oswalt, Brad Lidge, Wade Miller, Octavio Dotel, Brad Lidge, Ricky Stone and Jerome Robertson.

Hooton played in the Major Leagues for 15 years with the Chicago Cubs (1971-75), Los Angeles Dodgers (1975-84) and Texas (1985). On April 16, 1972, as a 22-year-old rookie in his fourth big league start over two seasons, he threw a no-hitter for the Cubs against Philadelphia. In 15 big league seasons, Hooton compiled a 151-136 record (.526) with 1,491 strikeouts over 2,652 innings. Over 11 postseason games, Hooton was 6-3 with a 3.17 ERA. He was 3-3 in six World Series outings, posting a 3.70 ERA. Hooton was the winning pitcher in the clinching Game 6 of the 1981 World Series for the Dodgers over the Yankees, and he finished the '81 postseason with a 4-1 mark and a 0.82 ERA in five starts.

Following his junior year at UT, Hooton was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the secondary phase of the 1971 draft and made his Major League debut nine days later. He fanned his first batter, Lou Brock, and went on to set a Cubs rookie record by striking out 15 batters in a game later that season. Hooton is one of just 17 players since the draft era began in 1965 to advance directly to the big leagues after being selected.

After finishing his playing career with the Texas Rangers in 1985, Hooton began his coaching career with Class A Salem of the Northwest League from 1988-89. He served as the pitching coach for Double A San Antonio of the Dodgers organization from 1990-94, and coached the 1995 season with Triple A Albuquerque.

Hooton went 15-1 to lead Corpus Christi's Richard King High School to the Texas state title as a high school pitcher before beginning his career with the Longhorns. His dominating tenure at Texas culminated in a 35-3 record and 1.14 ERA. He is among UT's all-time pitching leaders in almost every category, including 13 career shutouts. He was the first pitcher ever to be named First Team All-American three consecutive seasons (1969-71).

"Happy" Hooton and his wife Ginger reside in San Antonio during the offseason. The couple has two grown children. He got his nickname from his former manager, Tommy Lasorda, because he seldom looked as if he were happy.

RON JACKSON

HITTING COACH, ROUND ROCK

Ron Jackson joins the Astros organization for his 19th year as a Major League or minor league hitting coach and first with Houston. He spent the previous four seasons with the Boston Red Sox as Major League hitting coach.

Jackson also spent three seasons as hitting coach for the Dodgers' Triple A clubs in Albuquerque and Las Vegas from 2000-02. A veteran hitting coach, Jackson also spent time with the Brewers (1999) the White Sox (1997-98). He began his coaching career as a minor league coach with the White Sox, first as hitting and first base coach with Triple A Vancouver then as hitting and third base coach at Double A Birmingham. Jackson joined the Brewers as minor league hitting instructor in 1991-92, then served as hitting coach at Triple A New Orleans from 1993-95 until becoming Chicago's first base coach on June 2, 1995. He was later named the hitting coach on Aug. 16, 1997.

Jackson played first base, third base, the outfield and DH during a 10-year career with the Angels (1975-78, 1982-84), Twins (1979-81), Tigers (1981) and Orioles (1984). He hit .259 with 56 homers and 342 RBI in 926 games, hitting a career-best .297 for the 1978 Angels and in 1979 set personal highs with 158 hits, 40 doubles, 14 homers, 68 RBI and 85 runs for the Twins. His .9943 fielding percentage at first base in '79 broke Rod Carew's team record. He was selected by the Angels in the second round of the 1971 June Draft.

Ron and his wife, Cheryl, have five children, and his older brother, Lawrence, played in the White Sox organization. A graduate of Wenonah High School in Birmingham, AL, "Papa Jack" was honored as the BoSox Club's Man of the Year in 2003.

DANNY SHEAFFER

COACH, ROUND ROCK

Danny Sheaffer joins the Astros organization after six seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system. He served four years with the Triple A Memphis Redbirds as manager. In 2002, he managed the Peoria team to an 85-53 record and the Midwest League Championship. He made his coaching start with the Cardinals in 2001 as manager at New Haven and spent 1999 and 2000 managing the Chicago Cubs single A affiliate in Eugene, Ore.

Sheaffer began his Major League career when he was briefly called up in 1987 while playing with Boston. He also played in the big leagues with Cleveland and Colorado before going to St. Louis in 1995 for three seasons. Sheaffer played for the Cardinals Triple A Memphis club in 1998 and retired from baseball during the Cubs' Spring Training camp in 1999.

Sheaffer graduated in 1979 from Redland High School in Lewisberry, Pa., where he was the school MVP and earned all-state honors in baseball. He played baseball while attending Harrisburg (PA) Junior College and Clemson University and appeared in the 1980 College World Series with Clemson. Sheaffer was the 20th selection overall in the first round of the 1981 draft by Boston. He and his wife, LaDonna, have two sons and a daughter.

MIKE FREER

ATHLETIC TRAINER, ROUND ROCK

Mike Freer, the athletic trainer at Triple A Round Rock, is in his 18th season with the Astros minor league system. In 2003, he was named the Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Freer worked his way up in the organization, beginning at Class A Kissimmee (1990-93), continuing with Double A Jackson (1994-96), and now at the Triple A level (1997-present). He joined the organization in 1990 after serving as head athletic trainer at the University of Richmond. He was also previously the head athletic trainer for the New York Mets Triple A affiliate at Norfolk.

Freer is a 1976 graduate of Baylor University, where he also earned a master's degree.

THE ASTROS AND RYAN-SANDERS BASEBALL

On September 15, 2004, the Houston Astros and Ryan-Sanders Baseball announced the signing of two Player Development Contracts (PDC). The Astros signed a four-year PDC with Round Rock for the Express to serve as Houston's Triple A, Pacific Coast League affiliate through the 2008 season. Round Rock had been Houston's Double A affiliate since 2000. The Double A PDC with the Corpus Christi Hooks was extended two seasons through 2008. Corpus Christi began its first season as a Texas League franchise in 2005, and both the Round Rock and Corpus Christi clubs are owned by Ryan-Sanders Baseball.

CORPUS CHRISTI HOOKS

PO Box H • Corpus Christi, TX 78469
(361) 561-4665 • (361) 561-4666 (fax) • cchooks.com

Corpus Christi became the only Astros minor league affiliate to win its league title when the Hooks claimed a 3-1 series win over Wichita in the Texas League Championship on September 15. The Hooks dominated the Texas League during the first-half of the 2006 season to clinch a spot in the playoffs, finishing the half 41-28 in first place and 5.5 games ahead of second place Midland. A league-high nine players and four coaches represented the franchise in the Texas League All-Star game where OF Josh Anderson was named All-Star MVP.

Despite a stellar first-half, the Hooks struggled in the second-half, posting an 11-24 road record to drop them to third and 8.5 games behind first place Midland in the standings. In the first round of the TL playoffs, the Hooks made quick work of the Midland RockHounds, sweeping the best-of-five Division Series. Corpus Christi faced the Wichita in the Championship Series, and split the Wranglers in the first two games in Wichita, Neb. After a win in Game 3, the Hooks held the advantage in the series. In a dramatic, 14-inning, and nearly five-hour Game 4, Corpus Christi earned the walk-off win to claim the Texas League title.

AT THE PLATE: A dominant outfield trio of Josh Anderson, Jorge Cortes and Hunter Pence lead the Hooks offensively while getting help early in the season from shortstop Ben Zobrist (.327) and catcher J.R. House (.325). Anderson was named Hooks Team MVP after earning both mid-season and postseason TL All-Star honors while being named MVP of the TL All-Star Game. Anderson led the league in hits (173) and stolen bases (43) as well as ranking eighth with a .308 (173x561) average. Pence led the Hooks in runs scored, home runs and RBI. Cortes fashioned a team-record 27-game hitting streak and a 55-game on-base streak this season.

ON THE MOUND: Prior to being called up to the Majors, Matt Albers helped lead the Hooks pitching staff with a 2.17 ERA in 19 starts. He was named the Texas League Pitcher of the Year after finishing his Double A performance 10-2. Albers was named the Texas League Pitcher of the Week from 6/12-18/06 and represented the team in the TL All-Star Game, as well as being selected for the Postseason All-Star squad. Closer Paul Estrada had a breakout year, as he struck out a team-high 131 batters, good for third place in the TL. Estrada's 131 strikeouts led all TL relief pitchers, and he finished with 15 saves and a 3.05 ERA.

CORPUS CHRISTI HOOKS STAFF

MANAGER, CORPUS CHRISTI

Dave Clark begins his third season as manager of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks after guiding the club to the Texas League Championship title in 2006. Named Texas League Manager of the Year, Clark served as a coach at the MLB All-Star Futures Game in Pittsburgh in 2006. He led the club during its inaugural season in 2005 and spent the previous five seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.

In 2004, Clark managed his first season at Pittsburgh's Class A Hickory, guiding the Crawdads to an 85-55 record and the South Atlantic League title. Hickory captured the North Division second-half crown with a 46-24 record. Clark also served as a coach in the 2004 SAL All-Star Game.

In his managerial debut in 2003, Clark led Class A Lynchburg to the Carolina League finals and was named the league's Manager of the Year. He also served as manager of the Carolina League All-Star team.

Clark spent two seasons on the Pittsburgh Pirates coaching staff, serving as hitting coach from 2001-02, and was Triple A Nashville's hitting coach in 2000 - his first professional coaching assignment.

A former Houston Astros outfielder, Clark played 13 seasons in the Majors during which he batted .264 with 62 home runs and 284 RBI in 905 career Major League games. He closed out his big league career with Houston in 1998. He also appeared as a pinch-hitter in the National League Division Series in 1998 with the Astros (two walks) and in 1996 with Los Angeles Dodgers (0x2).

Clark was originally selected by Cleveland in the first round (11th overall pick) in the 1983 draft and made his Major League debut with the Indians in 1986. His big league career included stints with the Indians (1986-89), Chicago Cubs (1990, 97), Kansas City Royals (1991), Pirates (1992-96), Dodgers (1996) and Astros.

He attended Jackson (MS) State University where he was the team's MVP and top hitter in both 1982 and 1983. He was inducted into the Jackson State Sports Hall of Fame in November 2000, joining the likes of Walter Payton, Jackie Slater and "Oil Can" Boyd. His brother, Louis, played seven years in the NFL with Seattle (1987-93) and Green Bay (1994).

He and his wife, Vivian, make their home in Collierville, Tenn., with their two daughters: Meki (22) and Kiki (20). He is a 1980 graduate of Shannon (MS) High School, and was 26-0 as a Golden Gloves boxer while in high school.

STAN BOROSKI

PITCHING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

A versatile member of the Astros organization, Stan Boroski joins the Corpus Christi staff as pitching coach after serving four seasons at Class A Salem. Boroski served in the same role at Class A Michigan from 2001-02, where he was named a coach for the 2002 Midwest League All-Star Game. Boroski has worked as both a scout and a coach for the Astros over the past 14-plus years. He served as a scout for the Astros from 1991-93 and in 1997; was both a scout and a coach from 1994-96; and was a coach from 1998-2000 with the Gulf Coast Astros and Martinsville Astros.

The Milwaukee Brewers selected the Ohio native as a catcher in the 20th round of the June 1981 draft. Boroski, who attended Ohio University, played two seasons for the Milwaukee organization. He signed with the Royals in 1985 and finished his playing career as a pitcher in Kansas City's system.

JOHN TAMARGO, JR.

HITTING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

A former infielder in the Astros system, John Tamargo, Jr., begins his fourth season in the coaching ranks in the Astros organization and third with Corpus Christi. Tamargo was named to the Texas League All-Star staff in 2006. He spent the 2004 season on the staff of Class A Salem in the Carolina League.

Tamargo played eight years in the minor leagues, including the 2003 season at Double A Round Rock. He was drafted by the New York Mets in the 21st round of the June 1996 draft, and he played parts of four seasons at the Triple A level. He is the son of former Astros coach John Tamargo, Sr., and played collegiately at the University of Florida, which included a trip to the 1996 College World Series.

JAMEY SNODGRASS

ATHLETIC TRAINER, CORPUS CHRISTI

Jamey Snodgrass, the 2001 and 2002 Midwest League Trainer of the Year, begins his ninth season in the Houston Astros organization and third in Corpus Christi. Snodgrass was named to the Texas League All-Star staff in 2006. He spent the 2003-04 seasons as the athletic trainer at Double A Round Rock after serving two seasons at Class A Michigan from 2001-02. Snodgrass worked his first two years in the Astros system (1999-2000) as the athletic trainer at Class A Auburn.

A graduate of Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, Snodgrass previously worked for the Concorde Therapy Group, performing athletic training duties for high school student-athletes. He also worked with student trainers as an affiliated instructor for Mount Union's athletic training program. In his final year at Mount Union, he was honored as the Senior Athletic Trainer of the Year.

SALEM AVALANCHE

PO Box 842 • Salem, VA 24153

(540) 389-3333 • (540) 389-9710 (fax) • salemavalanche.com

Salem ended an 18 year playoff drought as they claimed the Carolina League's Southern Division second-half crown. After recording the second-worst record in the CL in the first half, the Avalanche rebounded to finish their first playoff berth since 1988 with a 44-23 second-half record. The Avalanche had five players named to the Carolina League-All Star team (C Lou Santangelo, 2B Drew Sutton, LF Beau Torbert, RHP Rodrigo Escobar, RHP Chad Reineke). Boosted by the arrival of pitchers Tip Fairchild, German Melendez, and Raymar Diaz, and infielders Wladimir Sutil and Ole Sheldon from Lexington, Salem posted two five-game winning streaks in the second half before rolling off 14 consecutive wins from August 15-29, a franchise record, which was the longest winning streak in CL history since 1958. Manager Jim Pankovits was named the CL's Manager of the Year. Salem was limited to just two games in the CL playoffs as the Kinston Indians went on to win the league title.

AT THE PLATE: Outfielder Beau Torbert led the Avalanche and ranked second in the Carolina League with both a .305 (139x455) average and 139 hits. Torbert also led the team with 69 runs scored and 24 stolen bases and was named a CL midseason and postseason All-Star. Lou Santangelo was one of the CL's most dangerous hitters, as he launched 18 home runs and slugged .473. Santangelo was named to the CL All-Star team and to the postseason All-Star squad, and was the only Avalanche hitter to be named the CL Player of the Week twice.

ON THE MOUND: RHP Jimmy Barthmaier anchored Salem's pitching staff, which posted a league-best 3.36 ERA. Barthmaier's 11 wins and 146.2 innings pitched ranked second in the league, and he led the Carolina League with 134 strikeouts. Barthmaier was named the CL Pitcher of the Week from 8/14-8/20 after he went 2-0 with a 0.64 ERA and 13 strikeouts in two starts. Closer Rodrigo Escobar finished with 17 saves, which ranked third in the CL, and he struck out 64 batters in 63.2 innings.

SALEM AVALANCHE STAFF

MANAGER, SALEM

Former Astros infielder Jim Pankovits returns to the managerial ranks for his second season at the helm of the Salem Avalanche. Named the Carolina League Manager of the Year in 2006, Pankovits led the Avalanche to its first playoff berth since 1988 with a 44-23 second-half record that helped the club clinch the CL's Southern Division second-half crown. He spent the previous six seasons in the Houston organization as the minor league defense coordinator. He also served as the minor league infield coordinator in 2000.

Pankovits had two previous stints as a manager in the Astros system. He spent two seasons (1995-96) as manager at Class A Quad City of the Midwest League and two seasons as manager at Double A Jackson (1998-99). As skipper of Quad City, he guided the River Bandits to two Midwest League Western Division crowns, advancing to the second round of the playoffs each season. He also managed the Venezuelan League's Caracas club in 1998.

Prior to managing Quad City, he spent the 1992-94 seasons guiding Boston's Double A affiliate in New Britain (CT).

Pankovits was drafted by the Astros in the fourth round of the June 1976 draft. He spent six years in the Houston system before being traded to San Diego in 1982. In 1983, he rejoined the Astros organization and made his big league debut with the club in 1984. Pankovits spent parts of five seasons in Houston, compiling a .250 average in 318 games.

Following his years with Houston, the infielder played in the Pittsburgh and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations. He signed a minor league contract with Boston in 1990 and made a brief appearance with the parent club.

LARRY PIERSON

PITCHING COACH, SALEM

Larry Pierson joins Salem as pitching coach for his first season in the Astros organization. Pierson spent the previous four seasons as pitching coach in the Reds organization from 2003-06. Prior to joining the Reds, he spent eight seasons coaching in the Boston organization. Pierson began his coaching career in 1995 as the pitching coach with the Rookie GCL Red Sox. He also held the same positions at Class A Lowell (1997), Class A Michigan (1998), Class A Augusta (1999) and Class A Sarasota (2000-02). The former right-handed pitcher played four seasons (1987-90) in the St. Louis system.

CHUCK CARR

HITTING COACH, SALEM

Chuck Carr begins his fourth season coaching in the Astros organization and third with Salem. In 2004, he served as the base running and outfield coach at Class A Lexington.

A former Houston outfielder, Carr played parts of eight seasons in the Major Leagues. He was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the ninth round of the June 1986 draft, and he made his big league debut in 1990 with the New York Mets. After one season with St. Louis in 1992, he was the Florida Marlins 14th pick in the 1992 expansion draft. In 1993, he led the National League in stolen bases (58) and was named to the Baseball Digest All-Rookie team. He concluded his career in 1997, splitting the season between Milwaukee and Houston. He appeared in 63 games for the Astros, batting .276 with four home runs and 17 RBI. Carr finished his career with a .254 average, 13 home runs, 123 RBI and 114 steals.

ERIC MONTAGUE

ATHLETIC TRAINER, SALEM

Eric Montague returns for his seventh season as a trainer in the Astros organization and third at Class A Salem. This season will be Montague's 11th in professional baseball, as he previously spent five years with the New York Mets organization (1997-2001).

Montague also served as a student trainer at Mississippi State University in Starkville, Miss., where he earned a bachelor of science degree in fitness.

After dominating the first half of the season and clinching the Northern Division title of the South Atlantic League, the Legends struggled in the second half. While their 44-25 first half record was the best in the league and second-best in franchise history, behind only the 2001 championship season, the Legends 31-38 second half record was the second worst in team history. The Legends shot out of the gate with a five-game winning streak to open the season. They continued their hot streak throughout the first half and sent six players and manager Jack Lind to the All-Star game. After the All-Star break, the Legends success began to decline due in part to the departure of five players. Despite their slow second half, the Legends swept their final series to cap off the season with a 75-63 overall record heading into the playoffs. Unfortunately, it was a short trip to the postseason as the Lakewood BlueClaws swept Lexington in two games of the best-of-three division series.

AT THE PLATE: After helping the Legends clinch the first-half Northern Division title, All-Star Ole Sheldon was promoted to Salem. Sheldon led the team with a .322 batting average and 27 doubles. Lexington MVP Eli Iorg also had a stellar year at the plate, leading the team in three categories, including home runs (15), hits (120), RBI (85) and stolen bases (42). SS Tommy Manzella was the only Legend to receive a spot on the Postseason All-Star squad as his average jumped from .161 during the first month of the season to his final average of .275.

ON THE MOUND: RHP Tip Fairchild (10-3) anchored the pitching staff through the first half of the season with a 1.95 ERA and 98 strikeouts in 108.2 innings en route to an All-Star selection. After Fairchild was promoted to Salem, RHP Brad James took over as the Legends ace for the second-half. James (6-2) notched a 1.36 ERA and struck out 51 batters through 92.1 innings. Both pitchers were recognized as SAL Pitcher of the Week during the season.

LEXINGTON LEGENDS STAFF

GREGG LANGBEHN

MANAGER, LEXINGTON

Gregg Langbehn enters his first season at the helm of the Lexington Legends after spending three seasons as manager of the Tri-City ValleyCats. Langbehn led the ValleyCats to their second division title in three years in 2006. During his first managerial stint in 2004, he guided Tri-City to the New York-Penn League championship series in the club's first playoff appearance. The ValleyCats posted a 50-25 overall mark and claimed the 2004 Stedler Division title.

In 2003, Langbehn served as a coach at Class A Lexington as the team advanced to the South Atlantic League playoffs and boasted four players on the SAL All-Star team. For the 2001-02 seasons, he was a coach at rookie league Martinsville. During the 2000 season, he split time between New Orleans (bullpen coach), Round Rock (bullpen coach), and Midwest League Champion Michigan (pitching coach). He moved to the pro coaching ranks as the pitching coach at Auburn in 1999.

Langbehn served as an assistant baseball coach at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1997 and 1998. A former minor league pitcher, the Wisconsin native played from 1988-94 in the New York Mets system before finishing his career in 1995 for both the Boston and Milwaukee organizations. The left-hander had a career minor league record of 48-43 with a 3.32 ERA in 264 games including 71 starts. The Mets selected Langbehn in the 11th round of the 1988 draft.

LANGBEHN'S RECORD AS A MANAGER

YEAR	CLUB	LEAGUE	WON	LOST	POSITION
2004	Tri-City	NY-Penn	50	25	First, Stedler Div. - lost in finals
2005	Tri-City	NY-Penn	34	42	Third, Stedler Division
2006	Tri-City	NY-Penn	43	31	First, Stedler Division

CHARLEY TAYLOR

PITCHING COACH, LEXINGTON

Charley Taylor enters his 26th season as a coach in the Houston system, and his seventh year as the pitching coach at Class A Lexington. The 2005 season marked his 32nd season overall with Houston after spending seven seasons (1969-75) as an Astros minor league hurler.

Taylor has been pitching coach for five different championship clubs, including the 2001 South Atlantic League champion Lexington Legends and the 2000 Midwest League champion Michigan Battle Cats. His other championship teams include 1984 South Atlantic League champion Asheville, 1986 Southern League champion Columbus, and the 1993 Texas League champion Jackson.

Taylor retired as a player after the 1975 season and worked in Cincinnati's front office from 1977-81. His coaching career began at Asheville in 1982 and includes stops at Osceola (1985), Columbus (1986, 1990) and again at Asheville (1987-89). He had two stints as the Jackson pitching coach from 1991-95 and again from 1998-99. Taylor also served as pitching coach at Tucson (1996), Quad City (1997), and Michigan (2000).

ALEX ECKELMAN

HITTING COACH, LEXINGTON

Alex Eckelman joins the Lexington Legends as hitting coach for his first stint as a coach. The 30-year-old played in the minors from 1997-2005. During the 2005 season, Eckelman hit .250 (42x168) in 61 games for Round Rock and .274 (23x84) in 26 games for Corpus Christi. The infielder from St. Louis, was signed by Houston as a free agent on Nov. 28, 2003 after playing in the Cardinals minor league system.

J.D. SHIELDS

ATHLETIC TRAINER, LEXINGTON

J.D. Shields enters his fourth season in the Astros system and first at Lexington. He spent the previous three seasons at Greeneville. He also assists during Extended Spring Training.

Shields joined the Astros organization from the University of Texas at Arlington where he served as an assistant athletic trainer, working with the baseball team. He has also worked as an assistant at Southeastern Oklahoma State University (2003).

He received his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology from Texas A&M University where he served as a student assistant. He earned his master's in education from Stephen F. Austin State University while completing a graduate assistantship as an athletic trainer.

SHORT-SEASON A | NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE

TRI-CITY VALLEYCATS

PO Box 11458 • Lexington, KY 40575
(606) 252-4487 • (606) 252-0747 (fax) • lexingtonlegends.com

Tri-City overcame a slow first month to capture the New York-Penn League's Stedler Division with a 43-31 record, becoming the first team to earn a playoff berth. After a 5-6 month of June, the ValleyCats posted a 36-20 mark over the next two months to take control of the Stedler division. The ValleyCats won their second division title in three years and drew a team-record 129,126 fans during the season. As a result of their strong play, the ValleyCats sent a league-high seven players to the New York-Penn League All-Star Game. The ValleyCats swept Auburn in the Division Series, but dropped the New York-Penn League Championship Series 2-1 to Staten Island.

AT THE PLATE: OF Jordan Parraz established himself as one of the elite hitters in the league, leading the New York-Penn League with a .336 batting average, a .421 on-base percentage and a .494 slugging percentage. Parraz also placed in the top 10 in the league in home runs, runs scored, RBI and stolen bases, earning him a spot on the All-Star team. Another All-Star selection, IF Eric Taylor, posted a solid season at the plate with a .315 batting average and 42 runs scored, both of which placed in the top 10 in the league. Taylor also placed among the top three on the team in batting average, runs, hits, stolen bases and doubles.

ON THE MOUND: LHP Chris Salamida led Tri-City's pitching staff with a league-best 10 wins and a league-low 1.06 ERA. After dropping his first start of the season, Salamida recorded 10 consecutive wins, earning a spot on the All-Star squad. Bryan Hallberg and LHP David Qualben also ranked among the top 10 in league pitching. The pitching staff finished third overall in the league with a 3.00 ERA.

TRI-CITY VALLEYCATS STAFF

PETE RANCONT

MANAGER, TRI-CITY

Pete Rancont joins the Tri-City ValleyCats this season for his first managerial stint. He completed three seasons with the Greenville Astros coaching staff after spending the 2003 season with the Class A Salem Avalanche. He served 2002 with the Class A Lexington Legends and the 2001 season at Class A Michigan. He first joined the professional ranks in 2001 after nearly 30 years coaching at the high school and college levels in Alabama. Most recently, Rancont spent 13 years as the head baseball coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham (1987-99) following a five-year stint as the associate baseball coach at the school. During Rancont's tenure as head coach, UAB won three conference titles and participated in an NCAA regional. He was named the 1992 Great Midwest Coach of the Year after leading his squad to the conference title.

Rancont was a two-year letterman and a two-time All-SEC Eastern Division shortstop for Auburn during his college playing days, and he received his Master's degree from Auburn in 1983. Before starring for the Tigers, he lettered for two seasons at Gulf Coast Junior College in Panama City, Fla.

DON ALEXANDER

PITCHING COACH, TRI-CITY

Don Alexander returns to the Houston system to begin his third season on the coaching staff at Tri-City. He spent the previous four years coaching at the high school level.

Alexander began his professional coaching career in the Astros organization at Class A Auburn in 1990. His seven seasons in the Houston system (1990-96) included stints at Class A Quad City, Class A Asheville, and with the rookie league Gulf Coast Astros. From 1996-99, he was the Double A pitching instructor with the San Diego organization. The 1998 Mobile squad claimed the Southern League title and the pitching staff led the league in ERA, complete games, shutouts, fewest hits allowed and fewest walks allowed. He was also a pitching coach in the Cincinnati system from 1999-2000.

A longtime pitching instructor at the San Diego school of baseball, Alexander played collegiately at the University of San Diego from 1976-80. He served as pitching coach at San Diego Mesa College for six years, and was an associate scout for the Astros from 1986-89.

JOEL CHIMELIS

HITTING COACH, TRI-CITY

Joel Chimelis joins the Houston Astros organization for his second season as a coach for the Tri-City ValleyCats. He spent the previous two years on the coaching staff of the Class A Savannah Sand Gnats in the Washington Nationals organization.

A former infielder, Chimelis was selected by Oakland in the 11th round of the 1988 Major League draft. He was traded to the San Francisco Giants in 1991 and spent the 1996 season in the New York Mets organization. He reached the Triple A level in the Giants system, playing for Phoenix from 1992-95, and he was called up to the Majors during the 1995 season. During his 13-year minor league career, he also enjoyed stints in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, Korea and Canada. In 2000, he posted career-highs in home runs (30) and RBI (98) while playing for Dos Laredos of the Mexican Summer League.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Chimelis played baseball at Howard Junior College in Big Spring, Texas, and was a member of the 1988 University of Texas squad. He was named to the 1988 NCAA Central Region team with the Longhorns.

JOHN PATTON

ATHLETIC TRAINER, TRI-CITY

John Patton enters his fifth season in the Astros organization. He spent two previous seasons at Short Season Tri-City after joining the Houston system as athletic trainer for Rookie League Martinsville in 2003. Prior to the Astros, Patton served an internship as an athletic trainer in the Baltimore Orioles organization in 2002.

Patton received a bachelor of science degree in athletic training from Manchester College in North Manchester, Ind., in 2001. At Manchester he served as a student athletic trainer, working with the baseball, football, basketball, track, wrestling and soccer teams. During the offseason, he works at Orthopaedics Northeast in Fort Wayne, Ind., in the SportONE sports medicine division.

GREENEVILLE ASTROS

PO Box 5192 • Greeneville, TN 37743

(423) 638-0411 • (423) 638-9450 (fax) • greenevilleastros.com

The Greeneville Astros closed out their 2006 campaign tied for second place in the Appalachian League Western Division. The team posted a 9-2 record over their last 11 games to finish 34-33, their second winning season in three years. After entering August with a 17-23 record, the Astros registered a 17-10 month to climb back over .500 for the season. For the third consecutive season, the Astros led the league in attendance with 51,633 fans in 34 games (1,518 avg.), outdistancing the second place team by 11,502 fans.

AT THE PLATE: Greeneville MVP Ronald Ramirez ranked among the top 10 in the Appalachian League in batting, doubles and hits, earning him Postseason All-Star honors. He led the Astros in four major offensive categories, including batting (.314), hits (72), doubles (20) and slugging percentage (.459). IF Brandon Caipen batted .265 while leading the team and ranked fourth in the AL with 15 stolen bases.

ON THE MOUND: The Astros pitching staff topped the league with a 3.35 combined ERA. LHP Polin Trinidad (4-4) tossed a league-leading 77.1 innings and notched a 2.33 ERA, third best in the league. Greeneville also featured the league's strikeout leader in Sergio Severino (90), while Trinidad fanned 70, tied for fourth in the league. RHP Santo Luis finished the season with a miniscule 1.82 ERA and his 10 saves tied for third in the AL.

GREENEVILLE ASTROS STAFF

MANAGER, SALEM

Rodney Linares joins the Greenville coaching staff for his first stint as a manager after serving as hitting coach for the Lexington Legends for two seasons. Before joining the Legends in 2005, Linares spent six seasons with the Astros Dominican Republic operations. He served as a scout and hitting coach.

Linares joined the Astros coaching staff in 1999 following a three-year minor league playing career. He began his professional career as a non-drafted free agent infielder with the Detroit Tigers in 1997. He played in 1997-98 in the Detroit Tigers system before finishing his playing career in 1998-99 in the Astros system.

BILL BALLOU

PITCHING COACH, GREENEVILLE

Veteran minor league pitching coach Bill Ballou is in his third season at Greenville, after completing six consecutive seasons on the Short-Season Class A level, including three at Tri-City. He previously worked at Auburn (1999) and Pittsfield (2000-01). This season marks his 12th year with the Astros organization.

Ballou served as pitching coach for Michigan in 1999 and Quad City in 1998 when the River Bandits claimed both halves of the Midwest League Western Division. He had worked the two previous seasons (1996-97) as pitching coach at Auburn.

A minor league player with the Yankees and Cubs (1957-64), Ballou led the Northwest League in ERA in 1962 and was 10th in ERA in the Texas League in 1964. He served as a scout for the Cubs from 1979-82 before becoming a coach in their system in 1983 at Geneva. In 1987, Ballou joined the White Sox player development staff, coaching at Sarasota (1987, 1993-94), Utica (1988-92) and Hickory (1995).

Ballou graduated from Baldwin (NY) High School and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Ithaca (NY) College before beginning his professional playing career.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE AND ACADEMY STAFF

RAFAEL RAMIREZ

MANAGER, DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE

A 14-year veteran of the Major Leagues and a former Astro, Rafael Ramirez scouts and serves as the manager of the Houston Astros affiliate in the Dominican Summer League.

Ramirez played for the Atlanta Braves from 1980-87 and was named to the All-Star Game in '84. After being traded to the Astros after the 1987 season, Ramirez played five years for Houston (1988-92).

Signed as a free agent by the Braves in 1976, Ramirez made his Major League debut for Atlanta in 1980. The shortstop led the club in hits (169) and posted career highs in games (157), home runs (10) and steals (27) for the National League Western Division champions in 1982.

In his first year with the Astros in 1988, Ramirez notched a 12-game hitting streak and had career highs with 30 doubles and 59 RBI. For his career, Ramirez batted .261 with 53 homers, 484 RBI and 112 steals.

After 21 spring camps in Astrotown at Cocoa, Fla., the Astros decided to try something new in 1985. They cleared ground near U.S. 192 and started from scratch, building the state-of-the-art Osceola County Stadium complex in Kissimmee, Fla.

When it opened, the complex was hailed as the best of its kind in Florida, and its unique "cloverleaf" design has served as a blueprint for many teams as they built new spring facilities – Kansas City, Cincinnati, and Minnesota. The stadium and complex has been more than the Astros Spring Training home for the past 22 seasons. It has played host to many local civic events. The playing field at Osceola County Stadium was also recognized by Sports Turf Magazine and the Beam Clay Company as its Baseball Field of the Year for 1990-91.

The Astros opened Osceola County Stadium on March 3, 1985, when a then-record crowd of 6,742 saw Houston defeat the New York Yankees 9-6. In 2003, the stadium opened its doors once again against the Yankees, but with a whole new look. It underwent an $18.4-million renovation, featuring a new facade, new seating, expanded clubhouses and training facilities, a picnic area, and a re-designed press box and concession areas. A recent lease agreement will keep the Astros in the upgraded Kissimmee facility through 2016. The team is currently riding on the sixth-longest tenure in the Majors at a Florida spring home.

Houston first conducted Spring Training in Apache Junction, Ariz., in 1962 and 1963 before moving to Cocoa in 1964.

- Four executive suites
- Picnic area along the first base side
- Party deck to accommodate private functions for up to 80 guests
- Autograph Alley
- Playground for children
- Two multi-purpose meeting rooms

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- enter the ballpark through the South Home Plate media entrance, located on the Texas Ave. side of the ballpark adjacent to the Media Will Call Window 28.
- provide photo identification and sign in at the media entrance.
- allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- clearly display working credentials at all times.
- allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

All 2007 season credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or by the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis...daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, on company letterhead at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must be applied for through www.mlbpressbox.com. This will be the process for Astros regular season, Spring Training, College Classic, and National League Division Series credential applications.
- daily credentials will be available at the Minute Maid Park Media Will Call located at Window 28 on Texas Avenue, four hours prior to first pitch.
- no spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes and credentials are not transferable.
- credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs...any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with their photo season credential. Contact the Astros media relations department at (713) 259-8900.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box is located on the Main Concourse on the street level...all broadcast positions are located on the Club Level and are accessible from the press box elevator or the press box stairs.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Located on the Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a $7 charge per meal. Media dining is open for service two-and-a-half hours prior to first pitch to accredited members of the media.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible by the press box elevator or stairs...the Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side...pre- and post-game access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball...clubhouses are open three-and-one-half hours before game time and will now close one hour before first pitch, with the exception of batting practice, when clubhouses will be closed.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch...no person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PHOTOGRAPHERS/PHOTO WELLS: In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. There are four photo wells, located on either side of both the home and visiting dugouts. All photographers must remain in the photo wells while the game is in progress. Photographers are only permitted to change location between innings. No ball -- in play or dead -- should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.

DARK ROOMS: Dark rooms are located on the Service Level behind home plate.

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The Press Conference Room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.

NOTES: Game notes, updated Major League statistics, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the media entrance of the press box on the Main Concourse two hours prior to first pitch...box scores, play-by-play sheets and post-game notes will be available in the same area after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES: An ample supply of credit card-only phones are available for media use in the main press areas.

WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Minute Maid Park. Contact the media relations department for details.

ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is www.astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, www.mlb.com, can also be accessed via www.astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, www.astros-enespanol.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.

MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto www.mlbpressbox.com (on the official MLB web site). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download hi-resolution logos for MLB, special events and the 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and selected executives. All media covering the Astros register on the MLB Pressbox site, and all media credential requests for Astros games are now handled through MLB Press Box.

ON THE AIR

The Astros blanket Texas and the Gulf Coast region at home or on the road on radio and television.

- 2007 marks the eighth year with KTRH, 740 AM in Houston, serving as flagship of the Astros 35-plus station English network. KBME-AM, 790 AM, will broadcast the majority of Spring Training games while KTRH will broadcast all regular season games.
- all Astros games are broadcast in Spanish on the Astros Spanish radio station, KLAT 1010 AM.
- cable outlet Fox Sports Net and KNWS-TV 51 provide television coverage of the Astros at home and on the road (subject to change).

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

In 2006, former longtime Astros broadcaster Gene Elston was named the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. The Frick Award is presented annually to a member of the broadcasting fraternity for mafor contributions to the game of baseball. Elston, who broadcast games for the Houston franchise from 1962-86, is the second Astros broadcaster to capture the award, as current play-by-play broadcaster Milo Hamilton captured the award in 1992.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

- ★ The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.
- ★ If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- ★ The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- ★ Houston, Arizona: Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.
- ★ If the game begins with the roof closed: (Houston, Arizona, Milwaukee) it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.
  - > The roof may only open once during a game.
  - > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
  - > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
  - > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.

ASTROS HAMILTON AMONG WHO'S WHO IN BROADCASTING HISTORY, INDUCTED INTO FOUR HALLS OF FAME

With 56 years of broadcasting baseball, Milo Hamilton is truly one of the giants in the game today. The man who called Henry Aaron's 715th home run in 1974 is among a short list of baseball broadcasting pioneers who have been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame, receiving the honor in 2000. Mel Allen, Red Barber, Jack Brickhouse, Jack Buck, Harry Caray, Ernie Harwell, Harry Kalas, Vin Scully and Bob Uecker are also members. The 2000 class of inductees included Oldies radio innovator Dick Bartley, engineering genius Dr. Amar G. Bose, legendary comedian Eddie Cantor, announcer Fred Foy and veteran New York broadcaster John A. Gambling. In 1992, Hamilton received the Ford C. Frick Award from the Baseball Hall of Fame. The prestigious award goes to a broadcaster "for major contributions to the game of baseball." The Iowa native has been broadcasting baseball for 56 years, including the past 22 as the highly popular "Voice of the Astros." He first began broadcasting baseball in 1950 in Davenport, Iowa. Milo was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994 and the Texas Radio Hall of Fame in 2005.

BILL BROWN

Bill Brown returns for his 21st season as the club's primary play-by-play voice on television.

- * he joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program...prior to that assignment, he was sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised selected games of the Reds, Royals and Cardinals.
- * Brown spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82.
- * he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on November 12, 2004.
- * Bill is a member of the Advisory Board at Houston Taping for the Blind and has been a volunteer reader for 11 years.
- * Brown and his wife, Dianne, reside in Houston. They have one daughter, Allison, and three grandchildren: Luke, 5, Emma Kate, 3, and Caitlynn, who was born in June of 2006.

JIM DESHAIES

Jim Deshaies returns for his 11th season to serve as an analyst on television.

- * returned to the Houston organization in 1997 to provide color commentary for both television and radio.
- * he was a 21st-round draft selection of the New York Yankees in the 1982 June free agent draft. He came to the Astros in a trade that sent Joe Niekro and Dody Rather to the Yankees on Sept. 15, 1985.
- * he had an immediate impact on the 1986 West Division championship team by setting a club rookie record for victories with 12 and finished seventh in NL Rookie of the Year balloting. Deshaies set a modern-day Major League record on Sept. 23, 1986, when he fanned the first eight batters he faced in a start against the Dodgers.
- * his finest season in the Majors was with Houston in 1989 when he fashioned a 15-10 record with a 2.91 ERA over 225.2 innings pitched. His 61 wins for the Astros are third-most by a lefthander to Mike Hampton's 69 and Bob Knepper's 93.
- * an 84-95 lifetime record also included Major League time with San Diego, Minnesota, San Francisco and Philadelphia.
- * was on the ballot in 1999 as one of the starting pitchers on the Astros All-Astrodome Team.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 from September 1 to opening day; 25 from opening day to August 31, although teams have the option to carry 24 players instead of 25.

TRADING REGULATIONS: For assignment from one Major League club to another, waivers are necessary ONLY beginning August 1 and ending on the day following the close of the championship season. At all other times, no waivers are necessary for trades at the Major League level.

WAIVER PERIODS: End of season to 30th day of season; 31st day of the season to July 31; August 1 to end of season. Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at the close of previous season.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

NIGHT GAME: Any game that starts at 5 p.m. or later.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, including official times at bat, bases on balls, hit by pitch, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base due to interference or obstruction.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at-bats.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if a player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide [hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch] by [at-bats plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies]. For purposes of this percentage, ignore being awarded first base on interference or obstruction.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total number of games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

MINUTE MAID PARK GROUND RULES

CAMERA WELLS: Any ball hitting camera – DEAD BALL. Any ball hitting rail and/or padding – IN PLAY.

FLAG POLE: Any ball hitting flag pole and leaving the field -- HOME RUN. Any ball hitting flagpole and remaining on the field -- IN PLAY. Any ball hitting flagpole, bouncing on the ground, and then leaving the field -- TWO BASES.

HOME PLATE SIGNS: Any ball hitting or resting on the ledge of the signs behind home plate – IN PLAY.

OUT-OF-TOWN SCOREBOARD: Any ball going through or lodging in the Out-of-Town Scoreboard – TWO BASES.

OUTFIELD PADDING: Any ball lodging on top of outfield padding -- TWO BASES.

ROOF: Any ball hitting roof in fair territory – IN PLAY. The striking point on the ground determines if ball is fair or foul. Any ball hitting roof in foul territory – DEAD BALL.

TARP: Any ball lodging under or behind tarp -- DEAD BALL.

MINUTE MAID PARK

Astros

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, Bayou City hardball faithful also enjoyed another first in Minute Maid Park's 242-foot-high retractable roof. Fans approved the new ballpark overwhelmingly, resulting in a then-record of more than 3,000,000 fans through the Minute Maid Park turnstiles in the 2000 season. The club has welcomed more than 19,000,000 visitors in the facility's seven seasons of play.

A jewel in the crown of the majestic downtown Houston skyline, Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. The downtown ballpark continues the proud tradition of visionary innovation in stadium construction, beginning with the club's previous home — the Astrodome. Minute Maid Park's retractable roof technology brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass surface and classic architecture provided Minute Maid Park the atmosphere of the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year from its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on a local, state and national awards level. Following are the first three major awards to honor the new home of the Astros:

Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.

Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), the professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.

National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the Top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played in the game, including NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent, and Lance Berkman.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bounded by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the South, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

ARCHITECT: HOK Sports Facilities Group. Construction Manager: Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated that the popular Minute Maid Squeeze Play attraction at the ballpark will continue for the length of the 28-year agreement, along with pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on February 27, 2002, by agreement of the Houston Astros and Enron Corp.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. The building is a symbol of the important role the railroad has played in the city's relatively short history, especially early in the 20th century. The director of Minute Maid Park's identity and graphics takes its cue from this period.

The railroad created Houston. Flourishing trade established a base of wealth and culture, an infrastructure of banks, a port and railheads. By 1910, railroads constituted the city's largest industry. In 1911, Union Station – already key to the rail industry's growth and influence – was redesigned and reopened.

Built at a cost of $500,000 at the corner of Texas Avenue and Crawford Street, Union Station was dedicated on March 2, 1911. It has been estimated that between 7,000 and 10,000 Houstonians passed through the front doors into the 45-foot-high lobby, which included three varieties of polished marble. By the mid-1940's, Union Station was handling 5,000 travelers daily on 36 passenger trains.

Team officials note that approximately 60 percent of fans enter Minute Maid Park via Union Station. Walk-up or booked Minute Maid Park tours, offered year-round, also begin in the Union Station lobby.

The second and third floors comprise the Conference Center, open 365 days a year and providing a wide array of meeting rooms that can give businesses and organizations state-of-the-art facilities. Nestled in different areas of the ballpark are additional meeting rooms and areas that provide the perfect atmosphere for a meeting or luncheon.

The Houston Astros executive offices are housed in the fourth and fifth floors. The sixth floor features the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where private groups of up to 100 can enjoy the game and an incredible view of the Houston skyline.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also proves a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 12-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path.

Forged steel wheels measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels. Each of the 140 wheels has its own braking mechanism and 60 are equipped with electric motors.

If the track is slightly out of alignment, all the weight of a roof panel could come to rest on one wheel, causing severe structural damage. To prevent this, a polyurethane suspension pad that acts as a spring is attached above each wheel to distribute the roof's weight. The low track/high track configuration and the roof's built-in glass wall not only offer valuable efficiency, but afford a panoramic view of the surrounding landscape unlike any other roofed ballpark.

PLAYING FIELD: Three wall heights, various angles in the corners and power alleys, a 10-degree, uphill slope – "Tal's Hill" – for a center field warning track, and a flag pole in the field of play create unique actions for any ball that gets past an outfielder.

Featuring Seashore Pas Palum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 78 irrigation heads help make the job for head groundskeeper Dan Bergstrom and his staff much easier.

SOUNDS: A total of 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

TECHNOLOGY: Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. The Daktronics black-and-white matrix board and Daktronics color matrix board present baseball fans with a unique experience at Minute Maid Park. The primary scoreboard, measuring 35 feet by 131 feet, displays player and team stats on the left side while the right features graphics and animation, including the recreation of several of the Astrodome's effects of yesteryear. A speed pitch board, four auxiliary scoreboards and an old-fashioned manually operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. The state-of-the-art video board high atop Minute Maid Park is a product of SACO Smartvision, providing fans with unmatched instant replays and special video features and effects unlike anywhere in Major League Baseball.

SEATING: With visually redirected seats and baseball-only sightlines, Astros fans are as close to the action as any in big league baseball. Seats along the right and left field foul lines are only five feet from the line, while the nearest spectator along the first and third base lines can be as close as 43 feet to the game.

The overall seating capacity of Minute Maid Park is 40,950, featuring nine different seating areas: Dugout Boxes, Field Boxes, Crawford Boxes, Bullpen Boxes, Club I, Club II, Terrace Deck, Mezzanine, and View Deck. Each of the ballpark's four levels – Main Concourse, Club Level, Suite Level, and Upper Concourse – afford fans a uniquely different perspective.

Minute Maid Park's seats are a deep green to match the retro look and design of the ballpark. Approximately 6,500 seats in the Diamond Level and Charter Seat License areas in the lower bowl and Club Level include cup holders.

Fans sampling the various Minute Maid Park ticket options will find the following at Houston's ballpark: seats on top of the action, various one-of-a-kind amenities like the Minute Maid Squeeze Play, the "9 Amigos" patio in center field, and panoramic views of the ballpark and spectacular views of the downtown Houston skyline.

One of the most popular seating areas are the Crawford Boxes, located in left field. This area provides fans with a unique perspective of what it is like to be a Major League outfielder.

The Diamond Club, Club Level and Suites provide the ultimate in entertaining areas, while groups can take advantage of special mezzanine seating and "The Champions" party room. "Home Run Alley" is a 810-foot long fan arcade, including the fan-favorite "Conoco Home Run Porch" in left-center field that is actually over the field of play, and features a classic gasoline pump to keep track of the number of Astros home runs that are hit.

The Astros Suites, located between the Club Level and Terrace Deck, provide luxury and comfort for watching Major League games. Beautifully appointed with a bar/buffet, socializing area and closed-circuit TVs, the suites offer privacy and comfort for personal and business entertainment. Sliding glass doors open to stadium chairs, designed to seat guests in two rows.

Keeping with Astros tradition, children 14-and-under are still able to purchase a $1 ticket for seats in the Outfield Deck section.

Food courts and concession stands are designed to preserve the spirit of Houston's Union Station. Regional fare and ballpark favorites are located on the main concourse and in the upper deck.

SPECIAL AMENITIES: Inside the ballpark, the "9 Amigos" center field restaurant offers restaurant or outdoor seating for options for fans seeking fine dining. The Minute Maid Squeeze Play area along the right field line provides children with a fun, safe, interactive experience. The Conoco Home Plate Tower along Texas Avenue is a popular gathering point for fans, and it also features a carillon to provide music at appropriate times of the day.

MINUTE MAID PARK, A VENUE FOR ANY EVENT

NOTABLE EVENTS

As Minute Maid Park enters its eighth season in existence, the downtown Houston facility has developed into much more than just a venue for Houston Astros games. From music festivals and concerts to graduations, galas, and a variety of events including everything from former President Bush's 80th birthday and American Idol auditions, Minute Maid Park is a perfect place for any event, sports-related or otherwise.
